"The Liberal" is always willing to publish items regarding people and events contributed by its readers in Maple, Concord and Edgeley districts. In Maple, please phone Mrs. Janet Myers, 832-1423; in Edgeley and Concord, Mrs. Margaret McLean, 884-1105.

going PLACES meeting PEOPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Urquhart and family of Detroit spent last weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Urquhart Sr., Oldfield Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watson and family, Wendy, Greg and Nancy, Church Street, are moving from Maple to a new home in Lorne Park at the end of November.

Eleven-year-old Wendy was honored at a surprise farewell party given for her by Sharon Toy, Welton Street last Saturday night. Several of Wendy's girl friends attended and the group enjoyed an evening of bowling and flower making.

All the kindergarten classes at Joseph Gibson School went by bus November 22 to the Christmas Fairyland at the CNE grounds. This outing was thoroughly enjoyed by all the children. Attending with them were their teachers and several volunteer mothers.

Freda Bourke, Yvonne Brown and Janet Watson were part of the winning King City Badminton team that defeated the Aurora Club 13-11 November 23.

Winners of the eucure held in the Masonic Hall, November 21 were ladies, Mrs. Ethel Kerswell, Mrs. Edna White and Mrs. Ada Green. Mrs. Nan Walton won a bonus prize; men, W. H. Noble, Alec Bishop and M. B. O'Neill.

This eucure was quite well attended and this has encouraged the organizers to continue holding them on a regular basis. The next one will not be held until after Christmas.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Louise Edmondson, Jane Street on the death of her father H. Greer of Lucknow, last week.

Best wishes are sent to Mrs. W. Hoddinott, Jane Street who is a patient at York Central Hospital.

Lions Dance
This Friday night (December 1) the Maple Lions are holding a dance in the community hall to which everyone is invited. Bill Watson, popular local disc jockey will spin the records. The evening gets underway at 9 pm and admission is $3.50 per couple. Refreshments will be served. Tickets may be obtained from any Lion member or at the door.

School News

Maple Home and School Association is sponsoring a concert at the Gibson School, December 15. This will be by the junior school children only. George Bailey Senior School will hold their concert some time in April. An admission of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children will be charged.

Grade Mothers

Volunteer grade mothers are solicited every year from among the parents to help each classroom teacher with any outings, school visits etc. that the teacher may plan.

Scout News

The Scouts and Cubs are once again selling Christmas trees and Christmas cakes as fund raising projects. The boys are going door to door with their cakes. The trees will be sold at the Maple plaza, a little closer to Christmas.

A reunion of all the boys who attended last year's SCOPE trip to the United States is being planned for mid-January. The reunion for Humber Seneca District will be held in Maple at their parents' hall. The boys, their parents and friends will attend. Movies of the trip will be shown.

In October, 1968 a second SCOPE project is planned when the U. S. Scouts will visit this district, with Humber Seneca as host. The camp will be held at Boyd Conservation Area and at least 500 U. S. Scouts are expected to attend.

December Concert
A concert by the Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra will be held at Northview Collegiate, Willowdale, December 7 at 8:15 pm. This will be a repeat of concerts already given in Richmond Hill and Stouffville. Adult tickets are $1 and students 50 cents.

Among the selections offered will be Schubert's "Rosamunde Overture", Boyce's "Symphony No. 1", Handel's "Amarillis Suite", Bach's "Double Concerto for Violins" and a modern Canadian work by Robert Fleming called "Shadow On the Prairie". The orchestra is trying to form the women's auxiliary to help with fund raising and other activities of the orchestra. Anyone who is interested in being part of this group to help promote the local orchestra may phone President Anne Sellen, 832-1502 or write to Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra, Box Number 355, Richmond Hill.

Vaughan Twp. Natives Celebrate Diamond Wedding Anniversary

A family dinner in Toronto, on November 4, marked the diamond wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Taylor, Mrs. Taylor, the former Ella Jane Gowland, and Mr. Taylor were married on November 6, 1907, at the farm home of the bride, at Clairville, Ontario. Mrs. Taylor, one of six children of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Huggill Gowland, and Mr. Taylor, one of ten children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, have lived all of their lives in Ontario, a good part in Vaughan Township, and 56 years of their married life in Toronto, where they still reside at 392 Jane Street, and carry on independently.

Ella and Will Taylor have six children, all married; Garnet of Richmond Hill, Jack of California, Edie of Weston, Pearl of Florida, Bruce of Edmonton, and Dr. Lorne of London. They have 15 grandchildren, and 13 great grandchildren.

Through the years they have been faithful members of their church, which has been Victoria Presbyterian, in Toronto, since 1927. There, Mr. Taylor served as superintendent of the Sunday school and Mrs. Taylor was pianist and Sunday school teacher for many years. They were both members of the "Queen City True Blue Lodge No. 376," and each served two year terms as worshipful master and worshipful mistress, respectively.

Helping to celebrate this grand occasion were 60 guests, including their maid of honor, of sixty years ago, Mrs. Ruby Coulter, Toronto, sister of the groom, and their guests, Mr. Laurie McDonald, cousin of the groom.

During the evening, congratulatory messages were read from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, Prime Minister Lester Pearson, Premier John Robarts, and Mayor William Dennison.

NEWMARKET: The local Red Cross were asked to collect 10 pints of RH Neg "A" blood for use in heart surgery at the Hospital for Sick Children at its recent blood donor clinic.

When the party's over a Cascade 40 electric water heater can have its finest hour
Seven-year-old socialites have a way of leaving more than a gift at a party; ever been stuck with a tutti-frutti-topped tablecloth? These are the times a Cascade 40 can really win you over. It provides all the hot water you need to suds up a strawberry-speckled party dress, its chocolate-cheeked owner, and the pile of party paraphernalia you'll be left with.
A Cascade 40 electric water heater may not make the party... but it could save the day. For more information, ask your Hydro.
