Close to 200 boys along with 35 coaches, managers and referees attended the annual banquet for the Maple Minor Hockey Association, April 14 in the community hall. Special guest speaker at the banquet was NHL star Andy Bathgate of the Detroit Red Wings who spoke to the boys, following the meal. Concord was well represented at Vaughan Township's Centennial Ball, Mart Kenney's Ranch, April 21, when Councillor Dave Fraser and his wife Mary, Phyllis and Bill Gambell, Audrey and Joe Boron and Margaret and Mac McLean made up a lively table. A special dispensation was made and two former Concord residents, Warren and Elizabeth Bailie were also welcomed to the group. Seated at a neighboring table were Gerry and Roy Wright, of Lawrie Rd. Gerry was a lucky draw winner during the evening and Marg McLean won first prize for the best 1967 costume, a floor length gown made from a blue and white Centennial flag.

Table hopping during the evening were R. C. McWhirter whom old Concord residents remember as principal for many years at Concord School, and Mrs. McWhirter. Mr. McWhirter is now principal of Ross Doan Public School in Richvale. All that dust rising over East Concord this past week was just the Bill Lacey's, Lawrie Rd, preparing for a trip back to the old sod. Bill returned last week from his winter's stint at the DHO station at Guelph just in time to get ready for the trip to Ireland, Phyllis' first trip back in 15 years. He and Phyllis along with Michael, Timmy and Debbie will take off May 2, motoring to Montreal and taking the plane from there. Meantime, Grandma Walsh is holding the fort at home with her three Sweeney grandchildren. Just before takeoff, there will be a joint celebration at the Lacey home when Timmy Lacey, who will be seven years old April 28 and his cousin Kevin Sweeney who will be 12 April 30 celebrate their birthdays. Happy birthday kids!

Among the guests at Thornhill Lions Club ladies' night April 15 were John and Carol Cole, King High Drive. This was a dinner and dance held at the Royal Fontainebleau Restaurant at the Towne and Country Square. Most of the group partied afterwards at the home of Lions President Nels Gaze and Carol reports it was close to 4:30 am when the Cole family reported back to base — with Kelley Anne bright and chipper at 7 am as usual! John was re-elected secretary

Frank Robson reports that he had a total of 18 school classes through his sugar maple bush this spring to learn about the making of maple syrup. He wishes to thank all the classes and children for the letters and pictures that were sent to him by way of a thank you. He also reports that he has a small amount of maple syrup for sale, for those who requested some earlier, and had to be refused. Next year Frank plans an even more comprehensive trip through the sugar bush for the children who come to visit the farm.

Joy Sandford's name was left off the list of children taking part in the Talent Night Concert at Joseph Gibson School. Joy opened the evening with her playing of "O Canada" on the piano and we apologise for the omission.
