Newmar's Lawyer New Magistrate

Attorney-General of Ontario, Arthur Wishart, last week announced the appointment of Clare W. Morrison as a magistrate. Mr. Morrison lives in Sutton but practises law in Newmarket. As yet he does not know where he will be serving as magistrate.

He attended public school in Sutton and achieved his senior matriculation at the University of Toronto Schools. After serving a year in the Canadian Army he played professional hockey with the Ayr Raiders in the Scottish Hockey League for one season.

Mr. Morrison returned to Canada and received his law degree in 1953. While attending the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall he played hockey with the Varsity Blues and later with several semi-professional teams in the senior OHA classification.

In 1955 he opened practice of his own in Sutton and moved his office to Newmarket in 1961. He has served two terms as a Georgia Township councillor. Recently the attorney-general also named David Coon, who practises law in Stouffville, as a full time magistrate.

Hill Man's Car Hit In Driveway

In a report of an accident November 26 in the December 1 issue of "The Liberal", it was stated that a car driven by William Rumble, 216 Jacey Ann Drive, Richmond Hill, had struck a vehicle owned by Edward Rawding, Scarborough, which was parked in a driveway at the time.

The account should have read that the Rawding vehicle struck the Rumble car while it was parked. The accident occurred on Sussex Avenue near Centre Street.

Sr. Housing Project Has Council Blessing

Richmond Hill Council passed a bylaw last week officially approving its agreement with Ontario Housing Corporation for construction of a senior citizens home on the Dufferin Street extension at the eastern end of Church Street.

The bylaw spelled out conditions whereby OHC will carry the cost of putting the 56-suite building up with the federal government.

The federal government will bear the major portion of the cost at 90 percent with the province paying the other 30 percent.

There will be no cost to Richmond Hill except that taxes in excess of $25 per suite will be rebated.

Public Relations The Theme Scout Meeting

Public relations was the theme of the annual conference of Lakeland Region, Boy Scouts of Canada, which was held at Camp Borden, recently.

Attending the session were members of York Summit District executive and staff, as well as group committee members, Scouters and ladies' auxiliary representatives from Richmond Hill, Thornhill and Markham. Charles Coon, public relations manager, General Foods Limited, was the main speaker at the morning session, which was devoted to internal public relations.

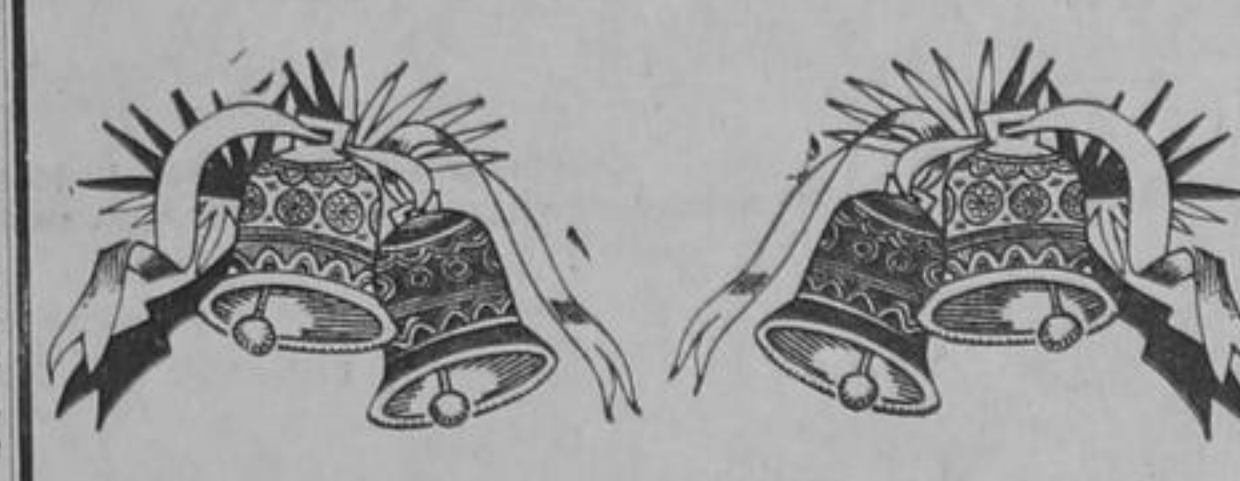

At the afternoon session on external public relations, M. F. Cheatham, manager of public information service, Union Carbide of Canada Ltd., addressed the conference.

The annual banquet was held in the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps mess hall, with Captain Edward C. Hopkins, director of trade development, Toronto Harbor Commission, the guest speaker.

During the conference it was announced that Ron Sculthorpe, former District Commissioner, York Summit District, had been appointed assistant provincial commissioner for Lakeland Region.

As we gather together on Christmas morn to worship the Christ Child and offer Him the gift of our love, let us all recall especially the message of the angels announcing His birth: Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men. We heartily wish that all the blessings of the holy season of Christmas come to you and your family in lasting measure throughout the coming year.

We take this opportunity to wish all our many friends a very Merry Christmas Season.
