Enjoying the excellent skiing facilities at Colorado during the New Year holiday is David Douglas-Crampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas Crampton, Bathurst Street.

Lt. Sandi Young N.S., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Young, Centre Street West, left December 20 for Edmonton, Alberta, where she will be stationed at Armed Forces Base Hospital at Lancaster Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McLeod and family, Richmond Street, spent the Christmas holidays in Brantford at the home of William S. G. McLeod.

Welcoming in the New Year in the true tradition were Mr. and Mrs. Len Jones, who entertained many friends at a New Year's Eve party.

Able Seaman Lyndon Andrews, of HMCS Annapolis, Halifax, returned home on Friday last to spend the New Year holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Andrews, Markham Road.

The many friends of Brandie Rose are pleased to hear that she is making good progress after surgery at York Central Hospital. Brandie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rose of Rosemar Gardens, is a student at Bayview Secondary School and a student teacher for Dennis Moore School of Dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. H. Redelmeier and sons Hugh and Billy, Don Head Farms, returned on Saturday from Tobago in the West Indies, where they spent the Christmas holidays.

Barbi Not Twiggy!

The attractive cover girl of the winter holiday issue of Miss Chatelaine is Barbi Peirce, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Peirce, Rockport Crescent. Barbi, a pupil at Crosby Heights Public School, has been modelling since she was five years old, during which time she has appeared in numerous television plays, commercials and fashion shows.

Making a return engagement at The Hole Thing this Saturday is the popular musical group, The Entertainers, from Toronto.

Singing Christmas carols at York Central Hospital on Christmas Eve were students from Bayview Secondary School and a folk group called the Shady Sunday.

Turkey winners were J. Moore, Mrs. Ethel Staunton, N. Hutt, Alf Butler and Fred Thompson. Mrs. Crossley and Mrs. Amy Patton each won a basket of groceries.

Rev. Alvin L. Evans, BA, ED, STM, chaplain to the Guelph and Waterloo Universities will preach at the 11 am service next Sunday at Richmond Hill United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer entertained on Monday evening at their home on South Taylor Mills Drive.

Members of the Shady Sunday group are Frank Barth, guitarist, leader; Marie Crosson, singer; Melanie Dagger, singer; Brian Booth, harmonicaist; Charlie Clayton, guitarist and Judy Brillinger, singer.

Jack Sanders was the recipient of a turkey for high ticket seller.

Their daughter, Paula, held a party for her friends on Thursday last and everyone enjoyed a fun filled evening of charades and dancing.

They have previously appeared at the CNE and Bayview Secondary and on January 27 will be performing in a recital being given by the Midmer Dance Academy.

If you entertained during the New Year holiday, had guests from out of town, or holidayed with relatives or friends, why not drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or call the Social Editor Margot Crack at 884-1105-6, with news of your social activities for inclusion in "Life in the Hill". There is no charge for this service.

His theme will be, "Ministry To The University Students."

New Positive Drugs
Replacing Oldtimers

Each new year has brought us new drugs which differ greatly from the guesswork ingredients of past years. It is difficult to realize that less than a hundred years ago, you could count on your fingers the known drugs which could be depended upon to give a positive medical result.

Now the multi-ingredient, hope they work, mixtures are rapidly disappearing. We have single ingredient medicines which can positively cause a desired result. We have drugs which raise or lower blood pressure. Others permit a diabetic to live a normal life. We can fill any prescription.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

The Library Club of Richmond Hill High School and the Films for Children Committee are presenting their fourth offering of the 1967-68 season, this coming Saturday in the high school auditorium on Wright Street.

The film, Davy Jones' Locker, was made, as the title suggests, under the sea and the location, the Island of Malta in the Mediterranean Sea.

Lieutenant Commander Matthews is spending his summer holiday teaching his son Derek aqua lung diving off the coast of the island and several of the children also holidaying there, are envious of Derek and eventually persuade him to ask his father to teach them as well.

Lieutenant Matthews readily agrees and thus training proceeds by easy stages. Spike Haddock, one of the members of the group, soon tires of "lad's stuff" as he calls it and decides to venture out secretly on his own. Sighting a wreck he dives deep to investigate and discovers traces of treasure. He makes preparation to return at night when there is less chance of being seen.

Fortunately for Spike, his nocturnal activities are observed by his sister Susan and a near fatal accident is only avoided by the swift intervention of Susan and Derek. A chastened Spike realizes the dangers of diving alone and that safety regulations are not just needless restrictions.

