Many guests attended the barbecue and swimming party held on Saturday evening for Dwight Powell, who celebrated his 21st birthday on Monday.

Dwight, a graduate of Richmond Hill High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Powell, RR 1, Richmond Hill.

A display of old fashioned carriages, a sale of bulbs and handcraft items, and the modeling of the Centennial coin dress (which weighs 15 lbs. and is insured for $10,000) will be the highlights of the Carriage Collection being held September 21 by the York Central Hospital Auxiliary at Tintern Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Graham.

The proceeds from this event go towards essential equipment to insure the smooth running of the hospital and the auxiliary already have an impressive list of donations to their credit.

Tickets at $1.50 are already available and may be obtained from any auxiliary member.

Mrs. I. F. Allan and daughter, Barbara Anne of 152 Libby Blvd. returned last week from a two month trip to Scotland and England visiting relatives.

Casting has been completed for Pool's Paradise which opens September 29 at the Curtain Club Theatre.

Mary Monks and Dennis Stainer head the cast, with Joan Harold, Kay Turner, Trevor Stanley, Alan Wells and Gerry Crack in the supporting roles.

The play, a riotous English comedy, is being directed by Ron Solloway with set design by Kingsley Owen, who received many plaudits for his set and portrayal of Emile in the club's May production — The Egg.

A delightful supper party was given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier, Don Head Farms, in honor of Miss Robin Anderson and John Mason, whose engagement has recently been announced.

The guests, Richmond Hill friends and relatives of the young couple, mingled on the lawn and gardens overlooking the lake.

The tables were gay with masses of yellow and white daisies, corn flowers and lilies and refreshments were served by the Misses Virginia Redelmeier, Nicola Douglas-Crampton and Edna Anderson and Masters Ted and Tommy Redelmeier.

Robin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson and her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Mason of Oakville.

Institute Director Douglas B. Andrew, said the three-day course is designed to help dealership sales management personnel improve sales management techniques, co-ordinate advertising with sales promotion and develop programs to meet their objectives.

Word has been received from Oakland, California, by Mr. and Mrs. D. Higgins, Harding Blvd., that their daughter, Mrs. J. R. J. Rangel (Suzanne) has given birth to a baby boy, Gregory David Vincent, on July 19.

Her husband, Lt. Commander Rangel RCN, who speaks Japanese fluently having been born and raised in Japan, was on an assignment as official aide and interpreter to the admiral of the Japanese Navy while they were visiting Victoria, BC, and was at sea at the time of the birth.

However the news was conveyed to him by radio, and through the courtesy of the Japanese Navy, he was taken ashore, where he was able to phone his wife, and hear first hand information of his son and heir.

Since living in California, Suzanne and her husband, on exchange with the U.S. Navy and the only Canadian officer on the base) have made many friends in Oakland, and in June, Suzanne was the guest of honor at a shower given by Mrs. M. Meilandt, wife of a U.S. navy captain. The party was attended by 20 wives of navy personnel, and Mrs. John Copeman, who, with her husband, Dr. Copeman, spent several years in Richmond Hill, where he was on the staff of York Central Hospital.

Entertaining for Miss Sharon Craigie prior to her marriage to David Osmond on Saturday at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church were Mrs. I. F. Hillaby and Mrs. G. R. Carmichael, a miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Blake Noon and Miss Gail Methe, a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Sid Hunt.

Mrs. R. J. Craigie entertained at a trossseau tea for her daughter on Sunday. Pouring tea were Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. G. W. Keffer, Mrs. W. Paterson, Mrs. Scott Ferguson, Mrs. Broderick, Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mrs. D. Parker, Mrs. Tuff, Mrs. J. Allan and Miss H. Baker.

Serving were Mrs. Earl Orser, Mrs. Pete Osmond, Miss Marilyn Baker, Miss Heather Craigie, Miss Marebeth Parker and Miss Cynthia Craigie.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Stanley Osmond are entertaining after the wedding rehearsal on Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Craigie following the reception on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bowerman, 83 Sussex Avenue, returned on the weekend from a holiday trip to the West Coast.

