Anchoring the defence again is big Doug McInnis who is in his sixth year with the team and is probably the best all-round defenceman in the league. He's capably aided by Moe Williamson with Charley Mashinter the fifth defenceman.

Sweeney Big Surprise

Biggest and most pleasant surprise of the season has been the play of Dick Sweeney at centre. Sweeney, once noted as a high scoring star in Richmond Hill minor ranks, seems to have found a new lease on life this season and is the team's leading scorer. He has managed to be in the right place at the right time and so has the puck.

Another rugged newcomer is right winger Stan Thornhill (well known to local ball fans) who tips the oncoming opponents to the tune of 220 pounds.

Stan has looked like the best winger in the league in some games and strictly the roughest in others. If Stan can be taught the strictly elementary fact that you can't win games in the penalty box he could be the key to the Hill's chances.

Definitely a key will be the newly acquired Earl Cairns who has been doing his scoring in recent years for the powerful Willowdale team.

Earl was acquired in a trade for Bob Baggs and Gary Thorpe and will add a lot of offensive strength to an already potent attack.

Add to this the names of Matt Kinnari, Jim Wells, Frank Mashinter, Jim Thompson, and Ed Surowiec and you have great potential.

All that is needed is to weld this talent into a unit, fan the sparks, and set the direction.

DeGeer Coach

That will be the job of Coach Skip DeGeer who is a new addition this season.

DeGeer, who is widely known in the area for his fiery play with Hughes Shell in fastball, might be the one to set the example.

So in closing: "It's good hockey, the players need your support, so drop down to see the action."

Other Items

The Richmond Hill Badminton Club continues to clutch tightly to first place with a recent 15-9 win over Downsview. The locals have won three and lost only one this season and hope to keep up the pace in 1966.

Still undefeated is Brampton and it appears that powerful entry won't have too much trouble staying that way again this season. But you never know. Do you?

Wrasslin' Anyone?

For those who get their kicks from the men-of-the-mat there will be another tussle going on at Thornhill Market January 11 starting at 8:30 pm.

cette got his second counter, assisted by Wayne Harrington and Bruce Hutchinson was assisted by Gary Methe.

In the third period, Bill Huke collected two successive goals, assisted by Donette on the first and by Gordon on the second. Wayne O'Brien got his second goal of the game unassisted and Bruce Hutchinson took a pass from Greg Bodner for the Legion's final tally.

On December 19, the Legion hosted Thornhill and handed them a 4-1 defeat. This was a real good, clean game of hockey. Gordon was assisted by Wayne Harrington on the first counter and Bodner by Huke on the second in the first period. Harrington got another in the third from Keith Russell and McBrien was assisted by Methe on the third period goal.

The Legion has played seven league games and lost only one (to Bradford by a score of 4-2). Next Monday they travel to Orillia where they will be bled and participate in a three-day tournament. In the first round on Boxing Day at 2:30 they have drawn a class "A" club from Kingston.

NOVICES
 Thursday night at the Double-rink CFGM Country Gentlemen handed Goulding Park a 4-1 defeat. Gordon, Hampton, Stefan and Sackfield were the goal-getters for the local team, with Sanlon, Sexton and Bailie (2) active in the assist department.

Woodbridge was at the Richmond Hill Arena for a league game Friday night, and bowed to the Gentlemen 5-3. Bailie contributed two goals, Sexton, Sanlon and Gordon one each. Assists were credited to Bromley (2) Sackfield, Rice, Steffan, Gordon and Sanlon.

Terry Haviland came up with his sixth shutout of the season as the Gentlemen whitewashed Cedar Hill 7-0. The last encounter between these two teams resulted in a 2-all tie.

Sackfield came up with a goal and an assist, Bailie duplicated this effort. Rice had three assists and Bromley two, Sanlon scored two goals and Steffan, Hampton and Cronkright a goal each, with Gordon coming through with an assist.

On December 26 Dorset Park, THL league leaders, will visit the local arena to play the Gentlemen.

BANTAMS
 Woodbridge Bantams were handed a 5-2 defeat by North End Cleaners Bantams Friday night in a league game. Marksmen for the Cleaner crew were Duncan from Ball, Wilkinson

NEWMARKET: Concern over the future of the Department of Industries in this town was expressed at a recent council meeting. Councillor John Inley reported that there had not been a meeting since September at which there had been a quorum.