The serial, Ambush At Devil's Gap, part 3, entitled, The Arrest, will also be shown. The film starts at 2 pm.

Entertaining on New Year's Eve were Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Dwyne who held a small party for relatives and friends at their home on Harrygan Crescent.

Many friends attended the Open House held on Friday last by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller at their home on Richmond Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Crack of London, Ont., spent the New Year weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crack, Leonard Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Derek Andrews, accompanied by friends, left by air on Saturday morning to spend the New Year weekend in Tampa, Florida.

They returned to their home on Church Street South Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Fry of Arnold Street, spent the New Year weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Lake Promenade, Long Branch.

Home for the holidays and joining in the New Year festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Miller's daughter, Angela, and Larry Matthews of Sault Ste. Marie, both students at Queen's University, Kingston.

Miss Gail Ann Sheardown returned home on Saturday from Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital, where she underwent major surgery, in time to celebrate the New Year with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lorne Sheardown, Roseview Avenue.

Gail is continuing to make good progress and after a period of convalescence will return to York Central Hospital, where she is a member of the nursing staff.

Frank Baillie of 304 Kerswell Drive, has been appointed manager of the architectural sales division (eastern) of Canadian Everguard Coatings Ltd.

Mr. Baillie has been a technical sales representative with the firm since 1960.

The company is a Toronto-based manufacturer of protective coatings, with franchised dealers in all major Canadian cities, Bermuda and the West Indies.

Ski School
With the recent snow storms enthusiastic skiers are rushing to the slopes to try their skill. If you have been considering taking up this exhilarating sport register early for the course of skiing lessons being given by the local YWCA.

This popular course is being conducted by the well known instructor, Mrs. Gordon Croft, on Wednesday mornings at 10 am at the Summit, the home of the Toronto Ski Club and baby sitting services will be provided for participating mothers.

The price for the six week course is only $10 - call 884-4811 today to register or obtain further information.

Signe Snary, 17, was one of the 12 semi-finalists for the Sweetheart of the Year, sponsored by the After Four Section of The Telegram.

Prior to a ball held December 27 in the Canadian Room of the Royal York Hotel, each of the semi-finalists, their escorts and judges were entertained at a dinner in the Ontario room.

On their arrival in the Canadian Room they were introduced by the Master of Ceremonies Robbie Lane and each received a gift package including a shirttail dress, Phantom hosiery, a gift set of Noxzema products and a cologne foursome from Faberge.

Their escorts received a gift of Old Spice by Shulton.

Signe, a grade 13 student at Richmond Hill High School is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Snary, Elka Drive.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Zinck of Beaverton Road were Mrs. Zinck's brother-in-law, Tommy Lazarenko, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Srutwa, all of Winnipeg.

Mrs. Zinck's mother and sister, Mrs. Anna Malinowski and Mrs. Harry Pastuck, also from Winnipeg, arrived on Christmas Day to spend the festive season at the Zinck home. Mrs. Pastuck has now returned to Winnipeg but Mrs. Malinowski is remaining in Richmond Hill for the winter months.

On New Year's Eve the Zincks were joined by Mrs. John Kotack from Toronto and dinner guests on New Year's Day were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horodyski and son Richard from Downsview and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Petrovchak and daughters, Janice and Sandy, from Thornhill.

Delta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their Christmas meeting on December 10 at the home of Mrs. R. Foord, Markham Road.

Mrs. J. O'Connell and Mrs. B. Tihocott gave an interesting seasonal program consisting of the history of Christmas traditions and decorations which was followed by several members reading brief resumes of how Christmas is celebrated in other lands.

The chapter's Christmas party, held in the middle of December, took the form of a theatre party with most of the members and their husbands attending The Playhouse Theatre to see You're A Good Man Charlie Brown.

Following the show they returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. A. Hugill in Thornhill for a buffet lunch.

Gala New Year's Eve Party

It was a real gathering of the clan at the home of Miles Langstaff on Yonge Street North on Sunday evening, when many guests, mostly former students of Richmond Hill High School, were on hand to celebrate the arrival of the New Year.

Drew Davis (centre) ably assisted by Hank Kloosterman (rear) displays his balancing ability with the true holiday spirit, while two attractive onlookers, Kathy Hopkins (right) and Denise Griner, enjoy his antics.
