

Attention Richmond Hill Central Branch of the YCHA — please note change of date of next meeting which will be held next Tuesday evening (November 9) at the home of Mrs. J. Grainger, 130 Yonge Street South.

Top O' The Hill Nursery School held a Halloween party on October 29 and the young pupils enjoyed masquerading in their costumes, Jack O' Lanterns, candies, cookies and all the Halloween fun.

Peter Smith will be receiving his master's degree in metallurgical engineering at a convocation at McMaster University, Hamilton, on Friday.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith, Centre Street West will be attending the ceremony. Peter is continuing his studies at McMaster for his doctorate.

The YWCA are sponsoring a children's art class at the "Y" centre, Allencourt Plaza on Saturday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 am.

Instructing the course is Ruth Walker, professional artist, who has a small studio in her home on Highway 7.

Attending the class are Stephen Tomlin, Jan Henderson, Glynis Walker, Jill Watts, Lexa Wright, Nani Farwell, Mary Anne Ellis, Melody Lynden, Donna and Laura Queregens, Kathy Paxton, Janet and Brule Thornhill, Cam Halliday and Barb Worm.

Delta Lambda Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held their Rushing party October 5 at the home of Marianne O'Connell. This year's theme is "Crown Every Moment" and was also used as the theme for the party. Lunch was served by the social committee.

The chapter held their "Model" meeting October 12 at the home of Ruth Smith. The program "Jewellery" was given by Irene Dowden. The guest speaker Charles Smith who is a silversmith gave an excellent and very interesting demonstration of this delicate and intricate art. Mr. Smith is one of the few metal chasers in Canada.

Indian summer seems to have come and gone and so has the last meeting for the month of October which was held at the home of Alice Cameron. The program "Painting the Person" was given by Sandra Eveleigh.

Planning on Entertaining?
Call
Nanda Caterers
884-3818

COME and SEE UNDEFEATED CHAMPIONS Richmond Hill INDIANS FOOTBALL TEAM
Sat. Nov. 6
Meet EAST YORK LIONS
AT TOWN PARK
Richmond Hill
TIME - 1 P.M.
This ad is sponsored by Allencourt Pharmacy Ltd.
Wm. C. Lazebny, B.Sc. Pharm.
884-4461
Allencourt Shopping Centre
Markham Rd. & Bayview
Avenue
Richmond Hill

Miss Lynda Leonard, daughter of Mrs. W. Leonard, and the late Mr. Leonard, 178 Lawrence Avenue, now a WREN in the operations branch of the Royal Canadian Navy left October 23 for Key West, Florida. While in Florida she will be taking a course in oceanographic research at the U.S. Naval Base. After the course she will be returning to Richmond Hill to spend Christmas with her family. She will then proceed to Elizabeth, New Jersey to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard, before returning to HMCS Shelburne, her new base.

Volunteer drivers for the local branch of the cancer society are urgently needed. If you can spare a few hours a week, Mrs. S. Bezgs at 884-1800 would very much appreciate hearing from you.

The Christmas Tree Bazaar, an annual event held by the UCW of the Richmond Hill United Church, is being held this Saturday at the church from 2 - 5 pm.

Many interesting new ideas are featured this year including a pampered pantry booth, and slumbertime boudoir. There will also be a treasure hunt, Christmas decorations, bake sale and tea booth — what a pleasant way to do one's Christmas shopping.

We tip our hats this week to Alvin Leckie, proprietor of Richmond Hill & Richvale Taxi who Tuesday noon stopped his cab at the corner of Yonge Street and Markham Road and escorted three young kindergartners across the busy intersection. The regular crossing guard at this location is ill and the police officer who is filling in for him had not yet arrived.

Have you lost any jewellery recently? Any unsolved burglaries? If so, maybe the Curtain Club can help you.

In its next production "Shop At Sly Corner" you will be involved in crime — and watching it pay off quite handsomely — for a while! A mysterious antique shop that has its own smelting furnace, a bizarre murder — the makings of a first rate thriller with a most unusual ending.

The cast is headed by Tony Miller who will also direct the play. A most enjoyable evening awaits you. The dates of the performances? Wednesday to Saturday, November 17 - 20, 24 - 27. Tickets can be obtained by calling 884-1280. "The Playpen", or any club member.

