Headford Community News

Correspondent Mrs. Loren Guild, RR 2, Gormley, Phone 884-3040

Beginnings are so interesting, so encouraging, so comforting if we are wise enough to remember our failures as lessons and to forget that foolish adage "Opportunity knocks but once". Opportunity knocks constantly, in fact it is the old goader that lives within us.

It is not just January 1 that begins a new year but each day as Helen Hunt Jackson reminds us: "Only a night from Old to New Only a sleep from night to morn The new is but the old come true Each sunrise sees a New Year born"

So a happy and rewarding New Year to you all each day. The December meeting of Headford UCW met in the home of Mrs. Stewart Rumble. The president welcomed the members and told a story of a Christmas Eve experienced by a missionary in China years ago.

He was in a strange village, unhappy that he would not likely get home for Christmas, and escaped from his room in the noisy verminous inn to walk in the cold clear night. While he was walking he heard sounds that made him stop and listen. Drifting out from a shop into the deserted street he heard a familiar tune, unharmonious but recognizable, Silent Night, Holy Night. To his knowledge there was no mission in that village and he knew of no missionary who had visited it before.

Without making himself known he slipped into the darkened room and stayed near the door. Seated at the table was a group of people who, finished with their singing were now listening to a little old eloquent Chinese gentleman. The old man told them that three years before he had bought a book for two cents. He didn't want it but to get rid of the man he bought it. Chuckling he reminded them that knowing him they would know that he must have his money's worth and so he read it. Twenty-eight parts it had and he read one part each night.

A book of Matthia. Because he was curious and wanted to understand it he read it the next month and for three years he had read a chapter a day. He became a believer in this man Jesus and he wanted his friends to have him for a friend and guide.

The listener was interested that the old man, an untrained but eloquent speaker used a play common to trained orators, ending his story with a personal annotation. "Those three learned men who followed the Star, who were they? They were Chinese. They came from the East. Everybody knows that China is in the East. They were learned men. Everybody knows that the men of China are learned. China is famed for her wisdom. They were students of the mysteries of the skies. The Chinese wise men have been from the beginning, learned about the wonders of the sky. We know that for every child born a new star appears. Yes we may be sure that those learned men who went to Bethlehem were Chinese." This was followed by a heartfelt plea to his friends to accept Jesus as their friend and guide.

The missionary slipped quietly out so that he would not spoil the message by intruding. The annual report read by Secretary Mrs. Rumble disclosed that the allotted Bible and missionary study had been completed. Mrs. Harry Burton read the treasurer's report. Gifts were received to be delivered to the Fred Victor Home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Charnock and their son have moved from the Allan Hoover apartment to a home in Unionville. Mrs. E. Cherry and her sister Mrs. W. Reynolds of London left December 19 by train to attend the funeral of their brother Herbert Clemence at Biggar, Saskatchewan. Older residents here will remember Mr. Clemence's frequent visits in our community.

Happy New Year to all. We are now on the threshold of another year. There are thoughts of the past year, both happy and sad. There are thoughts of the future, both wondering and confident of plans for the days ahead. If there are fearful thoughts, let us try trust; if there are gloomy thoughts, let us look for new hope. May we cross the threshold with purpose and faith, for here is a brand new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Sibley and family of Toronto had Christmas Dinner with Doug's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sibley. Many people attended the funeral of Mrs. Barry Lorimer of Toronto December 19. Mrs. Lorimer was born and raised in Gormley.

Miss Velma Brillinger left December 25, to attend the wedding of Miss Denise Climenhage at Cleona, Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Deh Baker entertained their families for Christmas: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker and family of Orillia, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Baker and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Hornsberger of Kitchener. Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Sider of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. Sider's parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Sider.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Elliott were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Elliott of Keswick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles James of Stouffville. Rev. and Mrs. L. K. Sider spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Funk of Vine-land. Dorothy Doust of Kitchener and Vera Doust of Toronto spent the holiday weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doust.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Doner of Stouffville had Christmas dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Doner. Mrs. Surley of Toronto spent the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Johnston. David Matsunaga of La-Tuque, Quebec and Marilyn Sabine of Montreal spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. S. Matsunaga.

Robert Suzuki, who is attending the University of Waterloo, is holidaying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Suzuki. Sunday evening, December 31, the film "Man of Steel" will be shown at the Parkside Youth Centre. Everyone is cordially invited.

The annual Watch Night Service will commence at Heise Hill Church, December 31 at 8:30 pm. Music will be provided by the Wainfleet Gospel Four, the Clark Caverly Trio, the Bridlewood Quartet, the Joseph Trio and Mr. and Mrs. Don Weeks. The congregation has also been invited to join in this service.

The annual White Gift Service was held at the United Missionary Church, December 24. Special music was provided by the Ladies' Quintette and the color Christmas film "Glory in the Highest" was also shown. A passing motorist gave Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sproxtion a Christmas surprise and a timely warning last week. Billowing clouds of smoke from the Sproxtion's chimney prompted the motorist to stop and alert the family, thus forestalling what could have been a very serious fire. The dangerous chimney fire, which could have spread to the house if undetected, gave the family some anxious hours until it was finally extinguished.
