Thornhill and District News

PHONE 889-3190

"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest contributed by its readers in the Thornhill area. Our representative in Thornhill is Mrs. Jo Cruise who may be reached by phoning 889-3190

Socially Speaking in Thornhill

Residents welcomed back Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mote, their daughter, Willyanne and son, Brian, to the village early in December. The Mote family recently moved to 49 Blue Spruce Lane.

The staff of Thornhill Golf and Country Club was entertained at a Christmas Party last month at the club.

Thornhill Librarian Retires

After 17 years of service to the community, Thornhill Librarian Miss Jane McLaren has retired as of January 1, it has been announced by Markham Township Public Library Board.

Miss McLaren was honored at a luncheon December 17, held at the Colmember of Thornhill Public Library Board and now a member of the recently formed township board.

Taking over as head librarian at Thornhill will be Mrs. Alan Sumner, wife of Markham Township Ward 1 Councillor Alan Sumner.

Mrs. Sumner has been on the staff of North York Public Library for eight

66 Find out how much you may save on car insurance!99

145 ARNOLD AVENUE THORNHILL, ONTARIO

State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company

Canadian Head Office -

Toronto

new home Thornhill's Own . . .

WELCOME SERVICE

would like to call on you with 'housewarming gifts' and information about your new location. The Hostess will be glad to arrange your subscription to the

> RICHMOND HILL LIBERAL

Call Mrs. Ralph Harley 889-3313

Third Thornhill Rovers, Scouts and Cubs will hold their annual bottle pick-up January 6 between the hours of 8 am and 12 noon. Kindly remember to save and place returnable bottles in a conspicuous place

Rovers, Scouts and Cubs will appreciate your donations and co-operation. Areas expected to be covered include Arnold Avenue to Longbridge Drive; Elgin and John Streets: Thornhill Green east of Yonge. Proceeds from the drive will go toward Third Thornhill Scouting activities.

Get well greetings are ex-tional Ballet of Canada. car accident prior to Christmas. ector for the ballet company and worth the trip downtown. David is a patient in York Cent- conducted the orchestra for the annual Christmas Open House nficent production. tom carried out for the past distracting commercial adver- A Great Community' six years. People gather at the tising and was enhanced by the Presbyterian Church workers and volunteers were on most outstanding. hand to greet the many people work cheerfully and efficiently Centre during the holidays. The this week at the Presbytery as assistants to the library staff colorful performance was a de-communion services. in their spare time.

Friends were sorry to see Mr and Mrs. A. M. Lock move to a smaller community last week but wish them well in their new surroundings. Mr. and Mrs. Lock were active parish work-

Owen Peak

Morgan Avenue. years old. A year later he mov- that she is showing improve- tered in the Hespeler Minor ed west and spent 12 years as ment.

He is survived by his wife, be up and about again. for 10 years. If you are NEW-TO-TOWN Robina Chapman, a son, Rod- Neighborhood Notes

> Virginia of Thornhill. A prviate funeral service took place at Pipher Funeral Home. Richmond Hill.

PRINTING!

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES RICHMOND HILL

BRANCH NURSE-IN-CHARGE MISS JEAN LOGGIE

884-4101 Richmond Hill Municipal Hall

> SERVING YORK COUNTY

COMPRESSORS

GENERATORS PUMPS AIR TOOLS WELDERS

TAMPERS VIBRATORS HEATERS BREAKERS

BOBEN EQUIPMENT LIMITED

889-7717

47 MAPLE AVENUE

ers of Holy Trinity Anglican light and had special appeal for Church. A presentation was a young audience. made last month to Mr. and I have never been a part of Mrs. Lock by the Bible Study an audience so dominated by Fellowship and Mrs. Lock by children between the ages of the Winchester Group, ACW, of three and 12 and experienced which she was president. the complete rapture that these very young people gave to the Many old friends of Mr. and performers.