RICHMOND HILL HIGH
 These are truly bad days. The teachers are even winning the basketball games. To wit, to woo:

The teachers downed the intermediate boys 27-24 last Friday with the chief villains being the leaders of the physical education department.

Head man Bill Babecek sank a free throw with two minutes to go and assistant Don Fleming scored the basket. High man for the teachers was Jerry Diakiw with nine points followed by Fleming with eight and Des McCartney with four. For the intermediates it was Dave Reid with seven points and Lorne Gordon with six. Two hundred "disappointed" students viewed the game.

In other action the grads downed the Seniors 57-50 aided and abetted by two members of the senior team who did all the major shelling. Sid Acton scored 25 points and Drew Davis 14. Top man for the seniors was Al Emms 16 and Robin Brook 12.

The senior team will be participating in the first annual Markham District High School Christmas Basketball Tournament December 30.

An intra-mural tug-of-war competition with a boy and girl representing each of the four "Houses" ended up this way: Richmond in first place followed by Miles, Stewart and Harrison.

Second place went to Stan Shadoff with 2697 which was worth $20 followed by Art Higgins with 2625 worth $10; Al Richardson 2569 for $5. Al also bowled the high single of the day of 376 and picked up a glass turkey (Mmmh!) which was donated by Allencourt Lanes.

The next franchise tournament is slated for January 16 at Allencourt Lanes so keep this date open and have a go at the big jackpot. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

EASTSIDERS LEAGUE
 The Indians and Cardinals were the big winners last Tuesday both taking seven points. As a result the Indians now lead with 21 points with the Cardinals second with 19.

In the high average race Jean Villa leads the ladies section by one pin having a 243 average with Ethel McRae at 242. In the men's section Stan Shadoff at 254 has a comfortable lead over Bill Jones at 228.

High singles for the night: Villa 826 (309); McRae 760 (291); Ev Jones 737 (291); Jean Johnson 689 (270); Nan Shadoff 687 (304); Ellen Parrett 638 (228); Lynda Doyle 637 (223); Ruth Lang 635 (303); Shirley Thomson 625 (216); Shadoff 668 (321); Ted Robertson 747 (336); Rene Beland 737 (298); Frank Horton

CURLING

The Richmond Hill Curling Club got into the seasonal swing last weekend with its annual Christmas Bonselpiel which featured competitions on Friday and Saturday.

First draw winner was won by a rink skipped by Harold Loudon with Audrey Loudon, vice-skip; Mike Olync, second. The rink comprised only three players.

High two game winning rink was skipped by Floyd Perkins with Lillian Williams, vice-skip, and Jerry Williams, second. There were only three members on this rink also.

High one-game went to the Bruce Harrower-skipped rink with Olive Harrower, vice; Murray Moore, second, and June Moore, lead.

The second draw was won by a rink skipped by Roy Currie with Alba Currie, vice; Pete Hopper, second, and Chris Hopper, lead.

Another three game winner—although second in points—was a rink skipped by Kirby Brock with Marj Brock, vice; Jack Williams, second, and Marie Williams, lead.

High one-game winner was a rink headed by Dave Pedley with Joyce Pedley, vice; Jack Wright, second and Barb Wright, lead.

Club Manager Bruce Butterworth also presented gifts to the Floyd Perkins rink in honor of its scoring an eight ender a few weeks ago.

High School SPORTS SCENE

It's still "stop and start" operations on the sporting fronts at the area high schools with first examinations and now Christmas holidays breaking up the various schedules.

BAYVIEW SECONDARY
 Basketball Coach John Passmore and his teams managed to open the season on a successful note — in between the stops by winning league games last Friday against Markham High in intermediate and senior action.

Not so lucky were the Jim MacFarland - coached juniors just edged by 34-31 by Markham.

"I was very pleased with the efforts of both of my squads," commented Passmore. "We expected tough games from Markham and we got them."

The seniors got by Markham by 39-37 in a real thriller with the individual scoring honors going to newcomer Dan Boyne who dropped in 20 points.

"Dan just started at the school about a week ago," said Passmore. "He's from Barrie and was a pleasant surprise to say the least. He should help us quite a bit this season."

