Neighborhood Notes

The air is filled with snowflakes this morning, Monday, and it begins to look as though Rudolph will have a soft landing on Christmas Eve after all. In the midst of all the shopping, wrapping, baking and trimming may you find Christmas. My Christmas gift for you was written by Fra Giovanni in 1513 A.D.:

I salute you: There is nothing I can give you which you have not got; but there is much, very much, that while I cannot give it, you can take.

No Heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in today. Take Heaven! No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present little instant. Take peace! The gloom of the world is but a shadow. Behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. There is radiance and glory in the darkness could we but see, and to see, we have only to look. I beseech you to look.

And so at this time, I greet you. Not quite as the world sends greetings, but with profound esteem and with prayer that for you now and forever, the day breaks, and the shadows flee away.

Gordon Brown and Mrs. Ross Ford both underwent surgery last week, but their families hope to have them home for Christmas. W. L. Clark is making good progress at York County Hospital, and will be home this week, and Charles Boynton who spent several weeks at York Central Hospital returned home last week.

Friends were sorry to learn of the death of Gil Putnam, December 11. The Putnams lived for some years on 16th Avenue, near Don Mills Road, and later moved to Willowdale where they presently reside. Mr. Putnam was at the Funeral Chapel of A. W. Miles, St. Clair Avenue West, and on Tuesday there was a service at the Chapel of St. James the Less, Parliament Street. Mr. Putnam is survived by his wife, Dorothy, and sons George of Montreal and Bruce of Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Black of Balinacree were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid last Saturday, and visited with Mrs. S. J. English for a short time.

Margaret Paterson who is busy enough these days, with all the Christmas activities of a kindergarten teacher, and preparations for her Boxing Day wedding to Brian Murphy, still found time to assist with the Christmas candlelight service for CGIT and Explorers at Brown's Corners United Church last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Clayton Jones, Gayle, Cheryl Tennyson and Vivi Noer took a taste of Christmas to the Wilmont Nursing Home at Thornhill last week. They sang and danced for the patients, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Tuesday night the Happy Timers boarded Rick Tribbling's bus for a trip to the Eglinton Theatre and a performance of "The Sound of Music." Afterwards the party went to The Nashery for refreshments.

Mr. Shenfield, who succeeds Norman Tapscoft, was installed as Worshipful Master of Markham Union Lodge, No. 87, AF and AM in a ceremony last week in Markham Masonic Temple.

Mr. Shenfield, who succeeds Norman Tapscoft, was installed as Worshipful Master of Markham Union Lodge, No. 87, AF and AM in a ceremony last week in Markham Masonic Temple. Attending the ceremony were representatives from many district lodges.
