New Look, Old Problem

The "new look" Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers Hockey Club has been winning in fairly consistent fashion this season but still can't get fans to come out and look.

Things are pretty tough when you start considering a turnout of 38 to 40 fans a game is an improvement. But that's the case.

An average of about 40 have been wandering down to the town arena to view the action in recent games and club officials expect — and hope — that the ones that come will bring a few hundred more with them as part of a New Year's resolution.

Late Starting

Some of the difficulty this year has been the late starting time of 9 pm. This means the stop-time games aren't completed until around 11 pm and that's pretty late if you're a commuter and have to rise with your neighbor's barking dog the next morning.

The club itself has an impressive lineup of hockey talent right from goaltender Doug Finney out. Finney, who was the top goalie in the newly-named York-Simcoe Hockey Association in 1964-65, is off to a slow start this season.

But part of the blame can be placed on his defence which is the weakest — although not that weak — portion of this year's team.

Defence Weak

You have to be weaker when you lose two defencemen the calibre of Pat Merraw and Don Haynes. Both have decided to abandon the skates this season.

Haynes, in particular, is a big loss. He was a two-way, hard-hitting fellow who was much in demand by a number of area teams. He might make a comeback at age 26 later in the season but it probably won't be with Richmond Hill.

Filling the two vacancies on defence are newcomers Arnold Roberts and Ed Burford. Roberts is a rugged type from Thornhill and adds enough muscle to the backline but report has it he draws his share of penalties under the more genteel Olympic hockey rules in force in the league. Burford is just out of Junior B ranks.

Shake Hands, Come Out Wrestling

Shake hands and come out wrestling is the "new" theme at the Thornhill Market as top wrestling star Ed Mangotich (left) prepares to meet Rocky Bowley in the grand finale. Mangotich proved to be the better man winning two out of the three-fall match and the $300 prize money before a sizeable audience after wrestling his way through opponents in the challenge rounds.

The championship match as well as all the other matches featured clean holds and were noticeable for the lack of villains. The matches are promoted by Sportacular and emphasize the more scientific aspects of the game. The opening show also included demonstrations of karate and judo.

Wrestling will return to the market building January 11 at 8.30 pm.

R. Hill Lions Peeewees

Will Play In Detroit At New Year

New Year's weekend Richmond Hill Lions Peeewees will journey to Detroit to play two games with Gordie Howe's Roosters. The Lions racked up three wins over the weekend — two league games and one exhibition game. They are undefeated in league play so far this year and have lost only two exhibition games.

Friday night they handed out when the game was only 29 Woodbridge a 6-1 defeat as seconds old. He was assisted by Johnny Barnett got a hat trick, Larry Kellett. Barnett was assisted by Mike Ball as he scored Chris Andrews opened the scor-

his first goal at the 7:37 mark of the first period when his team was a man short. Woodbridge got its only counter in this period.

Barnett scored his second goal at 3:58 of the second period, on a good passing play by line-mates Ball and Dick Webber. Ron McBrien scored unassisted at 11:13.

Seventeen seconds after the face-off which opened the third period, Barnett completed his hat trick, assisted by Dick Webber. Rob Sackfield made the score 6-1 when he flipped home a pass from Steve Cronkwright at the 7:46 mark. This is the way the game ended.

Saturday they played a rescheduled game on the beautiful ice surface at Camp Borden. The host team gave their visitors the red carpet treatment, with three 20 minute periods and rest periods, just like the NHL.

Camp Borden opened the scoring, but Chris Andrews quickly retaliated on a pass from John Stokes, Stokes added a goal on a pass from Ron McBrien, who collected the third goal unassisted. The score was 3-1 for the Lions at the end of the first period.

In the second period, the Lions scored three unanswered goals by McBrien from Ball, Ball from Barnett and Webber, and Barnett from Ball. Another three goals were scored in the third period. Sackfield beats the goalie on an assisted rush, Barnett was assisted by John Ranieri, and Stokes got the final goal unassisted, to give the Lions a 9-1 victory.

THL's Scarborough Clifferest was the visiting team on Sunday. Robbie Sackfield opened the scoring on a pass from Barnett. Barnett got the second goal, assisted by Mike Ball and Larry Kellett. Clifferest got a goal, making the score at the end of the first period 2-1. Cronkwright, assisted by Andrews, Dick Webber assisted by Ball and Barnett, and Brother Bill Webber, assisted by Alin Brooks and Stokes were the second period marksmen for the Lions. Clifferest scored once in this period, making the score 5-2. Stokes from Ball scored in the final stanza, making the game score 6-2.

Next Sunday the Swiss Chalet of the Detroit farm system will be the guest team in the local arena.

MIDGETS

Strict adherence to Coach Bill Points' advice to hold their tempers, take the rough play being handed out by Camp Borden, and concentrate on passing and playing good hockey, paid dividends for Richmond Hill Legion Midgets on Friday in Camp Borden. They handed a rough, hard bumping Camp Borden team a 10-1 defeat. The boys are deserving of great commendation for following their coach's instructions and avoiding retaliatory action. Manager Marsh Amos commented, "Camp Borden won the war, but we won the game."

Fifteen seconds after the opening whistle, Bill Huke carried the puck up the ice and dumped it into the net behind a surprised goaltender. Roy McBrien added another tally on a pass from Ricky Doucette, Wayne O'Brien and Harvey Gordon teamed up on another and Harvey Gordon connected for an unassisted goal.

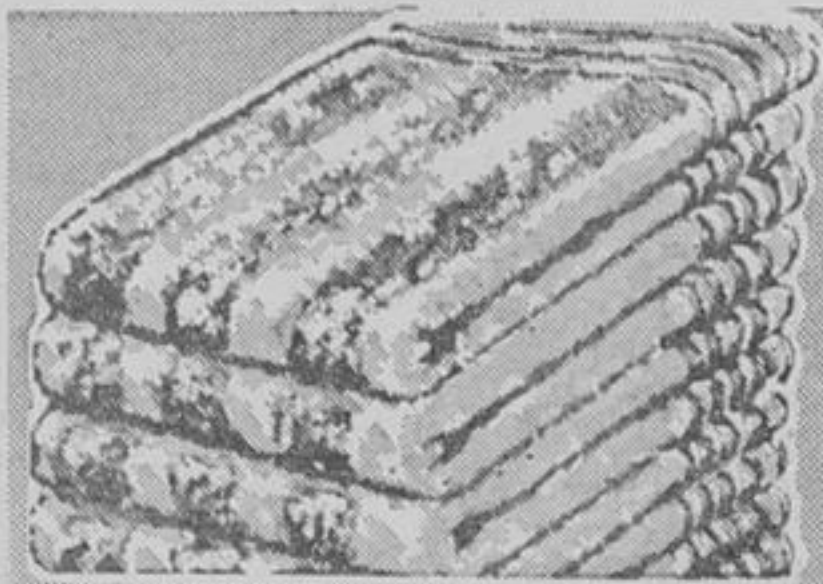

In the second period, Dou-