Mrs. Reg Byford, Kensington An added feature of the Tower Apartments, former Ar- National Ballet of Canada is nold Avenue residents, enjoyed the many young delightful balvisiting the Byfords at their let students of the school who Christmas Party last week. perform the children's roles in this ballet, usually danced by "Festival", seen over Chan-adults. nel 6 December 27 presented Following the performance, Danish choreographer and danc- Cindy was treated to lunch at er Erik Bruhn's new version of the Royal York Hotel and a trip the Tchaikovsky classic "Swan to Toronto Dominion Centre to Lake", performed by the Na- view the city from the observatory on the 54th floor. For tended to David Large, Arnold George Crum, a resident of those who haven't yet seen this Avenue, who was involved in a Laureleaf Road, is musical dir- magnificent sight, it is well television presentation. Mr. The next meeting of the WI Crum is to be commended for will take place at the home of The public library held its his superb direction in the mag- Mrs. E. Burt, 8159 Yonge Street, January 18. Motto for the library and enjoy a cup of cof- expert camera technique used. The annual congregational fee along with friendly conver- It was the 11th ballet Norman meeting will be held January Librarian Miss Jane McLaren, company since 1955 and was the are reminded to have reports in who dropped in to collect holi- Your correspondent and her Supper will be observed at both day reading material. A special daughter, Cindy, were among morning and evening services freshments"; "Epicurean Arts sponsored by the auxiliary of prepared delectable polynesian word of praise goes out to the several residents who attended January 7. many teenage volunteers who "The Nutcracker" at O'Keefe Elder P. Williamson assisted

SOUTH THORNHILL

The news of Doncaster, Highland Park, Grandview CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MAY BARBOUR 136A HENDERSON AVE. - PHONE 889-5205

With The Sick
Friends and neighbors of J. 72 Glencameron Road.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baker Sutton, Bernard Souche, and Stratton from Di Vincenzo.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baker Sutton, Bernard Souche, and Stratton from Di Vincenzo.

Have Busy Year With The Sick Angel, formerly of Clark Av-spent a week in North Bay Barry Howson. enue, are sorry to learn that visiting their daughter, Ruth, December 23 Thornhill residents were sad- he spent Christmas in Toronto and family.

Central Hospital.

the Globe and Mail as an artist learn that she was able to nearby Preston.

erick of Stouffville and two Congratulations to Neville Le- Woolnough. Stanley Stankie- December 19 or have just moved into a daughters, Barbara (Mrs. Barbara at the Doponetor dy Mix Atoms and Mrs. Stank-Charles Yeates) of Stroud and attendance at the Doncaster dy Mix Atoms, and Mrs. Stank-Bible School. His name was in- lewicz also attended. advertently omitted from the Other residents, attending list of winners last week.

ing there January 7.

for the holidays.

Mrs. C. Jordan, Morgan Av- Woodland School

eron Road and Douglas James ed to overflowing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ross, Wood- Page, a grade 6 pupil.

Year holiday.

Birthday congratulations to All pupils taking part are to Christmas, unknown to Mrs. Wish You A Merry Christmas and to Andrew Dean, who was derful entertainment. The tea- the Bethlehem story.

Congratulations also to Patricia Smith, who celebrated with parties at their home, Action Ad.

dened to learn of the sudden hospitalized for another two A large number of local resdeath of Owen William Peak on weeks following a heart attack. idents, parents and fans en- BANTAMS December 22 at his home 16 We wish him a speedy recovery, joyed an exciting if somewhat December 20 Mrs. Doreen MacDonald, Mor- exhausting Christmas Week of W. A. Stephenson 3, Barrie 5 Owen Peak was born in Nor- gan Avenue, returned home hockey, travelling to and from A two-goal effort by Bill Law wich, England, in 1894 and from York Central Hospital in Hespeler in support of the two came to Woodstock, Ontario, time for Christmas, following Thornhill teams. Both the pee- through with a goal and an as- TIKES with his family when he was 16 surgery. We are glad to hear wees and the bantams were en-

Olympics which started Dea cowboy in Alberta and Sas- Neighbors and friends of Mr. cember 22 and continued to sist. katchewan. He worked in Mon- and Mrs. J. Kirkman, Clark the last day of the year. As treal as a commercial artist for Avenue, are sorry to hear that each team played seven games, one year before settling in To- their infant son is still in York sometimes two in one day, the boys and their supporters en- Michael Coyne came through United 1; St. Edward's 2, St. A puppet show and refresh-

