Why The Christian Science Monitor recommends you read your local newspaper

Your local newspaper is a wide-range newspaper with many features. Its emphasis is on local news. It also reports the major national and international news.

THE MONITOR COMPLEMENTS YOUR LOCAL PAPER
We specialize in analyzing and interpreting the important national and international news. Our intention is to bring the news into sharper focus. The Monitor has a world-wide staff of correspondents—some of them rank among the world's finest. And the Monitor's incisive, provocative editorials are followed just as closely by the men on Capitol Hill as they are by the intelligent, concerned adult on Main Street.

WHY YOU SHOULD TRY THE MONITOR
You probably know the Monitor's professional reputation as one of the world's finest newspapers. Try the Monitor; see how it will take you above the average newspaper reader. Just fill out the coupon below.

Rambling Around

three years ago by Bill Babcock. Mr. Babcock is Richmond Hill's physical education teacher and staff advisor to the club.

The first canoe trip was made a year ago last spring. Mr. Babcock tested them at Camp Richildaca as to swimming ability and physical fitness. The campers brought their own food and prepared it themselves.

Elaine says the program helps to create awareness and appreciation for the outdoors. It also gives practical instruction of how to survive in it.

Since September, members of the club have enjoyed hiking along the Bruce Trail. In October, there was an orientation competition. The course was set up across country with obstacles and wooded areas to help create confusion. In order to get their bearings and find their way around, members had to rely on map and compass.

Another interesting event will be a series of ski days in January.

THE LANGUAGE COMMENTATOR
Dennis Anderson, president of Langstaff's student council said exams really put a crimp in the news situation, but he expects the houses of Murch, Pitman, Ellis and Quinn to remedy the situation after Christmas. He reports that the jamboree volleyball team won the area championship this year. Also that the slave auction held December 12, was successful. The proceeds of the auction went to fill the coffers of the student council.

Langstaff's Ski Club under staff advisor Kel Tonner is planning a weekend at a youth hostel in Collingwood, January 26.

THE THORNHILL TRANSMITTER
Liz Bick, editor of "The Thorn", the "blab" sheet for Thornhill Secondary School says, "We want everyone to know what is going on in the school." Co-editor is Gail Fox.

The first issue is out and circulating. Patronize The Thorn, students, only 10c — not much when you consider the work of getting it together. Read Leslie Sautman on club news, Doug Bolton and Pam Kelson on boys' and girls' sports, Diane Schilf on the social scene. Publicity gal is Nancy Proulx.

Charlie Zinkan, president of the BOSS says the school Centennial project is to supply a large attractive showcase for the foyer. In the future, the school trophies will be shown to the best advantage.

The little "U" Christmas drive is on and that's the word from Bonnie Parrott. The purpose is to raise money for charitable work for the area of Thornhill and sometimes farther afield.

Last year, the Thornhill Branch of the cancer society, the Ontario Society for Crippled Children and the muscular dystrophy association were among the recipients of little "U" generosity.

Bonnie says the whole school is involved. Each grade is working like all-get-out because it's really a competition to see who rates the little "U" plaque. Methods of raising money are ingenious and unique but some of the money will come from "Open House" and Christmas carolling.

The little "U" was formed in 1962. Before that the classes operated independently and gave to United Appeal.

THE WOODBRIDGE INTERPRETER
Kay Howick announces the first year of a model United Nations in Woodbridge High. President is Stan Watson and staff advisor is Miss Frances Peake.

Says Kay, "Every second Sunday, we go to Victoria Square, U of T. We debate on international problems, for example disarmament or food problems. Woodbridge represents Uganda in the general assembly."

THE BAYVIEW BROADCASTER
Jeff Paris reports that the student council will again be supplying paper and ribbons to Co-ordinated Welfare.

Sad news about Bayview's brave attempt to have a political club. Jim Albright says it has become inactive.

The school's Centennial project is an excellent one. After Christmas, it will be a pleasure to walk through the hall of Bayview Secondary. Seven paintings by Canadians will adorn the walls. And you know the old saying, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Everybody who knows Cathy Wilson will miss her very much. Cathy expects to be in hospital for three months, following spinal surgery. She plans however, to continue her weekly column while convalescing.

Everyone here is rooting for you Cathy! And there's a lot of fine comments about your column in "The Liberal." Keep plugging!

Don Deacon Reports
For example, the Village of Markham is hesitating, naturally, to approve the connection of water and sewage services to the new school proposed by TSA No. 2 of Markham Township if this new connection, equivalent to 75 homes, will inhibit the future development within the village boundaries.

COMMUTER SERVICES
I was dismayed to find that no feasibility study on the Go Transit service has been undertaken because it requires cabinet direction. The cabinet is still considering a report of the Metropolitan Toronto Area Transportation Study Group. I have handed out several hundred questionnaires concerning the interest of residents in a north-south commuter service. To my surprise very few of these questionnaires have been returned and it would indicate that either the residents of the area are less interested in commuter service than they had indicated to me during the election campaign or that they have forgotten to complete and return the forms.

GARBAGE DISPOSAL
I was impressed to learn at the recent Pollution Control Conference sponsored by the OWRC at the Inn On the Park that extensive sanitary land-fill programmes had been conducted along fresh water lake fronts without endangering the water supply of the cities involved. During the past week an article in one of the Toronto dailies describes the ambitious scheme of the Metro Planning Board for a 50 mile long waterfront development.

Such a scheme would only be feasible within the next few years if the OWRC approves of the use of sanitary land-fill or in less polite terms garbage disposal in the lake. To protect the lake from contamination dikes are built and the water is pumped out. By laying tiles underneath the area in which the garbage is dumped water seepage can be pumped into control any lake pollution. If the OWRC and the Metro Works Department are prepared to vigorously investigate such a programme it is quite possible that our residents will be able to forget the threat of garbage dumping by Metro in our area and that Metro residents will be able to enjoy a wonderful waterfront development in the not too distant future.

I am interested in hearing your views on the above or other matters of concern to our riding. Only in this way can I properly represent you at Queen's Park. You can write me at Box 32, Richmond Hill, or phone me at 365-5683.

It is costing somebody money every day

A gang of hoodlums splattered paint smears over the Jones house on North Main Street only a week after professional painters had completely finished the house.

The pilot of a light, private plane thought he was in the clear when he was flying over the house.

Avoid the penalty of TOO-LITTLE INSURANCE

Your Insurance Protection is inadequate if it has not kept pace with today's hazards which you read about every day in your newspaper. Rising costs, new purchases and home improvements also require that you protect your financial security with adequate insurance coverage. Consult your Economical Agent for a tailor-made Insurance program to fit your needs.
