Rambling Around

There are many advantages in having such a central location. It encourages newcomers to seek it and thus find an avenue to meeting people and to avail themselves of opportunities for learning new skills.

Much of the work is done by a voluntary staff and a real effort is made to match the need with qualified volunteers. Volunteers act as receptionists, typists, baby sitters, drivers, sell used garments in the resale shop or make posters for the publicity chairman. All members on standing committees are volunteers also.

A most interesting development is the resale shop. It specializes in selling "nearly new" children's clothing (in season), nursery furniture, (baby carriages, playpens, high chairs and children's toys.)

The primary purpose of the resale shop is to help the community. If your children have outgrown their clothes, toys and games, you may take these articles to the "Y" Resale Shop if they are in good condition. This will benefit the "Y" which gets 25% of the selling price while the owner gets 75%. If the article is not sold within a season, the owner reclaims it.

Community service is an integral part of "Y" thinking and so is World Service. The aim is to teach others locally, nationally and internationally how to learn to help themselves.

PROGRAMS TO SUIT THE INDIVIDUAL NEED
 The winter program is just about over but it is interesting to note the variety and scope that was contained in it.

Take-a-Break Clubs are for homemakers who find it difficult to get out because of small children at home. They are usually the first step in any community that welcomes opportunities to learn creative crafts, to listen to speakers and hold discussions. In Richmond Hill, TAB is at Yonge Street, Thursday, 9.30 am to 11.30 am.

Maple has established its own TAB group at Maple United Church, Wednesday, 9.30 am to 11.30 am. Call Ann Soderberg, 832-2618. This TAB has 38 members.

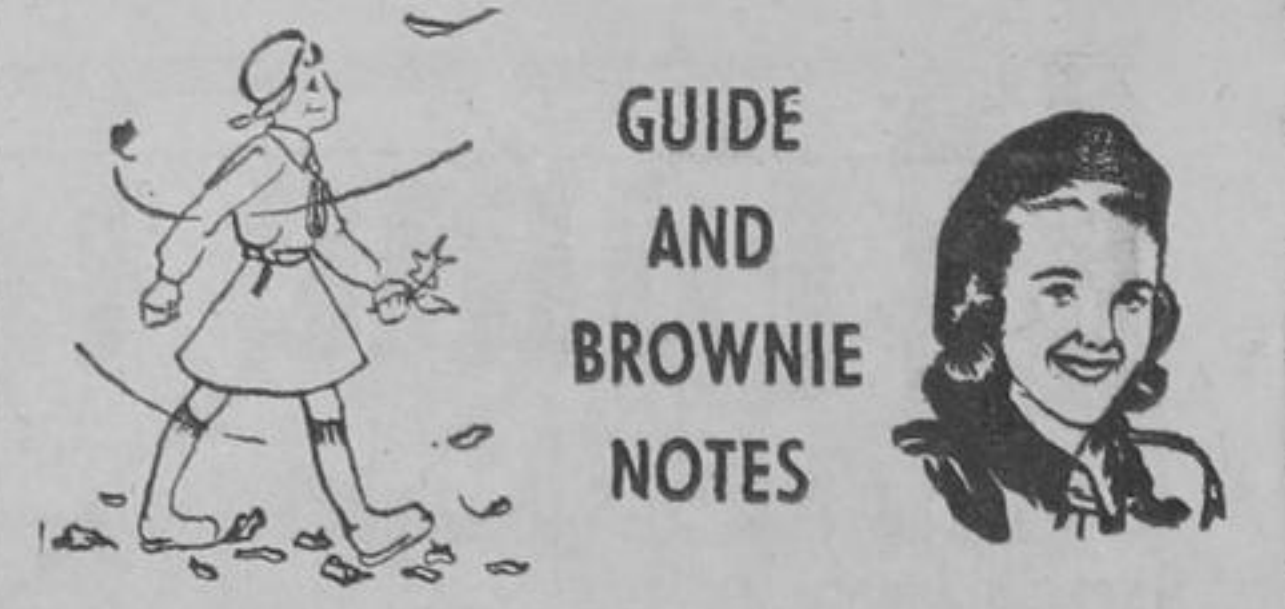

Unionville has TAB at the Unionville Lutheran Church under Mrs. Gail Gage. If you are interested in having a TAB in your neighborhood call 884-4811.

The junior program includes swimming and children's art. This is for boys and girls 7 to 13 years.

Y-Teen clubs are for girls 12 to 14 years. These clubs are designed for girls who wish to meet friends and have fun. The program contains four main areas of interest, recreation, crafts, education and service projects.