Thornhill for 18 years, At the omers of Mrs. Eyvette Adkins, between games at the charm- Rick Hartwick, two goals Hugh PEEWEES time of his death he was with Yonge Street, are happy to ing Knotty Pines Restaurant in Matheson, one goal one assist; Holy Trinity Terrors 8, Unitin the engraving department return home from York Cent- Officials attending the games four assists, Randy Bagg, two United Invaders 0; Presbyterian where he had been on the staff ral Hospital in time for Christ- were Mr. and Mrs. R. Howson, assists, Mark Woolnough, two Cougars 7, St. Edward's Tigers They have she will soon Mr. and Mrs. A. Hortwick A. assists

mas. They hope she will soon Mr. and Mrs. A. Hartwick, A. assists. Takeuchi, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. S. JUVENILES were Mr. and Mrs. L. Barton,

Wellesley Hospital, was home enue; Mr. and Mrs. R. Carr. for the holidays. She reports Henderson Avenue: Mr. and December 29 Trudy attend- Glencameron Road and E. Suted a reunion of all counsellors ton, Henderson Avenue.

and campers of Camp Illahee, Sympathy Cobourg, sponsored by the The community was sadden- of Thornhill Public School just Clear" the mural would have John Farrow, which is going Wellesley Family Association, ed by the news of the sudden before the holidays.

MORGAN DAVIS which operates the camp.

Bob Jackson, Grandview Av
Bob Jackson Av
Bob Jackson, Grandview Av
Bob Jackson, Grandview Av
Bo enue, arrived home December Pantalone, who was just 39, special classes under the guid-dominated the centre and the 21 to spend the holidays with died January 1. He had attend- ance of their respective teach- table was loaded with relishes, his parents. Bob is in his sec- ed many of the hockey games ers, Mrs. Hazel Hill and Carl nuts, candies and other Christond year at Royal Roads, Vic- at the Hespler Tournament Bailey. toria, B.C., and will be return-throughout the week and was also present at the Thornhill

Valerie Jackson also spent teams' home games at Double- sters greeted arriving guests at effects were achieved at the Christmas at home. She is rinks December 30. now making her home in Bos- His son Rocco plays with which they distributed to one balls and gold toothpicks. Paul Condon, Grandview Av- Dino with Thornhill Minor At- cards and a chorus of "Merry red or blue and sprinkled with enue, is home from Waterloo oms. Mr. Pantalone, a strong Christmas" greetings flooded sparkle dust. Keith Jordan and Carol also deed be sadly missed, and December 22. returned from Waterloo to heartfelt sympathy is extendspend Christmas with Mr. and ed to his wife and family.

Congratulations to Eileen land Junior School staged their Churchill, Briggs Avenue, and first Christmas Program and Mr. and Mrs. C. Mandelbaum; berry sauce, and all the fixings Ken Ross, 40 Woodward Aven-ue, on their engagement; and and friends turned out for the son; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richard-topped of with a delicious on their engagement; and and friends turned out for the son; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mar-Christmas pudding with cream to JoAnne Bragan, Glen Cam-event the auditorium was pack-tin; Mrs. Claire Hodgins; sauce.

Principal D. J. Young, emcee- Hill. Lee Webster, Balsam Lake, ing duties were taken over and The junior special classroom guests, the teachers, and one was a visitor at the home of performed well by Neville Le- was a veritable Christmas pal- another following the dinner.

ried January 13 to W. Beau- in French by pupils of Miss M. also made by the children. son, assistant music supervisor Jackson's class.

in honor of the great event. his closing remarks.

(Ontario Hydro Photo)

colorful Hawaiian dance numbers recently at Charles Howitt Public School in Richvale. They took part in a Hawaiian Luau program presented by Ontario Hydro.

Seen in the above photo are, back row (left to right) Dancers Joanne Laidman, Wendy Straumann, Kelly Patten, and Donna Newbold. In the front row are Debbie Thomas and Suzan Mallory.

