

Shirlene Austerberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Austerberry, Crosby Avenue, a member of the Newmarket Skating Club, will be one of the welcoming committee for well known figures of the skating world, attending the pop concert this Sunday at Newmarket Arena.

Included among the guests will be Petra Burka and Don Knight and many other Canadian skaters who will be representing Canada at next year's Olympics.

Miss Austerberry is also a member of the local skating club.

Bruce Pridham, vice-president of Emerald Isle Real Estate Ltd., has successfully passed his brokers examination, and is now a member of the Ontario Real Estate Board.

Miss Joyce Barraclough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barraclough of Oak Ridge, and eldest granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barraclough, 73 Mill Street, was guest of honor last Wednesday evening at a party at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Earl Stuart Lowe of Schomberg Road, Oak Ridges.

Joyce is being married to David Taylor also of Oak Ridges, on December 4 at St. John's Church, Jefferson. On their return from their honeymoon they will reside in Halifax.

Her numerous great-aunts, aunts and cousins presented her with luggage, and the highlight of the evening was an interesting showing of family art. Some of those whose works were on display were Miss Emma Barker of Toronto, Mrs. W. H. Wellman, Mrs. Melvin Wellman and Mrs. George Barker, all of Headford, Mrs. Robert James of Islington, Mrs. Stanley Bishop and Mrs. Carl French of Richmond Hill were represented.

Mrs. R. K. McKeown of Scarborough showed a landscape, and another canvas, the work of Mrs. Evelyn Lowe of Newmarket, though a trifle obscure, caused much comment.

Dainty refreshments were served and tea was poured by Mrs. Isaac Reaman of Maple and Mrs. J. M. Frevreau of Newmarket.

The Richmond Hill Kinette Club held their November 8 dinner party at the Summit View Restaurant.

Following dinner, President Anne Maddocks gave a report on the Richmond Hill High School Graduation Exercises, which she attended to present the Kinette Nursing Scholarship award to Ontario Scholar Barbara Schell.

Later Kinettes enjoyed a display of Christmas decorations made by the guest speaker, Mrs. P. Miller, chairman of Pleasantville YWCA.

A most successful Kinette card party was held November 16 at the home of Mrs. Dalton Hicks, 311 Richmond Street. All proceeds will be used for community service work.

Following the games, members returned to the church, where a luncheon was served, convoked by Harold and Marg Lemon.

Canadian Indian Dancers In Hill Friday Evening

When white men first reached North America they found native Indians possessing a way of life that had been developed to meet North American conditions. The Indian people knew very well how to take care of themselves. They were independent, resourceful, honest, brave, artistic and very loyal to family and tribal customs.

Through many ways the Indian has not been favorably displayed to generations of young white children. White Canadians in general have not had the opportunity of living with and appreciating Indians, their customs, and their legends.

"Hanging Of The Greens" On December 14 at 8.15 pm at WCA Centre, Allencourt Plaza, there will be an open night to all members for fellowship and sharing of Christmas festivities.

This will be an evening of decorating the Y Centre, caroling and refreshments.

Attention Y Members

The YWCA regrets to announce that it has been necessary to cancel the special evening scheduled for December 10 at the Y Centre, Allencourt Plaza, with guest speaker Miss Jeanne Rowles.

The Friendship Circle of the Church of St. Gabriel met Thursday morning with nine members present.
