Vaughan Bd. Acquires Experienced Staff As Teacher Replacements

Five experienced and well-qualified teachers have been placed on contract by Vaughan Township Public School Board, effective January 1, 1968, it was reported at the board's December 14 meeting.
The appointments are:
Miss Diana Katzman, at present on the supply staff of the township's schools;
Robert Demish, at present on the staff of the Blind River Senior Public School;
Harry Cotts, at present teaching on program 5 at Northwest Secondary School, Stratford, (program 5 is the adult upgrading program conducted by the Department of Education for the Department of Labour);
Aaron Owen, B.A. B.Ed., formerly a teacher in Nigeria and at present a member of the supply staff for Toronto Public Schools; and Mrs. Diane Hogan, B.Sc., formerly on the staff of Hopkins Public Schools (Minneapolis, Minnesota), part time.

Resignations were received from three teachers and a fourth teacher who had resigned previously. Mrs. Keran Crichton, of the staff of Charles Howitt School, has asked that her resignation be withdrawn. Her request was granted. The three, who will be leaving the system at Christmas are: Mrs. Simone Kostal, part-time teacher of Oral French at Mackenzie Senior School, Kleinburg; Mrs. Carolyn Vining, principal's supply at Langstaff and Powell Road School and Norman Sipton, teacher of the grade 5 class at Concord School. The resignations were accepted with regret.

Reports
The first formal report to parents for this year was sent home the first week in December. Parent-teacher interviews have been arranged where the staff deemed them advisable or on request of parents.
The administrative staff indicated it would be pleased to learn of parents' reaction to the new report forms.