Hawaii Comes To Richvale

for Men": "Seafood Demonstra- Richvale Brownies.

borne Street home of Gai- December 23 from 10 am to 12 The production ran one hour meeting will be. "Wholesome Ontario Hydro's Central Re- tion"; as well as a general small One of the highlights of the preparation giving valuable noon. This is a Christmas cus- and thirty minutes, without Homes Are Stepping Stones To gion home economists have a appliance demonstration. new, intriguing "bag of tricks" The various programs show ian dance by students of a John Van Weelden, Hydro's for their presentations on using the "magic" of using electrical local dance class garbed in Ha- Richmond Hill area sales represmall electrical appliances. appliances effectively, said waiian costumes. This set the sentative, gave a brief talk on They have expended on the Gwyneth Reed. She presented mood for the program which Hydro's services and also drew Campbell has produced with the 29. Secretaries and treasurers original "Quick Tricks" pro- the colorful Hawaiian Luau, at also included a spectacular for the door prizes. Mrs. Joyce gram and now offer such in- Charles Howitt Public School, color and sound movie on Walters acted as mistress of The Sacrament of the Lord's teresting innovations as the Richvale, recently to a capacity Hawaii. 'Hawaiian Luau"; "After 10 Re- audience. The program was Following this Gwyn Reed activities in Centennial Year were present to welcome 1968 and to help the Lions defray the cost of the Christmas party.

a clown (Lion Cleve Burton)

ments made this a party to be

Lion Al. O'Brien convened the heaping baskets of food which were distributed December 23.

The hall, officially opened Oc-chaired by Lion John Kup-

To support all these community services, Richvale Lions of which Cliff Nunn is president have held a successful light bulb sale under the chairmanship of Lion Al Kehrli, a 20-week minipot draw which is still continu-long remembered.

mas dinner.

chanko.

This was held December 20

2. Holy Trinity 2.

The Thornhill Sports Scene

North End Cleaners 2, Hamilton and assisting one another in Luke's 1; St. Edward's Hawks

Ernie Takeuchi and David December 23 Courtemanche handled the scoring for Thornhill in the Scoring were Angelo Di Vin-Richvale Lions

North End Cleaners 0, Barrie 6 DEMS Juveniles are sorely with Randy Bagg coming sists; Mark Woolnough, one as- Thornhill United 2; Holy Trin- cluding Lions' children and

W. A. Stephenson 6, Unionville ATOMS Mr. Peak was a resident of The many friends and cust-joyed dining out and relaxing with two goals and an assist; Luke's 2.

Hespeler Peewee Tournament John Stevens and Paul Leth- MIDGETS bridge took turns scoring goals St. Edward's Flyers 5, St

> this match. Dem's 3, Beeton 3 opening game of the tourna- cenzo from Mike Stratton; Chris Gary Petronick was in goal for DEMS.

A league game. Enuff said. missing Dave Large who is in by holding a New Year's Eve York Central Hospital suffering Dance in the Lions Hall unfrom injuries received in a car der ther chairmanship of Lion accident. A speedy recovery. John Bailey, About 100 people

> THORNHILL CHURCH LEAGUE

ity 6, St. Edward's Eagles 1; St. those from needy families. Luke's 9, St. Edward's Cubs 0. Santa Claus (Lion Sid Cann) and Holy Trinity 1, Thornhill paid a visit and distributed gifts.

Rick Hodge, one goal, Bill Law, ed Warriors 0; St. Luke's 9, committee which prepared 11

0; St. Edward's Lions 6, Holy all the other goodies for Christ-Trinity Rockets 0. BANTAMS

Holy Trinity Rifles 4, United tober 6 after four years of ef-Edward's 6; St. Luke's 3, Thorn-proved under the committee A new sponsor and a tie. hill Presbyterian 1.

Trudy Johnson, Woodward Meadowview Avenue; Mr. and Avenue, nurse-in-training at Mrs. Roy Hodge, Dolmeny Av- Special Classes Christmas Meal she is enjoying her course Mrs. B. Sanders, Highland Is A Very Special Celebration very much. B. Sanders, Highland Is A Very Special Celebration