On the way there, they were involved in the head-on crash of a freight train with the CPR Canadian, which delayed their trip to the extent that the train was held up in Calgary and they had the opportunity of viewing the Stampede hijinks in the city while waiting for their train to continue on to Vancouver.

They escaped injury in the accident, and reported a very good holiday with excellent weather for the full time of their stay.

Wendy Thatcher left for Fredericton last week where she is now in rehearsal for Billy Liar being presented next week at The Playhouse.

Wendy, a former student of Langstaff Secondary School, played the role of Cyrene in Rattle Of A Simple Man, presented last season at the Curtain Club Theatre.

Miss Beverley Bellis has been feted at many parties prior to her marriage this Saturday to Frank Le Gault at St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Shower hostesses were Miss Sandy Snook and Miss Carol Emberley, kitchen, Mrs. Mona Robertson, cup and saucer and linen; Mrs. Douglas Dewsbury, miscellaneous, and Miss Lorna Farquharson and Miss Carol Nowell, kitchen.

A tea and presentation of a silver chafing dish was held by the office staff of the Richmond Hill Public School Board, where Miss Bellis has been employed for the past year.

On Saturday afternoon and evening Mrs. Douglas Bellis of Paliser Crescent entertained for her daughter at a trossseau tea. Pouring were the Matron of Honor Miss Nowell, Bridesmaids Miss Janice James, Miss Farquharson and Mrs. Dewsbury and the bride's cousin, Miss Wendy James.

On their return from a honeymoon in Pennsylvania the young couple will be residing in Cooksville.

Everybody Loves A Parade

This is Richmond Hill's year for parades. Not to be outdone by a group of children on North Taylor Mills Drive decided to organize their own parade. They spent several days in making costumes, then helped apply each other's makeup and baby's diaper was pressed into service as a banner which bore the words North Taylor Mills Centennial Parade.

The eight youngsters paraded from 325 North Taylor Mills Drive to the Skopit Parkette and back again July 13 as their personal contribution to the celebration of Canada's Centennial.

As in two previous parades in the Hill this summer, rain fell but failed to dampen the participants' spirits.

Medicines And Heat Are Usually Incompatible

Certain medicines require special storage instructions. Please read the labels for information about how to protect potency. Anything which destroys, changes, or lowers the potency of a medicine is incompatible with that medicine.

With very few exceptions, excessive heat causes chemical and physical reactions which often results in drug decomposition or a complete change in the character of the drug. Radiators, stoves and hot-air vents should never be near medicines. They can damage them overnight.

Local Horticulturists Winners In 1967 Provincial Competitions

The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society is very proud of its members and happy to announce the winners of the various competitions, sponsored by the Ontario Horticultural Association, and judged at its annual convention at the University of Guelph recently.

Mrs. Jack Rummy, won second prize for her "trillium design" brooch, which is also being considered along with other lapel pins and brooches, for final choice by the awards committee of the association, to use for special purposes.

A framed picture made with dried plant material, won fourth prize for Mrs. Rummy, and according to the judges, could have won first place, if the framing had been quieter in color, as the design was excellent.

R. D. Little was most successful with his entries in the color photography contest, which adds to his long list of awards in this field.

Due credit goes to Miss Gladys McLatchy for the monthly bulletin, sent to each member prior to meetings, this won first prize for its informative, chatty and witty contents.

The Centennial year book, published by the society, won a special award in the non-advertising class. This book was compiled by a number of exhibitors and directors of the society.

Stan Ransom Jr., also learned his trade from his father and worked with him for several years. When Stan Senior passed away in January 1959, Stan Junior took over the business and continued to operate it until recently. He has now joined the sales staff of R. D. Little Ford.

The original barber's chair and the pigeonholes which in years gone past held the shaving mugs for individual patrons are still treasured by "Young Stan" and form a link with the days when Richmond Hill was a young village.
