Chicken Little — Big Hit

Two of the pupils in Miss Phyllis Gall's grade 1 class at Concord Public School, Larry Chase and Brenda Dean, show apprehension and delight respectively, over the class science project — the hatching of a dozen baby chicks. As is obvious from the teacher's posters, the project was also the basis for reading lessons.

The incubator was loaned to the class by G. W. Williams Secondary School in Aurora and all the eggs hatched just before the Easter holidays, to the intense interest of the whole school.

People And Events In Maple

The whole community extends deep sympathy to Ernie and Sylvia Hemphill, George Lawrie, and the other members of the family of the late Mrs. Annie Lawrie. She will be deeply missed by the whole village.

Doug and Marjory Black, RR 2 Maple, returned last Sunday from a trip to Florida. They flew down to Tampa where they picked up a car and then drove to St. Petersburg. Here they visited with former Maple residents, Mr. and Mrs. George Donnerl. They also visited with friends from Ohio and then went to Port Richey and Tarpon Springs. At the latter place they watched the operations of the sponge boats at the famous sponge docks.

On the drive home they stopped at Silver Springs, Florida where they visited the tourist site Six Gun Territory. Here is a replica of an authentic Western town, complete with gun fights, can can dancers in the western saloon and Indian dances.

Six members of the ladies' bowling league have been members of the league for 16 years and celebrate the anniversary with an annual dinner together. Det Palmer, Jean Miller, Hilda Allen, Bertha Ingram, Flo Rouse and Betty Rumble are the six original members. They all, with the exception of Betty Rumble who was unable to attend, went to dinner at the Skyline Hotel, March 29.

Gene and Ellen Perrault and Dean and Darrell of Richmond St. had a motor trip to Painesville and Mentor, Ohio over the Easter holidays. They stayed with friends and relatives while there visited the home of the late President Garfield, which is a showplace in Mentor.

Congratulations to Glen and Katy Snider, RR1 Maple on the birth of a baby daughter, March 30, at York Central Hospital. Lisa Gayle will be a sister for Danny and Tommy.

Zion Lutheran Church will have a new pastor in mid-June when Rev. John A. Arbuckle of Smiths Falls takes over the charge.

Christened in Zion Lutheran Church March 26 was Julia Carole Keffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Keffer of Kleinburg. The service that Sunday was conducted by Pastor Emil Lange of Waterloo.

Birthdays congratulations are extended to five-year-old Wendy Davidson celebrated April 5.

The March general meeting of the UCW of Maple United Church was held March 28. President Mrs. J. Darlington conducted a business session in which plans were discussed for spring and fall fund-raising. The UCW has decided to hold a bazaar and rummage sale April 22 in the Christian education wing of the church, beginning at 1:30. Featured will be the French Room, for better dresses. Other spring plans include a luncheon in May.

Mrs. Norman Boogers reported on the planning and development committee. A book has been published on the history and future development of the community of Maple and its relationship to the church. The purpose is to see how the church can plan ahead to meet the needs of the community as it changes.

A letter was read from the foster child of the UCW, a little girl in Korea.

Mrs. T. Jackson and Mrs. E. Borrett led the worship service and Mrs. Borrett spoke on Easter and what it means to us.

Mrs. F. Simmons read the scriptures and Mrs. Jackson read a paper on everyday problems and how to cope with them.

A trio from the choir, composed of Mrs. S. Valentin, Mrs. J. Scott and Mrs. R. McIntyre then sang two hymns. Following this the ladies divided into groups of four each. They were given a paper plate, streamers and pins and given seven minutes to create an Easter bonnet. The hats were then modelled and judged. Rev. N. H. Boogers spoke to the ladies during tea time.

The grade 7A class at Joseph Gibson School is sponsoring a

Resident Of Maple Since 1924 Mrs. Annie Lawrie Died March 30

The community was saddened Thursday, March 30, to learn of the death that morning of Annie Lawrie at York Central Hospital after a long illness. Mrs. Lawrie was the owner of Lawrie's Hardware Store, and had been a resident of Maple since her marriage to the late Arthur W. Lawrie on September 20, 1924.

She was one of four children of the late George Hemphill and his wife, the former Nell Agar, of the Nashville area. The Hemphill family were members of Nashville Presbyterian Church. Other members of the family were three boys: William, now of Kitchener; Ernie of Maple and Lloyd, now deceased.

When Annie married Arthur Lawrie and moved to Maple they ran the Lawrie Hardware Store and Funeral Home which

Mr. Lawrie's father had run before him. They had three children: George of Maple, Ann (Mrs. Ron Starkey) of Lindsay and William, who was killed in an accident at the railway tracks in Maple in November, 1949.

Arthur Lawrie died in March 1948 and Annie continued with the hardware store business until her death.

She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and a life member of the WMS of that church.

The funeral service was held April 1 at St. Andrew's Church, Maple, with Rev. B. F. Andrew conducting the service. He was assisted by Dr. Ramsey Armitage of St. Stephen's Anglican Church and Rev. Norman Boogers of Maple United. Burial was in Maple Cemetery. Pallbearers were James McDonald, Al Moore, Arthur Bacher, Jim Ross, Ken Edgar and Dr. Bruce Greer.

The March meeting was "new members night" and thanks to the efforts of the executive, there was a large turnout.

A trip to Expo was discussed during the business portion of the meeting and it was decided to charter a bus for the weekend of May 12-14, leaving Friday morning and returning Sunday evening.

Several members of the Vellore Club attended the Provincial Junior Farmers' Conference at the University of Guelph, March 17-19. Official representatives of the club were Don McCallum and Sally McKay.

When the party's over a Cascade 40 electric water heater can have its finest hour

Seven-year-old socialites have a way of leaving more than a gift at a party: ever been stuck with a tutti-frutti-topped tablecloth?

These are the times a Cascade 40 can really win you over. It provides all the hot water you need to suds up a strawberry-specked party dress, its chocolate-cheeked owner, and the pile of party paraphernalia you'll be left with.

A Cascade 40 electric water heater may not make the party... but it could save the day. For more information, ask your Hydro.
