Local Couple Gives Up Holiday
For Mother Cat And Six Kittens
Anyone who knows Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gibson, 252 Mill Street, Richmond Hill, will not be surprised to hear the very humane story relayed to "The Liberal" by Canine Control Officer James Ryan. Mr. Gibson is the former superintendent of education in Vaughan Township Public Schools.
Earlier this month the Gibsons had planned a holiday trip with friends but a week before they noticed a stray cat slipping into the garage every time the door was opened. She would leap to the top of the car and then into the crawl space attic, clawing her way up a solid concrete wall.
Two days before the planned
holiday, they heard the mewing of kittens from the attic and called Mr. Ryan for help and advice. The kittens nest was tucked away in an inaccessible part of the overhang. To remove the mother cat would have meant that the kittens would die — to get at the kittens would have meant a major carpentry job. So, the Gibsons decided to postpone their holiday until the mother cat brought her infants out of the overhang.

Two weeks went by before
Mr. Ryan was able to capture five of the six kittens, as they wandered about between the joists in the attic, but the sixth one retreated to his place of safety. Two days later Mr. Gibson was able to capture the last kitten.
All six are at the Canine Control Kennels being fed with eye-droppers and the Gibsons are continuing to put out food for the mother in the hope that they can get close enough to her to reunite her with her family.
And all this for an animal which prevented them from enjoying a holiday.

Superintendent
Has Kitchen Woes
Richmond Hill Public
School Superintendent,
Gordon McIntyre is busy
these days buying kitchen appliances, but it's not all that guaranteed to produce domestic bliss.
Mr. McIntyre told the board Thursday of last week that he had been in Toronto looking over equipment for the home economics room at Crosby Heights Senior School, with Janet Weldon, who will be joining the teaching staff
this fall.
"I don't know if I should say anything with the press
here," the superintendent
quipped, "but my wife said she was concerned that I went into the city with another woman to purchase equipment to set up house keeping."
Mr. McIntyre's worries
aren't over yet, however.
He said there was still another section of the home economics room to be outfitted, requiring another afternoon of the same thing.

Preparing For Antique Sale & Mart

There are many people, who while delighting in the pushbutton conveniences of today, still have a nostalgic yearning for the things of yesteryear. Realizing this the York Central Hospital Auxiliary has planned an antique sale and mart at Richmond Hill Lions Hall, Centre Street East, May 25, 26 and 27. There will be much to see, to admire, to desire, maybe even to purchase — old silver, old furniture and unexpected trivia of long-gone eras.
In the above picture are a group of workers admiring some of the antique (over 100-year-old) articles which will be available next week. (Left to right) Mrs. Gordon T. MacKenzie; Mrs. Rima Thompson, dealer, Kettleby Antiques; Mrs. D. H. Featherstonhaugh, Mrs. John H. Turnbull and Mrs. Ross Farquharson.

Something For Nothing

Criticize School Insurance Agents

Insurance agents who get something for nothing, were criticized by Trustee Jack Knott at last week's meeting of the Richmond Hill Public School Board.
Mr. Knott made his comments following a recommendation of the finance committee for a new policy for distributing insurance commissions, which would give 40 per cent to the agent or agency writing the insurance, with the remaining 60 per cent to be divided among all other agents conducting business in Richmond Hill.
"I'm opposed to it," said Mr. Knott. "They're getting paid for doing nothing."
Trustee Phyllis Hawkes said the arrangement had been made to keep the board from being "pestered" by all the different agents.
"Paraphrasing in other words," said Vice-Chairman Deena Simpson.
Chairman Walter Hutchinson, said that, if the board didn't buy this way, it would have to call for tenders on every bit of insurance, which would put a heavy load on the administration staff and require technical knowledge that wasn't available.
He said the board could handle it itself, but that it would be much more involved. The present insurance rates also compared favorably with other boards.
"I'm still against it," said Mr. Knott.
The previous division for commission gave 10 per cent to the selling agent, plus his share of the remaining 90 per cent.
The board agreed to the new policy, and also to another recommendation of the committee increasing the floater policy on special equipment — portable machines — from $12,750 to $25,000.
Another recommendation, dealing with the board's reserve fund of $64,839, and calling for it to be deposited in special accounts, was revised in an effort to get a better return on the funds.
The new recommendation, which was approved by the board, calling for the establishment of new reserve and retirement funds in the amount of $4,839 to be deposited in a savings fund until a more beneficial fund can be found; $35,000 (for a school site) is to be put into a reserve in the form of a bank deposit certificate, with the board to review the deposit every 100 days.
The $25,000 balance is to remain in the current account.