Adult program classes come under a variety of heads. Miss Edna Izzard conducts the book study group. Militza Shepherd teaches batik on craft night. Mike Cummins teaches upholstery. Oil painting is taught by Langley Donges and Ruth Walker. Evelyn Ferguson instructs the millinery class. Other interesting crafts are: caning with Mrs. Bert Cook, making furniture with Roy Austin and rug hooking with Joyce Gamble. May Maitland teaches bridge.

Men and boys are welcome to join such activities as bridge, caning, and upholstery. The materials are not furnished for the craft classes. Swimming takes place at York Mills Pool. Mrs. Pat Bedford helps the girls to slim and trim. Basketball is provided for business girls over 18 years under Carol Tanner. Bowling is at Allencourt Alleys. The spring program which is coming up offers outdoor sports, golf, summer swimming and a charm course. If you would like information about the spring program, I suggest you call Richmond Hill and District YWCA at 884-4811.

Richmond Hill East District Guides and Brownies have welcomed many new members in recent enrollments. Madame Commissioner, Mrs. Maude Fockler visited 7th Guides, under Captain Mrs. Kit Whaley, when the following Guides were enrolled: Diane Hutcheson, Mara Clifford, Wendy Finlayson, Sandra Pinder, Judy Collins, Patti Bickit, Anne Worrell and Joanne McKenzie. Peggy Grant was presented with her second badge and her swimmer's badge.

Madame commissioner, with District Guider Mrs. Betty Walker, visited 8th Guides, when Capt. Mrs. Jackie Majury presented Judy Griffin, Angela Jacques, Mary Chris Roussel, Sherry McKenna, Ellen Barclay, and Linda French for enrollment.

Brown Owl, Mrs. J. A. Hornett, 422 St. Taylor Mills Drive welcomed Helen Pennyfather into the 15th Brownie Pack, 12th Brownie Pack, under Brown Owl, Mrs. Margaret King, welcomed Michelle Basciano, Carol Cabrielli, Anita Ludera and Debby Milanowski. The following girls were presented with their first year pin, Rita Bernard, Kathy French and Joanne Wilson. Denise Allison, Aida Basciano, Cindy Dorwart, Colleen Farrell, Sharon Lewis, Anne Sexton and Joanne Wilson have earned their golden bar and Aida Basciano, Cindy Dorwart, Colleen Farrell and Anne Sexton have earned their writer's badge.

The 11th Brownies have several new members also. They are Valeria Milne, Janet Lindars, Glenda Bag, Sandra Cartwright, Bridget Harris, Cheryl Wilson, Laurie Clifford, Wendy Zipf, Jaydean Stunden and Joanne Purvis.

Captain of the 4th Guides, Mrs. Betty O'Rourke is very proud to announce that all the girls in her company have successfully completed the St. John Ambulance First Aid Course. Congratulations!

On April 12, the 8th Guides and the 15th Brownies visited Baker's Farm and saw how maple syrup is made. All the girls enjoyed themselves immensely.

Many Guides from our district attended badge day on April 1 and were successful in their tests. A very successful cookie day was held on March 18, and the girls will be delivering the cookies on the weekend of April 22. Our mothers' auxiliaries have not been idle this winter. Our Lady, Queen of the World Mother's Auxiliary held an Easter egg sale and were very gratified with the response. They plan to hold a bake sale, the third Sunday of each month at the church. Here's your chance to pick up Sunday dessert as well as helping your daughters in the Guide movement.

St. Gabriel's Mothers' Auxiliary held several card parties in the past month. These card parties have been an informal way for our Brownie and Guide mothers to get to know each other.

A meeting of the Richmond Hill East District group was held at the home of Mrs. Betty Pitt, with Commissioner Fockler as chairman. Fourteen members were present and many fund raising ideas were discussed. Mrs. Evelyn Lang was asked to assume the office of president. Mrs. Rita Smith who has given many years to the organization is retiring.

There are openings for Guides in Richmond Hill East. This is a most rewarding job and there are few requirements. A love of girls and a desire to see them grow into healthy, happy young women are the most important requirements. You gain far more than you give. If you are interested please contact Mrs. Fockler or any of the Guides.

Guides, Guides and Brownies all join in wishing Captain Mrs. Whaley of the 7th company, a very speedy recovery from her recent operation at York Central Hospital. We all miss her and hope to see her with us soon.

AURORA: Aurora Public Schools will become a municipal inspectorate effective August 1. When an elementary school system has an enrolment of over 2,000 pupils, a municipal inspector may be appointed and with an enrolment of 3,000, this step must be taken. There are now more than 2,200 pupils in the Aurora system. The present inspector is W. J. McLeod, of the Department of Education.
