Hill Credit Union Co-Op Observes 'Special' Day

By FRED SIMPSON
From assets totalling only $4,000 four years ago to ones totalling $37,000 today is the success story told by the Richmond Hill Credit Union Ltd., co-operative.

And it will be joining forces with other credit union organizations today (Thursday) as "Credit Union" day is celebrated throughout the world. It was only four years ago the co-operative, then known as the St. Mary's (Richmond Hill) Credit Union Ltd., allowed maximum loans of only $200. Today that amount has been increased to $1,850.

It was in 1960-61, some eight years after its creation in 1952 by St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church under a community charter, that a group of persons started to move to expand credit union here. They were headed by lawyer John Lawlor, Clare Logan, John Burton and others. Mr. Logan retired as manager in May, 1965 but most of the others remain active in the union. President is Stan Lucas.

The success of their efforts is borne out by the above statistics and other factors. Last year payroll deduction plans were started for the town police department and later for employees of Texas Instruments Incorporated. The local office is in the Co-operative Insurance office in the Richmond Heights Centre and is open from 7:30 to 9 pm Monday and Friday except on holidays.

Operates on three levels. It has three levels of operation made up of a board of directors under President Lucas; a credit committee under Chairman Jake Bourbonniere; and a supervisory committee under the chairmanship of Ivan Mansbridge. What is a credit union? It is a group of people with a common bond, who save their money together and from this pool of savings make low-cost loans to one another. The first credit union was started by Friedrich Wilhelm Raiffeisen in 1849 in southern Germany to help the peasants in a time of severe famine. In 1864 he organized the first credit union of the type we have today.

The idea spread to other countries and in 1900 Alphonse Desjardins, a Quebec Legislative reporter, organized North America's first credit union at Levis, Quebec. There are 1500 credit unions and 700,000 members in Ontario with assets totalling $450 million. It operates by depositing in a bank money saved by the members and is used as a fund from which only members may borrow. Entry Fee 25 Cents. Entry fee is 25 cents. It encourages its members to save regularly, even in small amounts, as payments of shares unions do charge less than this rate. Credit union interest is generally less than that charged by financial institutions. The life of an insurable member may be insured in an amount equal to his or her savings to a maximum of $2,000 up to age 55. Savings accumulated between 55 and 70 are insured on a percentage basis. For further information contact the local office at the Richmond Heights Centre.

or deposits in the credit union. A credit union share, usually valued at $5 is simply savings accumulated in the credit union. The term "share" is used to indicate the unit of saving upon which dividends may be paid. The actual cost of a credit union loan is usually 6.5 percent less any rebate voted at the annual meeting. This is based on the usual interest rate of 1 percent on the unpaid balance of the loan, the maximum rate permitted by law. Some credit the board recommended attendance by a member of the board, staff, administration or all three; Ontario School Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association seminar on salary negotiations, October 28 to 30 in Toronto, superintendents' conference in Toronto, October 26 and 27, Ontario Curriculum Institute in Toronto, Ontario Educational Research Council annual meeting in Toronto. Said Finance Committee Chairman Jack Knott: "The budget's very tight, but I think we'll make it okay."

Last month the board was informed it had overspent its $2,000 convention budget by $287. The board also: Approved a request from Kathleen Beatty, grade 7 and 8 teacher at Crosby Heights, that the board recommend her services to the Department of National Defence for an overseas teaching position. In approving the application, the board decided not to insist on its policy that the applicant should be 25 years of age. Miss Beatty is 21 and will have had three years' teaching experience by June, 1966, the date when she would leave the school system.

Miss Beatty would be away for two years and would be under no obligation to come back to Richmond Hill. While away, however, the Department of National Defence would reimburse the board for her full salary. Granted permission to Florence Thomson, a teacher at MacKillop, to be away October 28 and 29 to accompany the Toronto Mendelssohn Choir to an International Choral Festival in Boston. Approved the purchase of an overhead projector and two screens at a total cost of $249.58 for Pleasantville School.

Agreed to let the Eighth Richmond Hill Scout Troop use a classroom at Walter Scott for a parents' night meeting October 26. Dr. Murray told members of the York County Health Unit on Wednesday of last week that 1,500 persons will have received the serum this year. The program got underway in the first week of October. "This program has been very well received in the past", Dr. Murray said, "and the vaccination against influenza apparently does cut down definitely on absenteeism."

"The offering of this vaccine under health unit auspices is felt to be of value in establishing good public relations although there is no intent to take this type of work from the family practitioner where undoubtedly it rightfully belongs. However, mass programs such as these can possibly best be held under unit auspices."

