MARKHAM VILLAGE: Susan Nigh, 18, of Markham, who competed in the recent British Empire and Commonwealth Games at Jamaica, took fourth place in the high jump. Another Markham resident, Bill Crothers, who was favored to win the 880, also finished fourth.

KESWICK: The newly-formed North Gwillimbury Underwater Club has offered its services to police departments in the area to assist in any emergencies in lakes and ponds in the Lake Simcoe area. Club President, James A. Shelton, said last week. All the members are trained in methods of recovery and have their own complete equipment.

STOUFFVILLE: A Stouffville man was killed August 13 when thrown from a car when it hit a culvert on the Pickering-Uxbridge Townline. William James Miller, 21, was killed instantly. John Hugh Van Koughnet of Stouffville, was also thrown from the car. He was taken to Scarborough General Hospital in fair condition. Police did not know which man was driving.

NEWMARKET: Mayor W. A. Kent, who has been charged with creating a disturbance, was remanded until October 7 last week in Magistrate's Court when a crown witness failed to appear. The witness, Town Clerk Grant Blight, is on holidays. The charge against Mr. Kent was laid May 20.

I have two used Volkswagens that I have taken in trade.

1964 Deluxe Sedan in mid-blue with radio, low mileage. Lic. No. 227046. This car has had love and care by last owner, and all I want for this gem is $1,095.

Also a real lovely 1961 Karmann Ghia. This is an eye-catcher. Lic. No. 100608. Must be seen at only $950. Call me today at 889-6261. Ask for Bill Puffer, Yonge-Steeles Motors.
