As their special holiday entertainment this weekend, the three area Odeon Theatres, the Richmond Hill, the Dufferin Drive-in on Dufferin Street, south of Highway 7 and the Parkway Drive-in, north of Steeles Avenue East, off Woodbine, are offering Dean Martin's latest Matt Helm spy adventure, "Murderers' Row."

Suave super-agent Helm (Dean Martin) is shown above with co-star Beverly Adams who plays Lovey Kravetz, his very private secretary, standing beside him. The two are surrounded by the twelve calendar "Slaygirls" who are also featured. Also starred are Ann-Margret, Karl Malden and Camilla Sparv.

Gormley News Notes

Merry Christmas to all We felt this verse of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was very suitable:
I heard the bells on Christmas Day,
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Paxton of Scarborough, with 37 members of the family present. Only absentees were the Christilaw family of Blind River and Miss Gloria Gooding of Hornby who was writing an exam at Guelph University.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber entertained all their family at a pre-Christmas dinner last Sunday.

Pat Johnstone underwent surgery at Shouldice Surgery last week.

We welcome Miss Miriam Heise who arrived at Malton airport the afternoon of December 18 after spending several years in Rhodesia. She left Bulawayo Friday noon, stopped at Rome and spent one night in London. Miriam had planned to go to India on her way home and spend Christmas with her brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Sider but was unable to get permission to enter India and so came directly home.

Her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heise are holding open house for Miriam December 23 from 2 to 4 pm and from 7 to 9 pm so that her many friends will be able to greet her.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wideman spent the weekend at Wellandport with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neale Sider and family.

The Junior Sunday school pupils and Christ Crusaders presented a Christmas program at Heise Hill Church last Sunday evening.

Harry Kruse suffered a fall at work December 15 and is confined to York County Hospital, Newmarket. He underwent surgery for a broken hip and injured elbow on Friday.

The Gooding family had a pre-Christmas dinner last Saturday evening at the home of Mr.

safely!

decorate your home

for a merrier Christmas

During the Festive Season fires cause untold property damage, personal injury and sorrow. Many fires are the direct result of unsafe practises in decorating the home for Christmas.

BE SAFETY-WISE . . . FOLLOW THESE SIMPLE RULES:

- Keep the receptacle at the base of your tree filled with water.
- Do not string lights on artificial or aluminum trees - they might become energized.
- Keep trees clear of curtains.
- Turn lighted decorations out before leaving the house or retiring.
- Replace burned out bulbs immediately - children may put fingers or tongues in empty light sockets.
- Keep parcels and paper decorations away from colored lights.
- Use "fire-proof" decorations.
- Keep wrapping and parcels clear of light bulbs.

OUTDOOR LIGHTING

Make certain that all lighting strings and extension cords are the approved outside type and in a safe condition . . . do not overload electrical circuits.
