Our Children Deserve Better Care
Let's start giving the children a break. Stop leaving medicines and dangerous household products where they are easily available for our tiny tots to cause themselves possible harm or even death. There are much too many serious accidents.
We must never leave any medicine within a child's reach. After giving or taking any medicine, lock it up safely in a special cabinet. If you must keep household bleaches and other harmful household products under the sink, make the doors which enclose them impossible to open.
YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

J. E. STEPHENSON

20-Year Hill Resident Dies In His 63rd Year

A quiet man but a good citizen who had many friends both young and old, James Elmer Stephenson, 96 Church Street South, passed away in York Central Hospital May 15.

Although he had been in poor health for the past 20 years, Mr. Stephenson had served for several years as a crossing guard at the corner of Lorne Avenue and Church Streets where his young charges came to know and love him. His final illness was brief.

Born in Vaughan Township, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stephenson, Jim was in his 63rd year. Before moving to Richmond Hill two decades ago, he farmed on Bathurst Street.

Mr. Stephenson is survived by his wife, the former Dorothy Bone; two sisters, Ethel (Mrs. R. Monkman) and Laura (Mrs. A. Joyce); and a brother, Ross, who was predeceased by his parents, two brothers and a sister. Rev. C. G. Higginson of Richmond Hill United Church, of which Mr. Stephenson was a member, officiated at the funeral service held May 17 at the Pipher Funeral Home. Interment followed in Holy Trinity Churchyard, Thornhill. Pallbearers were his brothers, Ross, and five nephews, Carl and Ed Stephenson, Norman and Nelson Bone and James Monkman.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Matyas and family spent the Victoria Day holiday at their summer home in Collingwood.

Weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Madden, Richmond Street.

The junior and girls' auxiliary of St. Gabriel Anglican Church are holding a Centennial Rose Tea this Saturday from 2 to 4 pm at the church on Bayview and Crosby Avenues.

The girls have been very busy preparing for this event, which will feature appetizing home-baking from cookies to pies — a boon for the busy housewife faced with weekend entertaining.

YWCA

1st Annual Meeting
What does the "Y" mean to you — a camp, a sing-song around a blazing fire, games, a gym class, a hobby?

It is all this and more and the Richmond Hill and District YWCA invites you to its first annual meeting to be held in Crosby Heights Public School, May 31, 8 pm.

You will learn why the local "Y" has attracted more than 500 adult and 150 junior members, engaged in such a variety of activities — educational, physical and hobby.

There will be a display of "Y" work, a humorous skit "1966 in Review" a sing-song (you may even request an old favorite), the presentation of the Seal of Incorporation, election of the first board of directors and, to make the evening complete, a friendly cup of coffee.

Do come and bring a friend and you will learn that the "Y" is growing — with the needs of the community.

A bountiful pot luck supper was enjoyed by members of the Mary and Martha Guild of the Presbyterian Church last Wednesday evening before their regular meeting. Donations of baby clothing were received, enough for two jayettes which will be included in the WMS bale this year. The business portion of the meeting was devoted to final plans for the "Come as you are" coffee break on May 24 and for the old-fashioned strawberry festival on June 17.

Rev. James O'Neil opened the meeting with a prayer and Mrs. Pat Mills, chairman of the York Summit District Ladies' Auxiliary, installed the new slate of officers for the 1967-68 season. The new executive is composed of President Mrs. Shirley Field, Vice-President Mrs. Helen Birrell, Secretary Mrs. Veen Neilson, Treasurer Mrs. Gayle Brillinger. Grand Opening New Showroom W-P Volkswagen This Weekend

This Friday and Saturday building and opened a Volkswagen dealership.

The new building featuring indirect lighting in the showroom, has double the floor space in all departments — in fact the showroom has room for three cars where the old building could accommodate only one and the service department has three bays instead of one. The parts department has been doubled.

A full range of Volkswagen vehicles, including cars, trucks, station wagons, buses will be available from this dealership and their service personnel are specialists in repairing these vehicles, with efficiency and courtesy.

A Hair-Raising Challenge

No, it's not a double exposure of the Smith Brothers, but four Centennial-minded men of Richmond Hill, who each day add a bit more to their own personal Centennial projects. And just to show that they feel their foliage is standing out, as well as outstanding, they are issuing a challenge to all residents of the area, who think they can grow them one better.

All employees of Weyerhaeuser Canada Limited, 121 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill, they are, standing left to right, W. H. Fletcher, controller; R. A. Luber, salesman; H. C. Fidler, vice-president and general manager. Sitting is H. L. Tithecott, office manager. As for a prize for the winner, the quartet is putting up $25. That should buy a lot of razor blades.

A duplicate bridge night will be held May 31 at North York YMCA. Ken Murray will instruct. The cost is $1 per person and refreshments will be served.

At a meeting of the CWL of St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church held Tuesday evening, plans were finalized for the afternoon tea being held June 11 from 2 to 5 pm at the home of Mrs. Roy Lund, Gamble Sideroad.

Mrs. P. Dollery, 218 Lennox Avenue, leaves by air on Sunday next for Calgary to visit her daughter and son-in-law Lynn and Cecil Kerr, and grandsons, Robert, Trevor, David and Graham.

Although this is Mrs. Dollery's fourth trip to Calgary she has yet to make the acquaintance of her youngest grandson, who is nine months old.

"After my Vicki Jenkinson course . . . Everybody said I looked 10 years younger."
No wonder. My Vicki Jenkinson Self-Development Course taught me how to use those lovely creams that make the wrinkles run and hide. How to wear my hair so that it flatters me and makes me look younger. And how the proper diet and exercises keep my figure trim and attractive. Even about clothes that really make me look good. Because I look younger, I feel younger.
You, too, can look younger, more attractive and get more fun out of life . . . by seeing about a Vicki Jenkinson Self-Development or Modelling Course. You'll find the people friendly, courteous and so helpful. I know. They helped me. And oh, I'm so glad they did. Afternoon, evening and Saturday classes now forming. The rates are reasonable, so call today.
