Neighborhood Notes
 Curlers are in the news again — Congratulations to Andy Grant, Stan Defoe, Tim Patterson and Len McMullen whose rink won the Senior Ontario Curling Championship last week.
 Mrs. Jean Cook spent last weekend with her daughter's family at Niagara Falls.
 Mrs. William Rodick taught at Buttonville School last week when Mrs. Joy Crawford was ill.
 School children in Markham TSA 2 had a lively time in last week's stormy weather. On Tuesday, buses called for the children at noon when the roads became blocked with snow. Wednesday morning the situation on township roads was still bad and schools were closed during the day.

 Local antique dealers have been busy with shows recently. Two weeks ago there was one at the Canadiana Motel and last week at the Inn On The Park.
 Betty Bishop was in hospital for two days last week for an eye operation, but is home again and doing well.
 Mike Mitchell was among the Toronto Daily Star carriers who were entertained Saturday. The boys were taken to the Richmond Theatre.

 For those who are interested, a meeting regarding the establishment of a senior citizens' home at Unionville has been called for Thursday evening of this week, March 9, at 8:15 pm at the Kennedy Clinic. The sponsoring group is the Unionville Council of Churches.
Hospital Auxiliary
 Buttonville Branch YCHA members met at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson for a 10 am meeting and coffee, on Friday of last week.
 Unfortunately the newly appointed chairman, Mrs. Robin Bush, is ill, and in her absence V.-Chairman Mrs. Bert Gardhouse presided. Speaking for Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Gardhouse paid tribute to past Chairman Mrs. George Kelly, who worked with the organizing committee from 1961 to form YCHA and was the second chairman of the Buttonville Branch succeeding Mrs. Joe Robinson.
 During business Mrs. Robinson reported that Buttonville Branch is looking after baby photography at the hospital — those involved are Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Norman Reid, Mrs. Robin Bush, Mrs. Rye Ward, and Mrs. Robinson. Business in February was not rushing — only 14 babies were photographed — but according to Mrs. Robinson the doctors predict March will be a better month.
 Mrs. Kelly reported on the annual meeting of the auxiliary saying members were impressed with the new nurses' residence which is almost completed.
 The spring project for the branch will be a euchre party with bake sale and gift table at Buttonville Hall, April 14.
 Members were also reminded of the YCHA project — the White Rose Ball — to be held at the Inn On The Park, May 26. A glamorous affair this, so mark the date on your calendar.

UAW Speaker
 Mrs. Loren Guild gave a graphic description of the lives of early missionaries who pioneered the western prairies, when Brown's Corners UCW held their March meeting in the Christian education room, Wednesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. H. Pieterse conducted the meeting and Mrs. W. W. Miller gave the devotional.
 Mrs. S. J. English was snow-bound, and Mrs. Alfred Miller acted as pianist in her absence and accompanied Mrs. Clayton Jones in two solos.
 Following business and the benediction tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Pieterse, Mrs. W. W. Miller and Mrs. A. W. Miller.

They visited the Coliseum, walked the Spanish steps, and admired all the famous Roman sites. Their party included 58 Canadians and a large number of Americans and had an audience with the Pope. Shirley and Bill were lucky enough to sit in the 12th row and were amazed that when the Pope appeared everyone began to applaud.
 They were to have visited Sorrento but a huge landslide forced cancellation. They did see Salerno, just south of Naples, scene of much action during World War II. They were made honorary citizens of Rome by its mayor, who said he was always glad to have Canadian tourists.
 Shirley reported beautiful sunsets in Rome and the weather a pleasant 50 degrees.
 From Italy they flew to England and on to New York where their bag full of souvenirs was lost as they transferred from plane to plane.
 Shortly after arriving home young Greg, White came down with the mumps. We hope he will be feeling better and be back to school soon.