Flocks of happy-faced young- onto the scene and planetary 12:30 pm with gifts of holly guest tables via gold styrofoam the Thornhill Peewees and son and all. Others gave out name The serviette holders were in ward Avenue, for the New During the scene shifting be- The children of the special inevitable arrival of Santa tween plays the audience part- classes had used their artistic Claus full of bounce and December 28, Mrs. Joanne icipated in carol singing with talents turning out beauti- big bags of favors. Santa was Fleming, Finch Avenue, was piano accompaniment by Vice-ful decorations for the tree Olive St. John. hostess at a bridal shower in Principal W. S. Caldwell. along with gay lanterns strung Hugh Martin, music superhonor of her sister-in-law, Every class was represented over the buffet table. The cen- visor for Vaughan, led the sing-Penny Fleming, Highland Park on stage by plays, choral items, tre pieces and napkin holders ing of the carol "O Come All Boulevard. Penny will be mar-dancing and a play performed which adorned the tables were Ye Faithful." Robert Richard-

C. Grant; Dr. and Mrs. Minton Mabel Crawford, was superb.

Some of the children this added his appreciation with "I Wendy Browning, Clark Aven- be congratulated for fine per- Hill, transformed the black- and a Happy New Year." ue who was seven January 4; formances, making this a won- board into a beautiful mural of Vaughan Township Public Christmas came once again If someone had softly played ing under the chairmanship of to the junior special classroom "It Came Upon the Midnight hockey draw chaired by Lion been unforgettable.

The space age also zoomed supporter of the teams, will in- the room. It was a very merry All agreed that the dinner cooked and served by Olive St. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John and her helpers Bea Good, D. R. MacDonald; Mr. and Mrs. Doreen Marks, Beth Yule and

December 21 pupils of Wood- Johnston; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. The dinner was traditional Wells; Mrs. Brenda Gordon; fare with roast turkey, cran-

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wester- Presiding over the event was of Bowmanville on their en- After a short introduction by hoek; Mrs. G. Kelson and A. Dr. Minton Johnston. The children distributed gifts to the And, of course, there was the eight on the same date. Mel-chers also deserve much praise It was complete with the Nat-MacDonald expressed his sin-School Superintendent D. R. ody Phinnemore celebrated her for their hard work and lead- ivity scene depicting the arrival cere appreciation to Mrs. Hazel of the shepherds and wise men. Hill and Carl Bailey and the Over all was the huge Star of special classes and to Mrs. St. her 17th birthday December Put a Liberal Classified Action Bethlehem and a myraid of les- John and her helpers for mak-26, and to little sister Jane Ad to work for you. Save time ser stars shining forth in the ing such a memorable Christmas Laurie Smith, who was seven and money by calling 884-1105 black night. Hosts of angels happening. His appreciation THORNHILL, ONT. December 28. Both celebrated and placing a Liberal Classified were suspended in the heavens was echoed by Dr. Johnston in AURORA: Ontario Housing Corporation has purchased land between Regency Acres and Golf Glen and will sell 136 lots under the province's HOME plan by next fall. Another 18 acres will be held for a later phase of development here.

The Copper Kettle Corner

You can't reduce by talking about it. You just have to keep your mouth

A diplomat is a man who, when asked his favorite color, replies, "Plaid."

settle for two out of three. Duty is what we expect of others . . .

Friend of ours is looking for a girl who will love, honor and obey, but he'll Isn't it strange how half the calories often cost twice the price!

For twice the value, come to The Copper Kettle restaurants and enjoy great food.

1382 Lawrence E. • 7529 Yonge, Thornhill Scarboro, Tel. 759-6981 Tel. 889-7168 (1 bl. E. of Pharmacy) . (2 lights N. of Steeles)

Snowmobiles - Snowblowers Chain Saws

Visit your local "Winter Activity" Centre

for Quality Products * Polaris * Ski-Daddler *

* Ariens * Bolens * Graveley * Hahn-Eclipse ' * Jacobsen * Reo *

Canadien * Homelite * Remington * Wright * Richvale Lions crowned their KETOLA POWER EQUIPMENT

7571 YONGE STREET, THORNHILL 889-1538

54" WOOLLEN SPECTACULAR IN FULL SWING

Fabric & Drapery Mill Outlet

Hwy. 7 & Don Mills (Woodbine)

NEW WAREHOUSE HOURS: Daily, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. - Sat. 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

FABRIC CARE BEYOND COMPARE

Phone 884-2162

9724 YONGE STREET