Several Resolutions Prompted By Death Of Walks In School Zone

Lack of sidewalks in the area prompted several resolutions by Richmond Hill Public School Board last week.
The resolutions, which were contained in a report of the planning committee called for the board to provide transportation in the following cases: where children are required to walk on a dangerous highway (where the legal speed is 45 mph) and no sidewalks are provided; for kindergarten pupils at noon in the same situation, who will also attend the same class, as determined by the board.
All children attending a special education class in a school, other than the one in the zone they reside in where in the opinion of the superintendent, transportation should be provided in lieu of a home instruction unit, such transportation shall be provided.
The new policy becomes effective September 1.
The board also: Approved setting aside $6,000 for a Centennial program for planting trees in "strategic locations" in school grounds on the recommendation of the personnel committee.
Moved to instruct Grant Nighswander, principal of McConeghy School and chairman of the Spring Music Festival which was held May 5 in Bayview Secondary School, to convey the board's thanks to all concerned for their work in making the evening a success.
Accepted with regret resignations from the following teachers: Mr. and Mrs. P. Jeans; William Furse, Mrs. Terry Oser, Jeanette Gibbs and Shirley Barker.
Approved the appointment of the following teachers, effective September 1 in category 1, at a salary of $4,000: Mrs. Heather Blaney, Joyce Bunker, Carol Chard, Katherine Diamond, Joan Fettes, Bettina Harvey, Douglas Jackson, Peter Marusiak, Mrs. Ruth McMaster, Cheryl Munro, Linda Murray, Douglas Pratt, Norma-Jean Sandiford, Linda Taylor, Shirley Thomas, Glenise Winkworth, Fredda Puritt.
This brings the total appointed up to 32 this year, compared with 28 last year.
Approved accounts in the amount of $77,991.97 for April.
AURORA: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hudson celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their Kennedy Street West home on April 16.
SUTTON: Council has unanimously voted in favor of installing fluoridation equipment in the village's waterworks. Permission must also be granted by Georgina Township since some residents of that township are serviced by the village's water system.

May 30 Music By Beethoven, Mozart Local Composers Will Be Heard

As a feature of its fifth season Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra is presenting a concert in Richmond Hill High School May 30 at 8:15 pm. Arthur Burgin is the conductor, with Raymond R. Thompson and Graham Coles as associates, and George Moseley as concertmaster.
The program will open with the "Centennial March" composed by H. A. Standing, principal flautist of the orchestra.
Another competition by an orchestra member is the second number on the program. James Gibson, who usually plays the oboe with the local symphony will play the third movement, "Allegretto Qua" Scherzando, of his piano concerto in E flat major.
The final number before intermission will be the "Concerto for Bassoon" in B flat major by W. A. Mozart. This early work dates from 1774 when Mozart was 18. Harold Wevers will be the featured soloist and Graham Coles will conduct this selection.
L. V. Beethoven's Symphony No. 8 in F major, written in 1812, which was named by Vienna critics "The Little Symphony" at its first performance in February 1814, will be the concluding work of the evening.

Kinsmen Clubs Planning To Build Institute On Mental Retardation

President Edgar Hopkins of the Richmond Hill Kinsmen Club released the following information at the May 10 meeting of York County Mental Health Association at Thornhaven School.
The building of a National Kinsmen Institute on Mental Retardation was adopted as a national project by Kinsmen at the 1965 convention in Montreal; in five months, more than $175,000 has been raised by some 13,000 Kinsmen in the more than 400 clubs throughout Canada.
Each Kinsmen Club has pledged $25 per member to this national project. Besides this pledge, the 20-member Richmond Hill Kinsmen Club this year will turn over the entire proceeds of its fertilizer sale, which is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $500.
The institute, to be built in Toronto at a cost of approximately $350,000, will commemorate the Association of Kinsmen's Club 50th anniversary, which takes place in 1970. It will house the headquarters and be administered by the Canadian Association for Retarded Children. It is to be a central clearing house of information on new methods and research. Some 2,000 persons from all parts of Canada are expected to receive training at the institute annually.
Will Klein of Regina, national president of Kinsmen Clubs, has announced that it is hoped that sod turning ceremonies can take place in 1967, Canada's Centennial Year.