The senior game saw Bayview off to a rough start trailing 25-9 at the end of the first quarter. But everyone got hot in the second quarter and at halftime the gap had been narrowed to 25-22.

The intermediates had it easier winning 29-17 led by the two-way play of Scott Cooper.

ALLENCOURT MENS MAJORS
 Dan Boyle of Richmond Hill Auto Wreckers bagged the big turkey of the night with his fine shooting of 933 which included the high singles of the night of 383 and 314.

Following are the eleven groups with a first and second in each group. Bob Weeks 855, Stan Shadoff 836; Jim Davidson 852, Eric Marling; Bill Jackson 859, Herb Lyons 757; Ted Robertson 848, Phil Blanchard 839; Bob Ohls 735, Stan Foster 690; John Mills 682, Earl Freeland 681; Stan Naujery 683, Keith Hood 681; Lloyd Hardy 703, Glynn Davies 648; Bill Patten 646, George Lawson 634; Ross Barfoot 686, Andy Kovacs 633; Al Hartwick 564, Cox Thompson.

Once again there were no seven point sweeps in league play. In 5-2 splits it was Bob's Delivery Service over Tom Hughes Shell, Manufacturers Life over Turnbull Grocery, Inc. 4-3 split it was Watts Real Estate over Pat Patterson, Wimbridge Cleaners over Richmond Hill Auto Wreckers, Allencourt Lanes, ABC Bowl over Richmond Hill Inn Hotel.

In the high average it's Stan Shadoff with a 272 followed by Art Higgins with 257, Al Richardson 256, Les Chidley 253, Tim Saul 247.

Team standings: Wimbridge Cleaners 28, Allencourt Lanes 23, Allencourt Electronics 23, Bob's Delivery Service 22, Manufacturers Life 21, Turnbull Grocery 18, Watts Real Estate 17, ABC Bowl 15, Richmond Hill Auto Wreckers 14, Tom Hughes Shell 12, Pat Patterson 10, Richmond Hill Inn Hotel 7.

The next league night is January 7, 1966 and we the executive would like to extend to all our bowlers seasons greetings. Allencourt Lanes held its first "Franchise Tournament" December 19 and it was won by Fraser Hambly with a fine score of 2805 for 10 games. He receives a berth into the championship of Champions where $5000 is first place money. A very happy Mr. Hambly.

Second place went to Stan Shadoff with 2697 which was worth $20 followed by Art Higgins with 2625 worth $10; Al Richardson 2569 for $5. Al also bowled the high single of the day of 376 and picked up a glass turkey (Mmmh!) which was donated by Allencourt Lanes.

Don't forget the mixed doubles party December 26.

ABC MAJORS
 Dynes Jewellers continued to remain undefeated in the second series winning all seven points for the third straight week downing ABC No. 1.

In an all or nothing week all but one outcome was a white-washing of the opposition. Life over Turnbull Grocery, Inc. 4-3 split it was Watts Real Estate over Pat Patterson, Wimbridge Cleaners over Richmond Hill Auto Wreckers, Allencourt Lanes, ABC Bowl over Richmond Hill Inn Hotel.

In the high average it's Stan Shadoff with a 272 followed by Art Higgins with 257, Al Richardson 256, Les Chidley 253, Tim Saul 247.

Lastly, but most assuredly not least — the ladies had their Christmas Bonselpiel a few days earlier with the winner in the first draw being a rink skipped by Audrey Doherty with Doreen Meers, vice; Marg McDonald, second, and Rae Ryan, lead.

In second spot was a rink skipped by Gina Morlock. Third place went to the Flo Reeds rink with Kay Parker, Carmen Lee, and Joan Loomis.

Second draw winner was the Joyce Davey-led rink with Win Simpson, Win Bowman and Marg Touloff. In second was Doris Vance, skip, Connie Stephenson, R. Westwood, and M. J. Murphy. Third went to Lorraine Waters, Mildred Rois, June Moor and Gwen Rogers.

Star attraction of the Xmas 'spiel was old Santa Claus who distributed presents for one and all. Two raffles were held for Christmas table decorations as created by Margaret Rumney.

The day was rounded out by presentation of the Thornlebank Trophy to winning members of the first schedule. They were Doris Vance, skip; Doreen Meers, second vice; Lillian Williams, lead; and Joan Loomis, second.
