Thornhill Ladies Hear Of Growth Of Britain's Women's Institutes

The October meeting of the Thornhill WI was held at the home of Mrs. R. Holmes, 2 Fairview Avenue. Mrs. H. Mizen presided and Mrs. Percy Bone was in charge of the program for the afternoon.

The meeting opened with the repeating of the creed and the institute ode. The motto was "The past should be a guide post not a hitching post". The ladies answered the roll call by telling about their naughtiest day in childhood. Many interesting and amusing replies were heard.

Addressed notes to former members and shut-ins were handed out as part of the program, to be written by the members. It was decided to repeat the shower of Christmas treats to be sent to cancer patients and plans were discussed for a Christmas party for members and friends of the WI. The place and date will be decided on at a later date. An appeal was made for good books to be sent to Indian teenagers in the Kenora district. Members were also asked to collect used silk hose and wool patches for the York Manor Home. Contributions for these two worthy causes are to be brought to the November meeting.

Mrs. Bone gave out clippings and magazines sent over from England by Mrs. Alan Lace, a WI member from Dartford, Kent. These proved to be most interesting to the Canadian members.

MR. AND MRS. V. WAYNE GORDON Wed In Thornhill Baptist

White gladioli and yellow shasta mums formed the setting in Thornhill Baptist Church on August 28 for the wedding of Margaret Lynn Hall to Vergne Wayne Gordon, Dr. Minton C. Johnston officiated.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall, Westwood Lane, Thornhill and the groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Vergne Gordon of Guelph.

Traditional wedding music was played by Arthur E. Wilkins of Toronto and the vocalist, Mrs. Jack McLeod of Sarnia, aunt of the bride, sang the Lord's Prayer and Prayer Perfect.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white French chantilly lace over taffeta, made on empire lines with a short train and a longer train of double georgette fell gracefully from the wedding ring collar. Her short bouffant veil was caught with a crown of lace, edged with seed pearls and a white orchid centered her cascade bouquet of stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Sheilla McKinnon, as maid of honour, wore a floor-length gown of aqua georgette over taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Lee Gordon, sister of the groom, and Dianne and Janet Hall, sisters of the bride, wore similar gowns of printed georgette over taffeta in muted tones of aqua, gold, blue and white. Their costumes were completed with a short veil caught in an aqua crown, matching shoes and velvet belts, and they carried cascade bouquets of white shasta mums, yellow rosebuds and a touch of aqua.

The groom's attendants included Bruce Hawkins of Guelph, as best man, and the ushers were Douglas Perkins of Clarkson and Tom Poole of Toronto, cousins of the groom and Clarke Stephen of Baltimore, cousin of the bride.

The reception was held at the home of the bride where Mrs. Hall received the guests wearing a street length dress of turquoise lace and shantung, with matching hat and shoes and a yellow orchid corsage. She was assisted by Mrs. Gordon, wearing a beige brocade dress with matching shoes. Her flowered hat was in tones of rose and mauve and she wore a mauve orchid corsage.

For their trip to points north, the bride wore a turquoise tweed suit, that she had made with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage. They have taken up residence in Ancaster, where Lynn, a recent household science graduate of the University of Guelph, will teach in a Hamilton Secondary School and Wayne will continue his studies in the chemistry course at the University of Guelph.

Among the wedding guests were the two grandmothers of the groom, Mrs. G. W. Gordon and Mrs. A. W. Hardy, both of Toronto.
