The Centennial project of one Richmond Hill family, Keith Nichols of Balkan Road, will take them to the west coast this summer. Six years of planning and hard work have resulted in a camper built on the back of a half-ton pickup. The camper is roomy enough for Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and their four children aged from four to 15 years. Mr. Nichols has crafted it in the back yard and the whole family is justly proud of their mobile home. The family plans to leave as soon as school is out and enjoy every minute of their trip across the prairies, through the mountains and to the Pacific ocean. In this, the year of Canada's Centennial they

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

It's easy to see by the expressions on the faces of the three ladies on the left that the news brought by the Town Crier is all good. The Crier, who returned to Richmond Hill after a long absence, was making her door-to-door rounds to announce the upcoming Centennial Soiree, which will be held at Pleasantville Public School April 8.

Sponsored by the Pleasantville Home and School Association, the soiree will be in the form of a costume party and will be open to anyone within the sound of the Town Crier's voice, or whoever gets the message any other way, including through the many proclamations that will be posted throughout the town from now until party time.

Tickets may be obtained from Town Crier Mrs. Margaret Macdonald, 884-2800. The three attentive ladies from top to bottom, are, Mrs. Elizabeth Miner, president of Pleasantville HSA; Mrs. Judy Wales and Mrs. Lois Wortman.
