Magistrate's Court

Ordered To Keep Peace Two Years

A South Thornhill man, who gave his wife a bruised nose for Christmas, was fined $50 and ordered to keep the peace for two years when he was convicted last week in Magistrate's Court of common assault.

Magistrate Russell Pearce reduced the charge from one of assault occasioning bodily harm after hearing the evidence against Grant Porter, 151 Crestwood Road.

Mrs. Yvonne Porter, wife of the accused, said her husband had hit her twice Christmas morning, following an argument. Mrs. Porter, who said her husband had been drinking, still bore a mark on her nose, which she said resulted from the altercation.

She said he was the best of husbands when he wasn't drinking.

Mr. Porter said he "might have hit her with the back of my hand to shove her away."

Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong suggested the accused be put on a bond to keep the peace. "If he comes back here, he goes to jail as far as I'm concerned," Mr. Armstrong said.

Mr. Porter was ordered to post a $500 bond.

NEWMARKET: By the week before Christmas $455 had been contributed for preparation of Christmas Baskets by Newmarket Lions Club which were distributed Christmas Eve. Chairman of the committee preparing the baskets was John Holthrop.

Among the many college students home for the holidays were, Jane Brown from Queen's University, Jay Perry from Trent University, Duncan Stratton from Simon Fraser University, Paul Spafford, Wendy Bran, George Neeland and Peter Tremaine from Waterloo University, Mark Spafford from Brock University and Kathy Sumner, Janice Crouter, Alana Parker and Ruth Harrington from Guelph Hospital School of Nursing, Doug Windsor from Guelph University.

Ladies from Thornhill Golf and Country Club entertained guest curlers at a bonspiel and luncheon held December 29.

Craig Gibson visited Don Perry, Arnold Avenue, over the holidays. Craig, a former Thornhill resident, visited old friends while in the area.

Birthday greetings to Robert Shelton on the recent occasion of his 21st birthday.

Henry Cruise, 27 John Street, is still a patient in Branson Hospital where he is recovering from a car accident that occurred December 23.

Third Thornhill Scouts and Cubs will hold their annual bottle pick up January 8 between the hours of 9 am and 3 pm. Kindly remember to save and place returnable bottles in a conspicuous place by 9 am.

Socially Speaking

Scouts and Cubs will appreciate your donations and co-operation. Areas expected to be covered include Arnold Avenue to Longbridge Drive; Elgin and John Streets; Thornhill Green east of Yonge Street.

Proceeds from the drive will go toward Third Thornhill scouting activities.

Sympathy is extended to Renee Baby and to Pierre, Marc, Suzanne, John and Jacqueline, Layette Place, on the death of Jeannine Baby, wife and mother who died in St. Joseph's Hospital December 27. Requiem mass was conducted at St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church December 29.

An action packed children's play "Sinbad and the Mermaid" is being presented January 21 and 22 at the Lions Hall, Richmond Hill. The play will have great appeal to all children between the ages of 3 and 14 years.

There will be two performances, both days at 1.30 and 3.30 pm. Tickets are $1 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. G. Truss at 884-3665.

Jan Cruise of Thornhill is assistant costume designer for the production. Jan recently returned after working as a fashion designer and model for two years in Montreal and is now working in Toronto.

For the fifth consecutive season, Mrs. H. R. Howden, lawyer and wife of Rev. H. R. Howden, will be giving university extension courses on "Law and the Woman". The first series of 10 lectures will be in the University Extension Building, Toronto, and the second in Etobicoke. Mrs. Howden finds that her students are anxious to learn about all aspects of taxation, especially in regard to the inequalities suffered by woman in taxation, also about wills, estate planning and constitutional law.

Miss Pat Finerty, Thornridge Drive, spent an enjoyable holiday skiing in the Kirkland Lake district.

Larry and Ron Kelson, Centre Street, enter Ryerson Polytechnical Institute this month.

Holy Trinity
Mrs. L. J. Saunders has resigned as parish secretary after six years. Mrs. B. R. Calvert is the new secretary as of January 3.

Each parish organization is advised to have its annual report submitted to the church secretary by January 15. Treasurers are also asked to submit their books for audit as soon as possible. H. Iddon and J. Kearns are the auditors for the church.

Confirmation classes will commence the latter part of January. Junior class commences January 24 at 7 pm. Adult classes will begin January 25 at 8 pm. Adults and young people who would like to enroll in the classes are asked to contact the church secretary, Canon C. P. Bishop will be guest preacher at the morning service January 8.

United Church
The session is called to meet January 9 in the church parlor. A weekend demonstration and workshop school will be held January 27, 28 and 29.

The Sunday night study group will meet January 8. Communion Sunday will be held January 22.

