Pipher Funeral Home Carols, Candlelight Mark Christmas In Churches Merry Christmas

Once again Thornhill Churches have ushered in the Christmas Season with carol and candlelight services, parties and pageants.

The junior high group of Thornhill Baptist Church presented "The Christ Story" December 10 at a White Gift Service. Carl Parsons was narrator and the entire service was prepared by the young people of the church. Gifts collected at the service will be delivered to the Inner City Mission.

A carol service was held December 17 conducted by Organist Miss Carol Ward. The choir was led by Harold Williams, grandfather of Miss Ward. Mrs. R. Slin and Mrs. R. Abbey were soloists with the senior choir. The junior choir contributed two selections at the carol

A Family Christmas Service will take place December 24 at 11 am and will be conducted by Dr. Minton Johnston. The congregation will participate by singing traditional carols.

Children of the Sunday school enjoyed a party December 9 in the church hall with Santa in attendance. Each child was presented with a gift. Superintendent Lloyd Webber was in charge of the party and was assisted by volunteers from various church organizations. There will not be a service

There will be two communion services Christmas Day at 8 am and a family service at 10.30 am. Right Rev. D. D. Marsh will deliver his Christmas Greetings at the later service.

Special music was presented by the Thornhill Presbyterian Church Choir, under the direction of Walter Stothers, at the White Gift Service December 17 at 11 am. The primary department from the church school presented a Christmas pageant at the evening service.

A candlelight service, conducted by the 3rd Thornhill Guides, will take place December 24. This will be a very impressive service and an excellent way to spend Christmas Eve.

The family worship service will be held Christmas Day at 10 am when children are encouraged by Rev. Dillwyn Evans to take their favorite gift with them. Mr. Evans will be assisted by one of the young boys from the church school at the service.

Midnight mass will be held at St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church Christmas Eve. The choir will present a special program at 11.30 pm preceding the mass. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. J. MacDonald.