Town Employees Share Big Prize
Four town employees shared a ticket and $1,000 prize in the recent Richmond Hill Lions Club draw. The $2,000 first prize was shared by the holders of the last two tickets left in the drum. Milton Sherman held one ticket and the other was held by Town Clerk Russell Lynett, Works Commissioner Otto Whalen, Terry King of the tax department and H. B. Cable, former assessor, now with the County of York Assessment Department.

Another town employee Fred Thomas received $100 and Deputy-Clerk Mack Clement won $50 when their tickets were pulled from the drum. Other $100 winners were R. E. Presley, and Arthur Gibson. $75 was won by Dalton Hicks, Mrs. M. Jalim, Madeline Hare, Thomas Pocklington and $50 by R. S. McCullough, William J. White, Wilson Niblett Motors, James Lavder, Dynes Jewellers, Dr. John Copeman and Thomas D. Main. Cliff Donnelly received $25 for selling the most tickets. Proceeds of the draw will enable the Lions to carry on their extensive program of community service.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Rex Sevenoaks, a former resident of Richmond Hill, now filming "The Trap" for the J. Arthur Rank Organization in Vancouver, is thoroughly enjoying his stay on the west coast, and finds co-star Rita Tushingham "a delight both as a person and an actress". Rex expects to return to his home in Toronto at the end of the week.

Sympathy is extended to the Jones Family on the death of their father, Albert E. Jones, who passed away in his 92nd year on October 30 at York Manor, Newmarket. Up until a few years ago, Mr. Jones, a keen gardener, toiled diligently every summer on his acreage at Elgin Mills, and always had a friendly word and warm smile for his many friends and neighbors, who, have missed, and will miss, seeing "Pa Jones" as he was affectionately called, working at his lifetime interest — the land.

YWCA Activities
The YWCA is presenting a winter swim program at York Mills Collegiate Pool January through April. In order to schedule the best possible program, interested persons are requested to phone 884-4811 to discuss the various courses under consideration.

Proceeding the Conservative rally last week at the Richmond Hill High School, Mrs. J. Johnson of Aurora, was the hostess at a small dinner party for Mrs. John Diefenbaker at the Richmond Inn.

Guests included: Mrs. John Martyn, Mrs. S. Corner, Mrs. David Hill, Mrs. William Brunt, Mrs. N. Berry, Mrs. R. B. Downing, Mrs. E. T. Sutherland and Mrs. L. J. Oliver.

A Christmas Decoration Course starts November 10 for five weeks at the Allencourt YWCA Centre. Make your own inexpensive decorations with new ideas available at this session.

Babysitting services are available. Please call 884-4811 for further information.

The CWL of St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church are holding their potluck supper November 17. Members are reminded to keep this date open.

YCHA To Hear About Easter Island
York Central Hospital Auxiliary will learn about the magic and mystery of Easter Island, Isla de Pascua of Chile, that remote Pacific Island, at its open meeting on November 11 at 8:15 pm in the hospital cafeteria. Anyone interested in learning more about the people, their life, homes, pleasures and reaction to the doctors and scientists who went there to study them, will be most welcome.

The guest speaker will be Helen Evans Reid, M.D., member of an expedition of top-flight Canadian doctors and scientists who spent some weeks on the island to gain detailed information about the isolated Pasceuse and their environment.

Dr. Reid is a registered specialist in paediatrics, Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, and is married to Dr. A. L. Chute, physician-in-chief, Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, and professor of paediatrics, University of Toronto. She is founder of the woman's auxiliary of "Sick Kids".

In her book "A World Away" Dr. Reid has given Canadians an informal account of the mission and the island inhabitants.

The Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra held a well attended rehearsal last Sunday in preparation for their November 15 concert to be held in Richmond Hill High School. The tympani and percussion section is now complete but string bass players are still needed.

Anyone interested please call Mrs. I. Thompson at 832-1250 for further information.

Mrs. V. Wallace arrived from Ottawa last Thursday to spend week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson, Centre Street West.

The WA of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church met on Monday in the George Francis Memorial Hall. Arrangements were made for a luncheon and bazaar to be held November 26. The luncheon is from 12:30 - 1:30 pm and the bazaar from 12:30 pm. Tickets for the former, at 75 cents each, may be obtained by calling 884-5086.

Sympathy is extended to the Jones Family on the death of their father, Albert E. Jones, who passed away in his 92nd year on October 30 at York Manor, Newmarket. Up until a few years ago, Mr. Jones, a keen gardener, toiled diligently every summer on his acreage at Elgin Mills, and always had a friendly word and warm smile for his many friends and neighbors, who, have missed, and will miss, seeing "Pa Jones" as he was affectionately called, working at his lifetime interest — the land.

