Reeve Plaxton Wins Big, New Faces

But the major surprise and the only real potential excitement of this year's rather lack-lustre elections came in the battle for Reeve.
Councillor Scudds, who was expected to provide Reeve Plaxton with stiff opposition, never got off the ground.
Defeat was in the air shortly after the polls closed at 6 pm and Scudds' Ward 1 headed the lineup of returns.
Scudds, who had to win heavy in his own ward and fully expected, only managed to accumulate 453 votes to a surprise 238 by Plaxton.
But the second major blow came with the Ward 2 results which saw Plaxton signing in with 529 votes to 247 for his opponent. Both wards were in Scudds' area of Richmond Hill where most of his strength was concentrated.

"I just felt I couldn't lose in Ward 2," admitted Mr. Scudds. "I knew quite a few people there and I was sure I would stand up good." He shrugged his shoulders in pondering fashion.
Reeve Plaxton, if anything, drew way beyond his expectations in Wards 3 and 4 which are losers.
The two opponents met during their door-to-door campaigning expeditions a day before the election. The two retired for a coffee and gave their predictions of the outcome of the battle for the reeve ship.
Both were wrong.
were calculated to be the basis to his chances.
In Ward 3 he polled 384 votes to 194; and in Ward 4 (which included his home area of Pleasantville), 1,929 to 1,104.
Another unknown factor which could have further impaired Scudds' effort was the turnout in Ward 1 (the most populated ward) which had the smallest percentage of any of the three others.
Only 25.9 percent of those eligible cast ballots in Ward 1 compared to 37.4 in Ward 2, 36.3 in Ward 4, and 27.4 in Ward 3.

Aids Adventists

Hill Group Part Of World-Wide Appeal

As part of the 62nd Annual World Mission appeal, members of Richmond Hill Seventh-day Adventist Church will be making a house-to-house canvass for funds to reach its goal of $1,200.
The fund-seekers, each of whom will have credentials and carry a musical money box, will give reports of welfare, medical and educational activities carried on by the church in the past year. All donations go to extending the church's humanitarian ministry at home and in 189 other countries.
Leading the drive in Richmond Hill is Pastor C. R. Neill, director of lay activities for the church here.
The Adventists operate a welfare centre at 80 Elgin Mills Road West, directed by Mrs. George Montgomery. Persons in need of assistance may phone 884-5548.

Pot Luck Supper Held At Hospital

The annual Pot Luck Supper of York Chapter RNOA was held at York County Hospital with 49 nurses in attendance.
A business meeting followed which saw the new executive elected:
President, Miss A. Lindsay; 1st Vice-President Mrs. Shepherd; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. A. Teasdale; Treasurer, Mrs. Gordon; Secretary, Mrs. Osbourne.
Past President Mrs. Maris Anderson thanked the members for giving their co-operation to her during the time she was president.
The voting delegates for 1966-67 are Mrs. Osbourne and Mrs. H. McKinnon. The non-voting delegates are Mrs. C. Carter and Miss L. White.

Council Can't Sell Town, At Least Not Until 1966

Richmond Hill Councillors are finding out these days what it feels like when a thrifty housewife meets her husband at the door and grabs his paycheck before he can spend it.
The revelation came at Monday night's council meeting after they were asked to provide an additional $12,000 in debentures to go toward building a new library at Thornhill Secondary School and to renovate the old one.
Acting the part of the thrifty housewife is the Ontario Municipal Act which forbids council authorizing any money expenditures (not included in the year's budget) after nomination day until the new council takes command in 1966.
Only exception is the case where three quarters of the sitting members are returned. Only five out of the present seven members will be returning in 1966.
"This is to make sure someone doesn't try to sell the town before the next council can take over," commented Mayor Thomas Broadhurst.

He offered little hope of any relief in school costs in 1966 stating that high school enrolment "is growing by three or four hundred students a year. The capital cost for each student keeps rolling in and its going to go up."
"We're in the midst of a high school population bubble and its a case of either shut the doors or open up more," he said.
Mayor Broadhurst commented that while school costs were inevitable each increase meant that much less to spend on equally as vital public works.
"I hope next year we'll be shown some mercy to enable us to get municipal works done that are just as necessary."
Council decided to discuss the matter with its solicitor to see if anything could be done to okay the added expenditures to enable the project to get underway.
"It's been my experience," said Reeve Plaxton, "that the longer you hold a project like this up the more its going to cost you."

Mayor Thomas Broadhurst was back in action Monday night with a brand new gavel.
He's been without one since some unknown culprit made off with the original one a number of weeks ago.
Presenting the new gavel was its maker Richmond Hill Hydro Commissioner William Wagner who also shaped the stolen one and presented it to the then mayor, Ken Tomlin.

"I've been a great addict of hobbyism for the last 20 years," he said, "and during my 10 years of retirement it's been the best 10 years of my life and I attribute it to good health and good hobbies."
"I carved the original gavel," he said, "out of a walnut tree in my next door neighbor's yard."
He then handed the gavel over to Mayor Broadhurst who proceeded to sharply thump council to order.

The additional money request is being made by the York Central District High School Board and the $12,000 would be Richmond Hill's share of a total increase of $31,000 to be equally shared among four municipalities.

Last spring, Richmond Hill Markham and Vaughan Townships approved capital expenditures of $37,982 less $60,444 under the Municipal Works Assistance Program for the library.

John Honsberger, chairman of the high school board, told council that tenders "for construction generally have been coming in substantially higher than architect's estimates since last summer. When five tenders were opened the lowest bid was $116,000."

Mr. Honsberger added that rapid acceptance of the request was urgent because of the March 31 deadline which would enable any completed project to reap full benefits of the municipal assistance grants.

Reeve Donald Plaxton said he felt it was "alarming that the estimates of school costs given to various councils was so out of line with the tenders finally settled on."

Mr. Honsberger said the school board realized this and had its architects working to re-estimate costs per square foot to bring estimates into line with tenders.

Taking five for 50 ale brought three Woodbridge residents in to Magistrate's Court Thursday of last week on charges under the Liquor Control Act and the Highway Traffic Act.

Police Constable R. W. Fletcher testified he had chased the three in a car for several miles in the Woodbridge area October 31, at speeds up to 95 miles an hour. He said that just before he caught up to them, and as the car had slowed down to enter Highway 7, a case of Labatt's 50 was thrown out of the door of the driver's side.

The men had all been drinking when arrested, the constable said.
Convicted of having liquor in a place other than a residence and for speeding at a rate of 85 miles an hour, was Ernest Wilcox. He was fined a total of $32.50 on the first charge and $43.50 on the second.
Brian Johnston, 18, was fined a total of $28.50 when he was convicted of drinking while under age.
The other member of the trio, Larry Burke, was acquitted on a charge of throwing glass on a highway.

To The Electors Of Richmond Hill

Thank you for re-electing me Hydro Commissioner for the 1966-67 term.
I shall do my best to justify your confidence.
Season's Greetings.