Members of the congregation are asked to listen to radio station 590, CKEY, for programs from Berkeley Studio, at 10.45 am January 6. Dr. Reva Gerstein will speak on myths and education; January 9 Ellen Bergmann will speak on educationally subnormal children in England; January 10, on educational discrimination in Jamaica; January 12, rural educational problems in Jamaica; January 13, Dr. F. Fidler will speak on family relations in the West Indies.

It would be most appreciated if residents of Thornhill would let me know news of vacationers, guests, parties or young people activities. News is difficult to obtain at this time as I am visiting my husband in the hospital every day and find it difficult to make many calls myself.

Neighborhood Notes
The Richvale Centennial Library will be opening very soon as the community's first Centennial project during Canada's 100th birthday celebration.

The naming of the park between Roosevelt Drive and Garden Avenue could well be another project for this important year. This park has great possibilities which will be realized through the co-operation of the community.

Skating has already begun for the youngsters at this park and also at the rink at the community hall on Spruce Avenue.

The results of the recount in the December election for reeve should be known this week. Once the new council is conducting business we can try to have our petition to have a stop sign installed on Roosevelt Drive presented. With the season of slippery icy roads and sleety weather upon us, the junction of Roosevelt Drive and Pearson Avenue presents a very dangerous situation. Maybe 1967 will see this changed.

The Storybook Theatre presentation of "Sinbad and the Mermaid" will be held at the Lions' Hall, Centre Street East, Richmond Hill on January 21 and 22, with performances at 1:30 and 3:30 each day. Children from three to 14 will find this production of special interest. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. M. Matyas, 889-5181.

It was nice to have some former residents of Roosevelt Drive visiting us over the weekend: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Quance, Frank Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sanderson.

Accidents
We are sorry to hear of two of our residents being involved in car accidents over the holidays.

Hal Ireland of Roosevelt Drive is recuperating at home after receiving a whip lash and Henry Nelson is recovering from another car accident.

A Reminder
To compile an interesting and useful column of news each week takes the co-operation of the community as a whole. Won't you please be part of it by calling your correspondent and reporting all items of interest to you and your neighbors. The rest of the community will be interested. We are particularly interested in any Centennial projects of individuals, clubs or organizations in the area.

Fund Raisers Par Excellence

Shown tallying up returns from the December canvass in the Uplands and Ball subdivisions and on Kirk Drive for Vaughan Township Festival Choir are left, Mrs. Betty Cole, project chairman and right, Mrs. Doreen Parker, president of Langstaff Home and School Auxiliary which sponsored the drive.

A total of 23 canvassers took part and the group was surprised and gratified to find that they raised a total just $10 short of $1,000. Donations ranged everywhere from $1 to $50.

Prior to the canvass, pupils of grade 6 at Langstaff Public School delivered a letter to every household in the area explaining the need for funds to send the 250-voice choir of Vaughan school children to Expo '67 next year.

(If anyone would like to bring that total up to an even $1,000, Mrs. Parker's address is 15 Cavalier Cres., Thornhill.)

March To City Hall Raises Funds In Thornhill Secondary Campaign

Eighteen sturdy students of 10B at Thornhill Secondary School braved chilling winds and generally inclement weather December 18 to march for funds for the school's annual charity drive, the "Little U" (for United Appeal).

Leaving the school property at 10.30 am, the gradually be-numbed group marched down to Toronto City Hall arriving there to collapse on convenient benches at 2.45 pm. They had originally planned to tour the building but were too tired and after getting something to eat, made their way home by subway and bus.

They carried with them signs advertising sponsors who had agreed to pay the group anywhere from $5 to $25 for making the march.

Among the sponsors were Jack's Donuts, Bork's Jewellers, Chez Pauline Hair-dressing, Becker's Milk, Reynolds Shoe House, Harvey's Drive Inn and Dennis Moore School of Dancing in Richmond Hill, Thornhill Art and Paint Supply, Thornhill School of Music and the Maple IGA. As well, they carried a small plastic baby bath and solicited contributions from passersby, collecting about $10 in this way.

South of St. Clair Avenue, they stopped at Radio Station CHUM to see if they could get some publicity, but were unsuccessful in this. However, they did meet members of a pop music group "The Paupers" at the station who dropped some money into their container — and kissed two of the girls — so the stop was not a total loss.

Together with the walk and a couple of sessions of carol singing, 10B raised $157 of the more than $1,500 raised in the school during the campaign.

Top fund raising class was 11B which garnered something like $260 through a similar walk, several carolling sessions and other methods, and was awarded the "Little U" trophy.

Proceeds of the drive will be distributed to three or four worthy charities of the students' choice.