Local Music Pupils Do Well At Newmarket Music Festival

Pupils from the studio of Lona and Bob Richardson, 384 Wenlock Street, Richmond Hill, won many honors at the recent Lions Music Festival in Newmarket.
Misses Ruth Rorrison and Catherine Wilson of Thornhill won the senior piano duet class, 16 years and under. They received 84%, one of the highest marks awarded by Adjudicator Mrs. Margaret Parsons Poole, entitling them to gold medals. Miss Pamela Grasse, Marilyn Grasse and Wendy Strauman of Richmond Hill won first place, 83% and gold medals in the piano trio class, eight years and under.
Masters Brian Seath, Scott Duncan and Keith Crawford, all of Thornhill, won first prize and medals for their performance in the piano trio class, 10 years and under.
Misses Helen Payne and Barbara Wilson of Thornhill won bronze medals and third place in the piano duet class, 14 years and under. Miss Wilson also won first prize in the solo class, 13 years and under.
Students entered in other solo classes were: Diana Fairfield, Helen Martin, Helen Payne, Catherine Wilson and Brian Seath, all of Thornhill, and Alec Turko of Richmond Hill.
Students of Miss Marion Martin, Thornhill, who participated in the festival, were Misses Cathy Brown and Sharon Suter of Thornhill. Miss Suter won second place and a silver medal in the piano solo under eight years. Miss Helen Martin, Thornhill, received two bronze medals for vocal solos, 10 years and under.
The Richardsons are holding a spring recital May 27 at 7:30 pm at Roselawn Public School, Carrville Road West.

Your YWCA Report

By B. U. Holmes
Although the weather hasn't been very conducive for arousing interest in summery clothing just lately, the Y Teens were afire with enthusiasm last Tuesday night when they had a very special type of program. The emphasis was on fashions and how to improve one's appearance by posture, poise, and good grooming generally, when wearing the latest (or not so very late) models from the world of fashion. Once again our program was made possible by the help of interested persons and in a volunteer capacity - Ardills of Aurora presented the styles and Wendy Feed gave the latest tips on good grooming.
Our centre was humming with activity a week ago Friday: Our advisory committee members were finishing their morning meeting (this is the present policy making group); the volunteers in the Resale Shop were checking over some of the articles for sale, and members of the YCHA were arriving to set up tables for the tea and bake sale which was held in the afternoon on behalf of the hospital. Such organized bedlam is of course, a sign of a healthy and active organization; and even though we ourselves are short of space, we are glad to be able to donate some of that which we have to other groups doing worthy community service.
Even though we are not taking in any more items to sell in the Resale Shop we will be open for business in the Centre until the last weekend in June. We expect to continue this service again in the fall but are not sure of the location yet.
If you are a watcher of Flashback on the idiot box, you may have had the pleasure of seeing the owners of the Rittmeyer Farm Studio being interviewed last Sunday night. It was fun to see and listen to them and I am sure if our rug hookers witnessed the program they must have had a warm feeling for our friends who had entertained them so royally a couple of weeks ago in Vine-land.
Our Wednesday Morning TAB Group in Maple have finished their regular gatherings until the fall now but have lots of exciting plans when they begin again next autumn. The quality of the craft work which they have done has been very high and the girls have lots of fun doing it. They have had stimulating and educational speakers and have also had a couple of friendly get to know each other sessions. And - the wet tots in the nursery have had a ball all winter too. This is one of the best run programs for little people whose mothers are enjoying themselves elsewhere that we have seen. These Maple girls certainly know how to organize themselves - even though