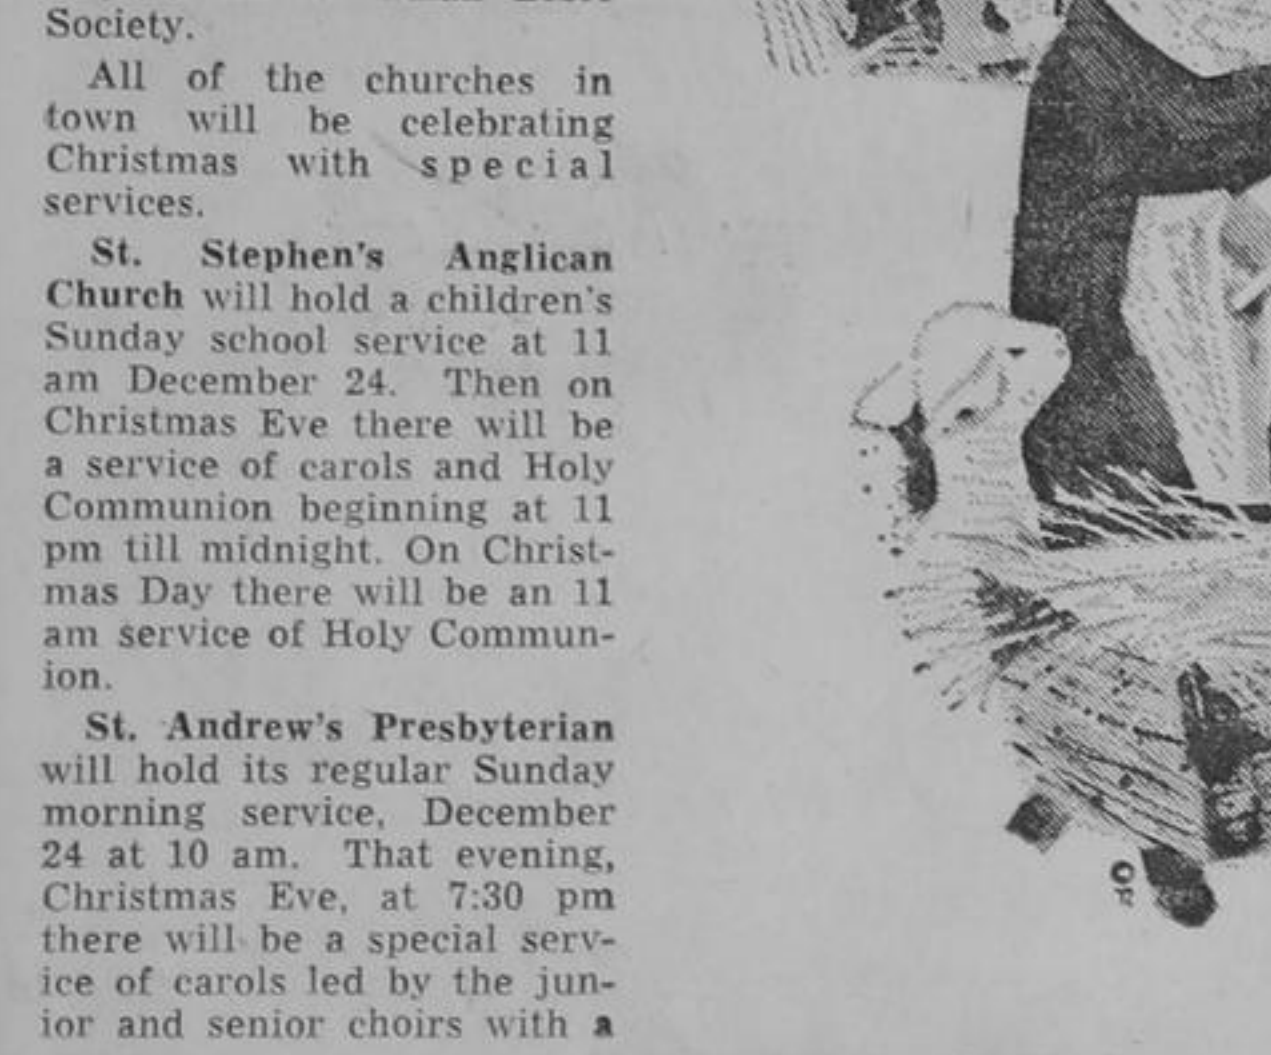

January 20 is the day all village residents are asked to set aside for a full day of minor hockey at its best in Double-Rinks Arena.
The 50 cents admission guarantees lots of excitement and also much needed financial support for the Maple League.

WI
An enjoyable evening for the members of the Maple WI took place December 15 at the home of Mrs. J. Corkill. The roll call was responded to by the giving of a gift from each member for shut-ins, and also naming the commercial on TV or radio that was either a favorite or the most disliked.
Mrs. N. Robson introduced the speaker, Mrs. R. French, from the Bell Telephone Company who showed an interesting film, "The Changing Years". This showed changes spanning the years 1900-67. The era

meeting PEOPLE

A warm welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kinnear and family, Kathy 11 and Ken, 8, who are new residents on Church Street, former home of the Bob Watsons. The Kinnear family moved from Barrie to Thornhill, four months ago and then to Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Diceman are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary December 26 with an open house, to which all friends and neighbors are invited. They have asked that no gifts be sent.

Freda Bourke, Yvonne Brown and Janet Watson, playing for the King City Badminton Club in a North York League match against Brampton, aided the club's victory, December 14, when King beat Brampton 16-8.

Of interest to local residents is the December 23 CBC TV Christmas program "This Land Is Ours" to be shown at 6 p.m. Included will be some footage taken three years ago about Zion Lutheran Church. At that time the CBC did a program called "Christmas In The Country" which showed Christmas as celebrated at Zion Lutheran, parts of that film will be included in this Saturday's show.

John Cringan, Keele Street South is home for the holidays from the University of Newfoundland where he is in the pre-med course.

Congratulations to Helen and Bruce Buchanan, Willowdale, on the birth of their son, Daniel Kent, December 12 at York Central Hospital. Daniel weighed 7 lbs. 3 ozs. and is the first grandson of Maple residents Jim and Rae Spencer.

UCW
The ladies of Maple United Church enjoyed a pot luck supper December 12 at the church. Following the delicious meal of casserole and salads the group was entertained by a quartet consisting of Mrs. N. Boogers, Mrs. W. Banks, Mrs. S. Valentini and Mrs. R. McIntyre singing a selection of Christmas Carols.

Several games followed, including one in which Mrs. G. Darker appeared dressed in 30 unrelated articles of clothing, and after a few minutes on view, withdrew again and the ladies had to recall as many of the items of apparel as they could.
Mrs. R. Smart then read from the scriptures and Mrs. B. Davis read a story on the theme of candles and light. The evening closed with the singing of "O Little Town of Bethlehem".

Woodbridge Hydro Manager Roy Blake Dies Suddenly At Age 60

Members of Ontario Hydro's staff and hundreds of rural customers in Woodbridge area were shocked to learn of the sudden death of Gordon Roy Blake, 60, manager of the commission's Woodbridge area, who passed away at home on Wednesday morning, December 13.
Private funeral services for Mr. Blake, who had been associated with Woodbridge area for over 38 years and was manager for nearly eight years, were held on December 15.

A native of Woodbridge, Roy Blake had attended the local public school and continuation school. Prior to joining Ontario Hydro in January 1929, Mr. Blake was employed as a chief clerk with R. T. Wallace, general merchant in Woodbridge.
Mr. Blake served his nearly 39 years with Ontario Hydro as a member of the Woodbridge staff and was widely known throughout the entire district, which embraces some 300 square miles.

