

GUIDE AND BROWNIE NOTES

RICHMOND HILL CENTRAL DISTRICT 6th Guide Company
Seven girls were enrolled at a candlelight Thinking Day ceremony on February 28. They were: Charon Gilpin, Michelle Glanzmann, Susan Macdonald, Anne Osso, Cheryl Rogers, Debbie VanWicklin and Cora Vermeulen.
Two more girls were enrolled March 21: Dana Banton and Donna Danyer.

Eighteen Guides have passed their St. John Ambulance Preliminary First Aid examination. April 1 was badge day. Ann Ryan and Deborah Campbell passed the needlewoman badge test, and Ann Ryan also passed the laundress test. Deborah Campbell and Michelle Glanzmann passed the test as toy-makers.
Cadet Aneuke Vermeulen is taking a cadet correspondence course to qualify herself thoroughly for her work with the company.

Councillor Hoover Gets Extra Levy

Markham Township Councillor Charles Hoover, who likes to keep a tight check on council spending, found his own budget unexpectedly overspent by $5 last week.
That was the amount Mr. Hoover was fined when he was convicted in Magistrate's Court on a charge of speeding on Wellington Street in Markham Village.
Mr. Hoover argued that he had always known the road as Highway 7 and he didn't think the new name was supported by a village bylaw.
Magistrate Pearce said he didn't think it mattered what the road was called, but levied the minimum fine on the accused, because he had taken the trouble to come to court.

The company has been invited to visit Richmond Hill Police Department with the 5th Brownie Pack in June.

10th Guide Company
This company has welcomed three new recruits: Ann Marie Daly, Donna Henderson and Linda Ormston. On badge day four Guides earned their laundress badge: Diane Holtby, Leah Macdonald, Cheryl Matthews and Judy Reid.

13th Brownie Pack
An enrolment was held April 7 with the following girls repeating the Brownie promise: Kirsten Bruhn, Caren Clayton and Patricia Wood.

KESWICK: Three Toronto youths have been charged by North Willowbury Police with breaking and entering Frith's Esso Services, last week. Charged were Merrill Elliott, 20; Albert F. Digman, 17; Aubrey Harris, 20. Police also investigated a break-in at the home of Joe Chappelle of Baldwin.

Expo Visitors
To celebrate the occasion of their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary which was on May 17, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wynn arrived in Montreal by plane on May 5. They stayed at the home of Mr. Wynn's sister, Miss Joan Stephens and on Saturday made a tour of Montreal, visiting the many places of interest.
On Sunday and Monday they visited Expo, due to the fact that there are so many beautiful and interesting pavilions, they were not able to see them all in the time they had. In order of their preference, they enjoyed the British Pavilion about the best, and then the Russian display and the French Pavilion. During their tour they had a ride on the Metro, they highly recommend Expo, and say everyone should go and see it if at all possible, it is well worthwhile.