Up until a few years ago, Mr. Jones, a keen gardener, toiled diligently every summer on his acreage at Elgin Mills, and always had a friendly word and warm smile for his many friends and neighbors, who, have missed, and will miss, seeing "Pa Jones" as he was affectionately called, working at his lifetime interest — the land.

A most successful bazaar was held by the LOBA Lodge No. 580 on October 23 at North York Community Hall, Willowdale. Winner of the draw, for a Barbie Doll and wardrobe, was Mrs. P. Crowther, 115 Bogart Avenue, Willowdale.

"Life in the Hill" is comprised of local news items - anniversaries, show-ers, vacations, out of town guests, etc. Contributions will be received until 5 pm on Tuesday prior to publication. Call the Social Editor Margot Crack at 884-1105, drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or come in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

Miss Mary Dawson, who resigned as supervisor of the primary division of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Sunday School at the end of June, was honored for her 10 years of service with a gift at the regular school session Sunday morning. Magistrate James Butler, who was superintendent of the Sunday school when Miss Dawson began her term of office, made the presentation of a piece of Blue Mountain pottery and a silver spoon topped by a trillium, handcrafted by Silversmith Douglas Boyd.

The WA of the 1st Beverley Acres Cubs and Scouts held their October 19 meeting in Beverley Acres School. The new executive was installed by Mrs. Dingwall of the York Summit District Ladies Auxiliary.

This year the auxiliary members will be joined by the ladies of the 7th Richmond Hill Cubs and Scouts Auxiliary, whose boys have already joined with the 1st Beverley Acres group. The auxiliary wishes to welcome them, and hope the ladies will all attend the next meeting on November 16 at Beverley Acres School.

A penny auction will be held at this meeting. Members are invited to bring articles for auction and any guests will be welcome.

At the close of business, games were held, and prizes were won by Lily Peterson and Barbara Mester. Refreshments were then served by June Hoxey and Diana Wilton.

Miss Dorothy K. Hartly, 89 Rockport Crescent, a resident of the Hill for the past seven years retired last week after 44 years with the TTC.

During the war, Miss Hartly took over a man's job as a buyer with the company, since which time she has filled the position of secretary to Assistant Materials Director George Mathewson.

On Wednesday last, a dinner was given for her in the Dickens Room at the Ports of Call, by 21 ladies of the staff, and on Friday, Miss Hartly, was given the royal treatment, when at a party held in the TTC Administration Building, Toronto, she occupied the seat of honor, a throne, and was presented with a typewriter and a large bouquet of carnations by Director of Materials R. V. H. Howe, who, along with Mr. Mathewson, spoke glowingly of Miss Hartly's long association with the company, and wished her every success in her retirement. Miss Hartly, in replying, thanked the company very much for their kindness and stated that she had no intention of remaining idle but planned to get another position as soon as she could.

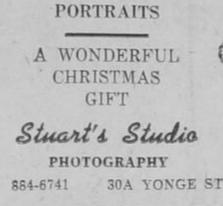

On both these occasions Miss Hartly was accompanied by her stepister Miss Emma Hall, who resides with her in Richmond Hill.

On Tuesday Mr. Howe escorted Miss Hartly to a meeting of the TTC Board of Commissioners, who presented her with a lifetime pass and certificate of merit.

"The Liberal" and the many friends of Miss Hartly are happy to see this recognition of her many years association with the TTC.

GLOBE TRAVEL SERVICE
BOOKINGS FOR ALL STEAMSHIPS AND AIRLINES, TOURS AND CRUISES
85 YONGE STREET N.
RICHMOND HILL
PHONE 889-5782
No service charge, no booking fee

TINY TOTS PORTRAITS
A WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS GIFT
Stuart's Studio
PHOTOGRAPHY
884-6741 30A YONGE ST. S. RICHMOND HILL

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday John Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bergman, 104 Trayborn Drive received the Sacrament of Baptism, and was presented with a New Testament from the Sunday school.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. W. Mason, Church Street North, on the death of her brother, William Breckon Douglass, on Friday at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto.

The funeral was held Monday at St. Barnabas Anglican Church.

Rev. Dr. A. B. Arnot, Mrs. Arnot, and Mrs. D. Fleming were representatives from the Richmond Hill Baptist Church at the annual meeting of the Fellowship of Evangelical Baptist Churches held last week in Toronto.