His first position on the Woodbridge staff was as stores and line clerk. Then in 1940 he became a meter reader. The following year he was appointed chief clerk and did customer promotional work. Mr. Blake earned a fine reputation for his excellent human relations and was universally well liked by the whole staff and by the customers with whom he dealt.

Seen above are just four of the more than 50 talented Maple youngsters who took part in the December 15 Talent Night at Joseph Gibson Junior School, sponsored by the home and school association.

Talent Night Draws Crowd

Last Friday evening over 250 parents and friends crowded into the auditorium of Joseph Gibson Junior School to hear the annual Talent Night Concert by the students, sponsored by the home and school.
Association President Mrs. Lois Anderson welcomed the audience and introduced the master of ceremonies, Principal Roy Robson. He in turn introduced the first performer, Michael Schanck who sang "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer". Linda Embury and Colleen Ray then did a dance number to the tune of "Sweet Young Thing".

Caroline Kirby and Joan Howard sang a duet, "Ten Little Ducks". This was followed by a piano solo of "Mist" by Stephen Curlew. Barbara Geddes and Jennifer Lines then sang "Silver Bells".

A dance to "Here Comes Shack" was performed by Michaelle Mulligan and Ruth Johnson and this was followed by Jane Barnden reading a story called "Johnny's Gift". Roger Mathewson sang "The Gasoline Man" followed by Norma Birkett reciting "Mice".

Graydon Moore played a banjo solo, "Silent Night", and then Sharon Carriek and Brenda Grosse sang "Three Little Fishes". A ballet dance to the tune "Edelweiss" was performed by Jo-Anne Jarvis and then a recitation, "Good King Arthur" by Candy Weese and Janice Parrot.
"A Visit To Santa" was played on the piano by Pat Noble followed by Kenny Kidd, Billy Magee and Terry McGuire singing "The Goat and The Train". Shirley White then played "Aloha Oe" on the zither.

Ken Jellison recited the Christmas Story from St. Luke and this was followed by Shan Wells, and Debbie and Lynda Cordell singing "Whistling Gypsy". Darlene Hatton and Judy Magee then danced to "Winchester Cathedral".

Lynda Moore sang "The Ship Titanic" followed by a recitation of "Whispers" by Kathy Fraser. A routine of acrobatic dancing was next by Heather Lamont, Kathy Howieson, Lori Fraser and Jennifer Lines. Bradley and Bobby Mathewson then sang "Henry The Eighth" followed by A. J. Smitheram playing "Long Long Ago" on the piano. Anne Wilmont, Debbie McKee and Mary Lou Lamont then sang "Maple Girls".

Elizabeth White recited "Book Houses" followed by Anne and April Ella singing "Where Did You Get That Hat?". Leslie Ella then sang "Rudolph The Red Nosed Reindeer".
An accordion solo "The Big Parade" was played by Marguerite Dowdall and then Nancy Lynn and Lee Myers sang "The Twelve Days Of Christmas".

Barbara Feeheley recited "Friendly Robin" followed by Beverly Geddes and Jackie Lines singing "Snow Is Falling".
Karen Riddiford singing "What Child Is This?", Bettina Mumery and Shan Wells then did a go-go dance and the closing number was the Huron Indian carol beginning "T'was In The Old St. Nicholas" and "We Moon Of Wintertime" as sung by Barbara Amos and Elaine Looze by Michaelle James and Ellis.

Edward Kyle

Edward Kyle, RR 1 Maple, lifelong resident of the Teston area, died December 8, after a lengthy illness, in York Central Hospital. He was in his 77th year, having been born at Teston November 3, 1891, the son of William and Margaret Kyle.
Mr. Kyle farmed in that area of Vaughan Township and also worked in Vaughan Township Assessment Department, transferring to the York County Assessment Department when it was created three years ago. Surviving to mourn his passing are three sons — Douglas of Brampton, Ronald of Belleville and Keith of Sudbury; one daughter — Isabel of Toronto; three brothers — Charles and Jack of Maple and Thomas of Yorkton, Saskatchewan; and one sister — Mary (Mrs. Alfred Jones) of Maple.
Mr. Kyle was a member of Teston United Church.
The funeral service was held December 11 at the Pipher Funeral Home, Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill, with Rev. John Dickenson of Aurora as officiating clergyman. Interment followed in Maple Cemetery with Wesley Lynd, Eric Lynd, Allan MacFarlane, James Jones, Pearson Jones and John Langdon acting as pallbearers.
