The many friends made by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith during their five months' visit to Canada accepted an invitation to an "open house" at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Thomas Broadhurst September 10, to say farewell. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Broadhurst's parents, arrived in Richmond Hill in April and have enjoyed seeing much of the countryside, meeting Canadians and joining in Centennial events. Word has been received that they had a wonderful trip home to Northfield, Birmingham, England, by BOAC jet, September 16, to bring a most enjoyable holiday to an end.

Fifty-five days of vacationing in Canada, the United States and Mexico were enjoyed this summer by Miss Patsy McCarville of 217 Alsace Road. Miss McCarville was a member of a group of over 100 who travelled with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Toogood of Unionville, proprietors of the Alberta Recreational Society on a 9,000 mile trip. They travelled and slept on specially constructed buses and visited Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary, Banff, Jasper, Vancouver, Oregon Caves, Crater Lake, Redwood Forest, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Grand Canyon, Grand Tetons, Yellowstone, Mt. Rushmore and Chicago, as they went from the prairies to the mountains, from the forests to the desert, from the redwoods to the canyons. They enjoyed the Calgary Stampede, a ride in a snowmobile on the Columbia Icefields, chair lifts, Disneyland and Tijuana. They swam in hot springs and the Pacific, went hiking and horseback riding, and had a wonderful holiday. Miss McCarville is employed at the Odeon Cinema in Richmond Hill.

PETS NEED LOVE AND PROTECTION

Only persons who will take good care of pets should own them. Children must be taught not to tease or abuse them. Proper grooming, feeding, exercise, attention, discipline, and medical care are "musts". Only an experienced adult should attempt to break up a dog or animal fight.

There are some effective and safe remedies and health-aids for pets which we will be glad to explain to you. But, just as you should consult a physician when ailments or discomforts persist, it is important that a veterinarian be consulted whenever your pets have returning symptoms of a previous problem.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

Mr. and Mrs. William Gow and children Pat and Brenda, Kenvale Court and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hogg, Janice, Susan and Michael, Traybort Drive, have recently returned from holidaying at the Sheraton Sandcastle Motor Inn at Lido Beach, Sarasota, Florida. This was the fifth year that the Gow family have vacationed here: on their first visit they met several families whose husbands worked for the Caterpillar Tractor Company plant in Peoria and so enjoyed this congenial group, they decided to schedule their vacation the following year to coincide with their arrival. The group has now snowballed from 40 to 80, steadily increasing each year, as regular visitors take friends along to introduce them to the fun and frolic of a Florida vacation. This was the initial visit for the Hogg family, who plan to return next year. During their stay they took part in a Sandcaterpillar Day and joined over 50 guests on the beach for a sand modelling contest. The day was climaxed with an authentic Hawaiian luau feast, during which the prize winners, among them Mr. and Mrs. Gow and family, were presented with a plaque as a recognition of their sand sculpting ability.

Senior Citizens
The local Senior Citizens' Club held their first meeting of the new season on September 12 in the Christian education building. The attendance was comparatively small — 77 in all, including two visitors and three new members. Mrs. E. W. Kelp and Mr. and Mrs. A. Palmer. President Mrs. E. Burnie attended and Vice-President A. Patten led the singing of the national anthem. The minutes of the last meeting were read and passed, and unfinished business and future activities discussed. A nomination committee was selected for the coming year and agreeing to serve were Mrs. J. Dewsbury, Mrs. W. Low, H. Cook, R. Hawkins and W. Andrews. The aforementioned held the initial meeting September 18 at the home of Mrs. Dewsbury. Mr. Patten gave a short talk on his attendance at the Senior Citizens' National Convention held in Hamilton during the month of August. The full report of this convention may be seen on the club notice board. Mrs. Burnie asked members how they had enjoyed their bus and boat trip to Centre Island on September 7 and judging from the response it must have been a very successful outing, many of the members remarking on the wonderful changes that had taken place over the past two or three years. Entertainment was provided by Fred Rose who sang old English comic songs and Mrs. Kay Seymour who provided the music for the afternoon. Tea was served by Mrs. B. Cook and her committee. The executive would like to see a larger turnout of members at the next meeting on October 11, when the election of officers will take place.

Enjoy a really good laugh? If so, plan to see one of the zaniest English comedies ever written, Pools Paradise, which opens this Friday at the Curian Club. It's a merry romp from beginning to end, with the Rev. Lionel Toop's country vicarage at Merton-cum-Middlewick being the locale for a sequence of hilarious situations which develop when Lionel's wife, Penelope, unwittingly dabbles in a football pool with the help of the maid, Ida, and Ida's boyfriend, Willie Briggs. There are already several sold-out performances but a limited number of tickets are available for this Friday and Saturday and may be obtained by calling 884-7660.

The Cubs will also sell Christmas cards again this year. A penny auction is to be held November 14 at the regular meeting and each member is asked to bring a new item this year, as well as an unwanted household article. The meeting closed and refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Dunlop, Mrs. M. Hagbord and Mrs. B. McIntosh. The next meeting will be held October 17.

Blackburn and the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. H. Hill and Mrs. L. Walker. Adrian, journeyed to after his arrival here, soon to British Columbia and Alaska than many young Canadians. He spent a week at Ottawa, and visited Expo on two occasions, staying for a week the second time enjoying performances of the Vienna State Opera, and the Shaw Festival and Manitoba Theatre Centre's presentation of Major Barbara. He saw the Stratford Theatre Production of the Merry Wives of Windsor and toured Niagara Falls, completing his sightseeing from the top of the observation tower. He spent a week in a cottage on the coast of Maine and toured New Hampshire, Vermont, Mass., Mount Washington and went sightseeing in Boston. He also visited New York City where he saw the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building and Rockefeller Centre. Adrian had the honor to meet John Diefenbaker and Robert Stanfield and the group of men who were seeking the leadership of the Conservative party, also Dr. Emlin Davies and Harold Spooner. When the doors of Cambridge University swing open next week Adrian will be there, books in hand, trying to settle down but he says he expects to spend a lot of time telling his classmates about his wonderful summer. Who knows? It may account for a stream of young people making plans to visit Canada next summer to see this beautiful country for themselves.