Mrs. A. Marsden, Ruggles Avenue, convalescing at home after recent surgery, was the recipient of a large bouquet of Richmond Hill roses, presented to Mrs. John Diefenbaker at the recent Conservative rally at Richmond Hill High School.

A personal note from the gracious wife of the Conservative leader was attached to the gift.

Brownie News
The Brownies of the 5th Richmond Hill Pack accompanied by their leaders, had perfect weather on October 18 for their hike and picnic lunch at Bruce's Mill Conservation.

An informative and enjoyable part of the outing was exploring the nature trail and admiring the glorious autumn colors. Coming events in the pack will include an enrolment of 13 Tweenies at the end of October and a Fly-Up Ceremony early in November using an autumn theme. The girls going into Guides are, Ann Ryan, Lynn Williams and Virginia Bregg.

Later in the month the pack is planning a visit to a dairy farm.

Civitan Christmas Cakes
Those extra good, chuck-full of fruit and nuts Christmas cakes are again available from Richmond Hill Civitans. A full three pound cake of the best quality may be obtained for $3.75 by simply making a phone call.

This is the Civitans' main money-making venture of the year and proceeds will help them carry on their service work in the community. They are particularly interested in the Villa Hospital and the ARC Industries, the adult training centre operated by the Thornhill and District Association for Retarded Children at 321 Enford Road.

If in previous years you have enjoyed the Civitan's Christmas cakes, you will want to repeat the pleasant experience this year. If you have not as yet tried them, you may also enjoy the delicious, traditional Christmas treat by phoning Len Newberry 884-6630, Ted Shaw 884-5186 or Guy Doucette 884-7396.

The annual meeting and presentation of prizes of the ladies' section of the Summit Golf and Country Club was held at the clubhouse on Wednesday last. Reports from the various committees revealed a busy year, socially and financially, to the complete satisfaction of the members.

Miss Gladys McLatchy, well known resident of the Hill, was re-elected president for 1966.

W. Bro. Hardie R. Nelson was installed on October 12 as Worshipful Master of Fellowship Masonic Lodge, Rt. Wor. Bro. Archie Cameron acted as installing master and was assisted by past and present grand lodge officers and several past masters from neighboring lodges.

W. Bro. Nelson has been a resident of Richmond Hill for 10 years and lives with his wife at 342 Palmer Ave. Other officers of the lodge duly invested were: W. Bro. L. Oliver IPM; W. Bro. F. Walker SW; Bro. H. Sanderson JW; G. Rose, Chaplain; J. Graham, treasurer; W. Bro. F. A. Vent, secretary; D. Bruce, J.C.; D. Ross IG; H. Munro, D of C; B. Stewart SS; F. Dickenson JS; B. Webber, assistant secretary; G. Leonard, Tyler.

A meeting of the Allenbrae Branch of the YCHA was held October 18 at the home of Mrs. Connie Snaith. Eighteen members attended.

The meeting was chaired by President Mrs. M. Maitland and business matters discussed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held November 15 at the home of Mrs. N. Hutcheson, 437 North Taylor Mills Drive.

Plan to attend the bazaar and bake sale November 26 at Allencourt Plaza.

I. J. Koole, loan manager with the Bank of Nova Scotia, Yonge Street, has been transferred to Sault Ste. Marie, commencing his duties next week.

B. Glassford from New Toronto will be filling this position at the local branch.

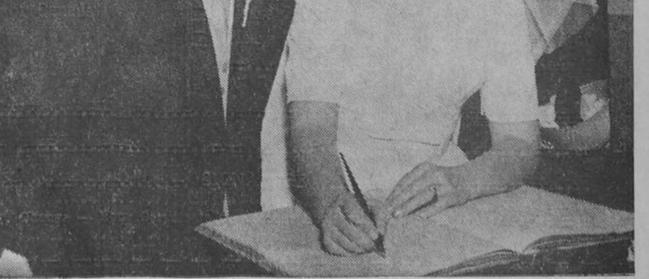

Do your Christmas shopping early — come to St. Matthew's United Church for their Four Seasons' Bazaar on November 13 from 2 - 5 pm.

Be sure to see all the Barbie clothes that will be on sale and the many new and different ideas in the other booths.

York Central Hospital was well represented at the 41st annual convention of the Ontario Hospital Association in Toronto last week.

More than 5,500 delegates representing 240 hospitals were in attendance and heard interesting and informative discussions of hospital problems.

