Richmond Hill's Council is going to sic the bailiff on businesses that fall behind in their taxes. A "Liberal" story on this including the words "deadline" and "bankrupt" set us to second-thinking about a comparison with the Quebec "dead" line of bankrupts . . . But we decided it would be a sic joke.

Two youths from the House of Concord, who appeared for sentencing on charges of committing wilful damage, escaped jail sentences and were placed on probation for a year. The magistrate also told Laurie McPhee and Richard Rogers, both 16, that they would have to remain at the House of Concord during that time and adhere strictly to the regulations of the home as well as receive permission from the court any time they wanted to leave it.

William Ritchie, 22 who was also convicted last September on a charge of robbery with violence, had his case put over for sentencing until October 19. Mr. Hollinrake said he didn't want to go ahead with sentencing the accused without hearing the views of Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong, who was on probation at the time of his arrest, then send him to jail.

Walter Dowell, 16, who was with the accused when they tore up the contents of several cottages in Whitchurch Township in July, also appeared for sentencing on charge of car theft. Magistrate Hollinrake said he would rather "take another chance" on the accused, who was on probation at the time of his arrest, than send him to jail. Dowell was remanded in custody of the House of Concord and will appear for sentencing November 18.

Neighborhood Notes
We wish a speedy recovery to our hospital patients. Mrs. Jim Rice is in Women's College Hospital, Toronto, and Mrs. Frank Harvey is in York County Hospital, Newmarket.
Master Terry Doner came home Tuesday after spending several weeks in Sick Children's Hospital.
Some have misunderstood the announcement of the re-opening of Buttonville Post Office. This does not take the place of the Gormley Post Office. The only difference as far as Gormley is concerned is that Russel Taylor, the RR2 courier, will have 79 fewer people to deliver to. He will be travelling exactly the same route as he does now.
Andrew James and Walter Kelly of Emmanuel Bible College, Kitchener spent Thanksgiving weekend with their parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis Climbogge of Stevensville spent several days with the Misses Henderson.
Mrs. Beulah Jones spent Thanksgiving with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and family of Windsor.
Master Kyle Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, of Rockwood, is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, Kyle has a new baby sister, Susan Ellen, born on October 1.
Mrs. E. W. Jones and Mrs. A. Hollands accompanied Mrs. Geo. Leary on a visit Mrs. Ida Cook at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. Spence of Stouffville. Mrs. Chas. Milsted and Charleen spent Thanksgiving week-end with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fogarty, at their cottage near Parry Sound.
Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George French were Mrs. Chas. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heise, Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mrs. Marion Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Empringham spent Thanksgiving week-end in Ottawa.

Markham Twp. Receives Setback In Plans To Acquire Extra Parkland

A delay in acquiring some land for park purposes has brought about some extra problems for Markham Township Council.
Two weeks ago, council, acting in response to a request from Grandview Highland Community Association in March, gave second reading to a by-law calling for the expropriation of lots 5, 6 and 7 for additional land for the park area west of Henderson Avenue Public School. The land is owned by Wycliffe Homes.
The ratepayers also wanted assistance in getting a community centre for the area, which is bounded by Steeles Avenue on the south, Bayview Avenue on the east, CNR By-pass on the north, Yonge Street on the west.
Council approved the setting up of a centre at its meeting the first week in June.
Last Monday, H. Souppoff, Toronto, informed council the land, which had been sold in July for an industrial development and would cost council approximately another $50,000 if it wished to purchase it.
He said the owner was ready to build this year, which would provide assessment right away. However, as an alternative proposal, council could buy a portion of another lot on the south side of Glencameron Avenue, north of the railroad.
Said Councillor Cleary Palmer: "We're not here to discuss an alternative, but whether it's good or bad."
Council will consider its merits during the week.
Another project, which has been kicking around council for some time, received impetus at the meeting.
Council presented a letter from Hengran Developments Limited, builders of the 400-unit Varley Village in Unionville, saying that contracts had been called for the building of sewage works in the development.
Approval for the sewage works, which were contained in the subdivision agreement, was given last January by council after nearly a year of debating the issue.
Council also: Agreed to a meeting with the police village library boards of Unionville and Thornhill on October 25 at 7:30 to discuss the possibility of a central library for the township.
Approved the withdrawal of the proposed by-law calling for a $50,000 debenture loan for the now-abandoned Centennial park project.
Received a letter from the DHO turning down a joint request from Vaughan and Markham Townships for traffic lights on Highway 11 and Garden Avenue, and recommending a crosswalk instead. Council instructed the clerk to ask for a copy of the DHO inspector's report, which contained the recommendation.