Mrs. R. J. Ball, guest speaker for the September 19 meeting of St. Matthew's U.C.W., gave a most interesting and informative talk on their own allocation. Articles for the bazaar were displayed including a boutique work by Donna Bales and knitted articles by Grace Walters. The Evening Unit catered for the lunch and the devotional was led by Morning Unit No. 1. Avoid the usual last minute Christmas rush and plan to attend the U.C.W. bazaar — Centennial Shoppers Parade — being held November 11 at the church. It was "Richmond Hill Day" September 9 in Chelmsford, Essex, England. That day John T. Lyon, a former resident of Eimdale Court, was married to Jennifer Jakeman. John is with the OPP at Moosonee and his bride is a nurse in the hospital there. Best man was Brian Tinker, and among the guests besides Mrs. Tinker (former Jill Dixon) were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fletcher and daughter Bette, former residents of Richmond Street. The Fletchers returned to England last year after living in Canada for more than 15 years and are living in Exeter, Devon. Bette is attending St. Margaret's School for Girls in Exeter, a private school associated with the Church of England.

The 1967-8 season at the Art Gallery of Ontario opened on Friday evening with an Ontario Centennial Art Exhibition and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. H. Redelmeier of Don Head Farms were among the many guests who attended and enjoyed the preview of the contemporary collection of paintings and sculpture (all created within the last five years) by 92 Ontario and Quebec artists. Mr. and Mrs. Redelmeier then attended an after-the-opening get-together of the artists held at Ed's Warehouse, where the Gay 90's Room was updated suddenly to the tune of the Gay 60's, and an adjacent room for dancing, in scintillating silver and psychedelic mood, had been prepared by artist Michael Hayden and his associates.

The Richmond Hill U.C.W. general meeting will be held October 2 at the church and will take the form of a pot luck supper. Reports will be heard from the southwestern conference for the United Church Women. As chairman of the York Presbytery, Pastoral Relations Committee, he then presided at the congregation meeting held following the morning's service. Don't miss Autumn Modes for Town and Country being presented on Thursday next (October 5) by St. Mary Immaculate CWL at Bayview Secondary School. The St. David's Society opened their 1967-68 season on September 20 with an enjoyable concert, in which several local residents participated. Judith Thomas sang two verses of All Through The Night, one in English and one in Welsh. Christine Burnett gave a piano solo, Melanie Thomas spoke on "The Summit", well known local contralto Miss Joan Hall, sang three songs of the Hill Folk arranged by John Jacob Niles. Janice Goodman displayed the different tones, jazz, twist and modern. Lona and Bob Richardson played a piano duet and Miss Hall completed the program with an aria from Carmen. Clive Mason is president of the society and Ieuan Thomas of Boisdale Avenue, chairman of the entertainment committee. October is drawing near and one of the more pleasant things about it is the resumption of children's film shows. This is the eighth season for the films which are arranged by a group of interested parents assisted by the Library Club of Richmond Hill High School. The films shown are made by the Children's Film Foundation and have children as leading characters. They are suited to children between the ages of 7-13. Parents are always welcome (without any admission charge) and any who would like to help, such as selling tickets etc., are asked to telephone 884-1355. This is not a money making event, so the price has been kept as low as possible. Tickets are 30 cents single and $1.50 for a season ticket (7 showings). There is a definite advantage in buying the season ticket. It means a saving of 60 cents and also teaches young children to plan their weekend entertainment, as the dates and time are shown on each ticket. Tickets are already on sale and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Reva Acton at 884-1085.

Canada's History Came Alive

Interesting and little-known historical facts about Canada and the women involved in its development held the interest of the capacity crowd at Richmond Hill United Church September 14. Featured was "Portraits of the Past" a group of 39 women's costumes dating from the visits of early explorers to the early 1900's. Included were replicas of dresses worn by Indian maidens, Mrs. John Graves Simcoe and Laura Secord, as well as of Queen Victoria's wedding gown. The display was designed and created by the Ontario Centennial Planning Branch has toured the province during the past year and a half and played to full houses everywhere. Local women modelled the gowns. In the picture above Equestrian Joni Wrightson chats with Lady Champlain (Mabel Fenwick) in an authentic setting.

During the summer he was joined for a month by his wife, Shirley, and children, Robert and Linda, who enjoyed the many tourist attractions of the Stampede city and car trips to Banff, Lake Louise and British Columbia. Mrs. Ross Breuls and sons Clark and Billy, Leventdale Road, have recently returned from a month's holiday in Scotland. Staying with her father, Mr. John Moore, at his home in Coarbridge, they enjoyed several day trips including visits to Glasgow, Edinburgh Castle and the zoo, the impressive Forth Road Bridge (opened in August, 1964), Burns' cottage in Ayrshire, the Trossachs, and a very scenic bus tour to Gairlochhead. Louise will be on a striker frame for the next six weeks and will eventually be moved to St. John's Convalescent Hospital. Visitors, other than family, are not allowed for at least a week, but her many friends and office associates at Ronalds Federated (where she has been employed for the past year and a half) send their best wishes and hope to see her in the very near future.