Among those attending were Board Chairman J. E. Smith, Trustees Graham Walter, D. C. Stewart, G. Kingston, Barry Hayes Jr., Administrator G. J. Chaffield, Nursing Director Miss G. A. Gatehouse, Business Office Manager D. W. Earnshaw, Purchasing Agent J. Reid, Auxiliary President Mrs. E. Redelmeier, Auxiliary Director Mrs. R. J. Miller, Chief X-Ray Technician W. Burns, Chief Laboratory Technician Mrs. K. Hargrave, Executive Housekeeper Miss E. Gaskin, Chief Engineer E. Thurston, Pharmacist Mrs. B. Sherk, Medical Record Librarian Miss T. Oliver, Nursing Supervisor Miss A. Lindsay and Miss L. White and Chief Physiotherapist Miss E. Flood.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS FRANK CHOFFE SIGN REGISTER

Honeymoon In White Mountains

A beautiful fall wedding was celebrated in St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church on September 18, when Jacqueline Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clive Bettles of Benson Avenue, became the bride of Louis Frank Choffe of Weston.

Rev. J. A. O'Donnell officiated at the wedding ceremony and Nuptial Mass. The altar was tastefully decorated with tall standards of white gladioli, gold chrysanthemums and Boston ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an elegant gown of pure silk organza featuring Alencon lace at the Gaskin, Chief Engineer E. Thurston, Pharmacist Mrs. B. Sherk, Medical Record Librarian Miss T. Oliver, Nursing Supervisor Miss A. Lindsay and Miss L. White and Chief Physiotherapist Miss E. Flood.

During the ceremony and at the signing of the register the soloist, Mrs. Harold Bryan, sang "Ave Maria Stella", "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day".

Matron of honor was Mrs. Gordon Fleury, the bride's sister, bridesmaids were Miss Teresa Deciantis and the junior brides, Faith Bettles. All mooned in the White Mountains were matching floor-length gowns of aquamarine chiffon in a gold wool two-piece suit with chocolate brown accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze chrysanthemums complementing her outfit. The newlyweds have taken up residence in Thorncliffe Park.

Matching short lace gloves and carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses with trailing white stephanotis falling from satin ribbons.

The reception was held at the Summit View Gardens, with Mrs. Bettles receiving in a two-piece ensemble of beige French wool, brocade turban, and a corsage of copper and yellow chrysanthemums. The groom's mother assisted in a two-piece royal blue lace ensemble with matching hat and shoes and corsage of white carnations.

The young couple honeymooned in the White Mountains of Vermont, the bride travelling in a gold wool two-piece suit with chocolate brown accessories and a corsage of gold and bronze chrysanthemums complementing her outfit. The newlyweds have taken up residence in Thorncliffe Park.

GUARANTY TRUST
COMPANY OF CANADA
(A Federally Chartered Trust Co.)
Capital and Reserve $25,000,000
Guaranteed Fund Deposits at December 21st, 1964, $304,000,000
OFFICES THROUGHOUT CANADA

Bonus Days SAVINGS DEPOSITS
ALL NEW ACCOUNTS OPENED ON OR BEFORE NOVEMBER 15th EARN 4 1/4% INTEREST FROM NOVEMBER 1st
Statement Accounts Available
No Exchange on Cheques Deposited Drawn on York County Including Metro Toronto.
Full Chequing Privileges Longer Hours.
We would be pleased to open a new account or arrange the transfer of your present one.

Guaranteed INVESTMENT CERTIFICATES
5 3/4%
FOR 1-2-3-4 AND 5 YEAR DEPOSITS
INTEREST PAYABLE HALF-YEARLY FROM DATE OF DEPOSIT.
REGISTERED AS TO PRINCIPAL.
MINIMUM AMOUNT $500.
REDEEMED AT PAR, IN THE EVENT OF DEATH

WE ARE CONVENIENTLY LOCATED AT
44 YONGE STREET SOUTH
RICHMOND HILL, ONT.
884-1188 POST OFFICE CORNER
Free Parking at Rear of Office
ESTATE PLANNING — SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES — REAL ESTATE DEPARTMENT
Call into our office 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday - Thursday
9:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. Friday 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. Saturday or complete the coupon and mail it with your cheque to Guaranty Trust Company of Canada Please Open a New Savings Account.

44 Yonge St. S., Please Purchase a Certificate for a period of years.
Richmond Hill, Ontario.
MR./MRS./MISS TEL. NO.
ADDRESS P.O.
AMOUNT $ SIGNATURE

Rates on Certificates Subject to Change — Your Certificate or Account Book will be sent to you by return mail