In other business, the board approved the appointment of Mrs. Mary Shatford as a public health nurse at a salary of $5,100 per annum beginning November 1, 1965. Mrs. Shatford has been employed in Scarborough. It also finalized arrangements for the annual board and staff dinner which will be held November 13 in Morgan Hall in Markham Village.

Other special guests included Reeve Albert Campbell, of Scarborough, Warden P. S. Legge, of York County; Howard Greer, President, OPA, Floyd Lashley, secretary of the OPA; Markham Reeve Charles Hooper, and York County Agriculture Representative Al Wall. Richmond Hill Deputy-reeve Floyd Perkins acted as master of ceremonies.

NEWMARKET: Charges of manslaughter and criminal negligence causing death were withdrawn by the crown against Allen Longfield, 24, Holland Landing, Mrs. Blanche Woolven, 35, was struck and killed by a car on the village main street. The car was found later smashed into a hydro pole. Longfield was still charged with failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Mr. Addison stressed the key role the young farmer plays in the world today and pointed out the great advantages an educated person can enjoy on a modern farm today. He also recounted the Liberal's efforts to assist potential farmers indicating the grant-sharing program with the provincial governments to aid agricultural schools.

"We must train the farmers of tomorrow if we are to continue to grow as a nation", he concluded. Mr. Stewart took a different stand saying the trend in youngsters leaving the farms "will continue and there is very little we can do to stop it. "But it will be these people who will also leave their mark as leaders in every walk of life and for some will also include farming. This to me is the important thing."

He then described the 4-H clubs stating "they represent the cream of Ontario's youth. Not all will stay on the farms but enough will think enough of agriculture to carry on in the footsteps of their parents."

Thomas Stevenson, 16, of Oak Ridges, who appeared for sentencing on a charge of assault occasioning bodily harm and consuming liquor while under age, was given a suspended sentence on the first charge and 10 days on the second. In ruling out a long jail term, Magistrate Ord said: "I don't wish to sound pontifical and you probably won't pay any attention anyway, but if you don't get educated well enough, you will keep going from one job to another."

Thomas Stevenson Sr., father of the youth, testified his son had recently returned to school. Stevenson was convicted last month after beating up a Richmond Hill youth on Yonge Street. Robert Copping, 16, of the House of Concord, was remanded to October 21 for a pre-sentence report when he was convicted of taking a car without the owner's consent. The offence occurred September 26 and involved a truck from the Windsor Lumber Co., Concord.

Robert Allard, 17, also of Newmarket, who appeared with Pemberton for sentencing on the same charge, was sentenced to jail for nine months. Mr. Ord told Allard, who was already on probation, that part of his trouble was in not having a job and hoped that he would be able to learn a trade in jail. Allard was sentenced to the Ontario Reformatory, with a strong recommendation that you will be sent to Brampton Training School".

Before The Magistrate

Recommend Alcoholic Clinic For Youth As Part Of Jail Sentence

A 17-year-old youth, who admitted most of his problems stemmed from alcohol, will receive treatment at the Attorney-General's Alcoholic Clinic as part of a four-month jail sentence handed out to him last week at Magistrate's Court. Larry Pemberton of Newmarket appeared before Magistrate John Ord for sentencing on a charge of breaking, entering and theft of a car last month. Mr. Ord said the pre-sentence report showed that the youth had drinking problems, and suggested that he be sent to the clinic for the last 90 days of his sentence to be cured. Pemberton agreed to the treatment. Robert Allard, 17, also of Newmarket, who appeared with Pemberton for sentencing on the same charge, was sentenced to jail for nine months. Mr. Ord told Allard, who was already on probation, that part of his trouble was in not having a job and hoped that he would be able to learn a trade in jail.

Plowing Match Banquet Attracts 1200 Persons On Awards Night

Over 1200 persons bulged the rink of the Tam O' Shanter Golf Club at Agincourt Friday night as the 1965 International Plowing Match closed out with a banquet and awards night. Chief celebrities were Charles Bonney, of Princeton, who copped the Canadian Plowing Championship for the second time and follow-up Tom Hickman of Chilliwack, B.C. Both will participate in the next World's championship competition to be held in Chilliwack. Alex McKinney, of Brampton, president of the Canadian Plowing Council presented the Esso Silver Plow trophy to Mr. Bonney. Featured guests at the large banquet included John Addison, MP for York North, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario William A. Stewart, and Lex MacKenzie, MLA for York North. Mr. Addison stressed the key role the young farmer plays in the world today and pointed out the great advantages an educated person can enjoy on a modern farm today.
