Neighborhood Notes
March came in like a lamb Friday, and then changed tactics Saturday, causing a rash of traffic accidents where motorists were blinded by blowing snow.

The most serious collision in this neighborhood was on Highway No. 7 west of Leslie Street in mid-afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ireland of Downsview and Juergen von Holt of Scarborough received injuries and were taken to York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, OPP investigated.

Markham Township Police were called to several small incidents, mostly on Don Mills Road north of 18th Avenue. Property damage was fairly high.

There were a good many familiar faces at O'Keefe Centre, February 28, when the flower and garden show was held. Rick and Jean Tribbling transported two busloads of Unionville Horticultural Society members and friends; there was a busload from Richmond Hill and another from Uxbridge, so the centre was like old home week.

Paul Craigie and Barbara Stewart were members of the last east week when the Thornhill Secondary School drama group presented "J. B."

Among local families attending were the Craigs, the Stewarts, the George Hoopers and Mrs. S. J. English.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig returned last week from a southern vacation.

Mrs. George Kelly, who will be a delegate at the Liberal Leadership Convention in April, has been invited to meet candidates recently. Last week she attended receptions for Pierre Elliott Trudeau, and Robert Winters. Earlier she met Paul Hellyer.

This week Mrs. Kelly is staying with grandchildren Susan and Scott Kelly of Newmarket while their parents vacation in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Popham were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots last weekend.

Headford Community News

Neighborhood Notes
Gordon and Elisabeth McMillan and family have moved from Moncton, N.B. to Nova Scotia, near Kentville.

John Rumble paid a surprise visit home on one of his high school recruiting trips for McGill University. His search is for good students and athletes who will bring honor to the college.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Rumble and Mr. and Mrs. W. Middleton enjoyed an overnight visit in Sudbury. Mr. Rumble was fortunate to witness a pancake race staged by the Sudbury Radio Station.

Malignant stars certainly hover over Headford. After years of safe uneventful living, accidents have become the order of the day. Recent ones, a broken wrist sustained by Mrs. L. Guild attending the CGIT skating party and a badly banged nose for Paul Wellman that certainly disguises him well. This accident happened at school in play time.

Rosemary Leek and Jean Clark represented Headford on the student exchange trip to Quebec. They report "Wonderful" time. Their hosts were congenial and entertainment tops. This included a tour of the city, visit to the ice carnival, tobogganing at Valcartier, and a ball at the delightful Club Renaissance.

Headford parents who attended the production of "J.B." presented by the drama club of Thornhill Secondary School, directed by Robert Beattie were thrilled by the wonderful acting ability of the students. The ease of movement, diction, understanding of lines made it apparent that added to the talents, solid work and excellent direction had produced this truly fine play in verse by Archibald McLLeish. Though carrying a minor part, Becky Stator, Headford played her role in keeping with the rest of the cast. Congratulations to all.

Japanese Festival
Mrs. C. Lee, and Gloria with Joyce Horner were Headford folk who enjoyed a visit to springtime festival presented at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre March 2 and 3.

The entertainment was a delightful experience for all who attended. The program was varied; flower arranging, the art of paper folding and cutting, chiro and dancing. The Tea Ceremony was demonstrated and a marvellous display of dolls.

Hina-Matsuri, or dolls' festival is observed on the third day of the third month — March 3. It is a doll festival and on that day the girls arrange their dolls for exhibition, like we might arrange our dolls and toy furniture. However, these dolls are much more expensive than ours, and they are never played with. They are only used once a year, on the third day of March. These dolls are handed down from one generation to the next.

The complete set of dolls consists of 15 dolls all dressed in ancient costume. They are displayed on a step-like platform covered with a red cloth. On the very top step are the dolls representing the emperor and empress. They are dressed in beautiful court costumes made of silk. Below them are other dolls representing their court ladies, musicians, ministers and court officials.

Interspersed among the dolls are miniature pieces of furniture, miniature tables complete with dinners, musical instruments, a sedan-chair for travel, and many beautifully decorated boxes that contain sweets.

Standing in vases around this display are branches of peach blossoms, filling the air with their fragrance, and symbolizing happiness in marriage. Being full and round, peach blossoms are supposed to signify the highest desired qualities of any Japanese lady — tranquility, softness and mildness.

On this day the girls visit their friends to see their doll display and they are served special cakes that were made for this ceremony.

When the festival is over, the dolls and utensils are carefully packed in wooden boxes and stored until the festival next year.

The centre has a series of events planned for each month until November with the exception of June.

Church News
Victoria Square Charge CGIT held a skating party at Unionville Arena February 24. There was a good turnout of members and leaders Miss Cora Brodie and Mrs. M. van Tol provided transportation.

Women from Victoria Square and Brown's Corners met with Headford women for the Women's World Day of Prayer. March 1. Mrs. E. Leek conducted the service assisted by Mrs. F. Leaf, Mrs. J. Miller and Miss M. Rodick of Brown's Corners and Mrs. E. Empringham, Mrs. G. Joyce and Mrs. L. Mumberson of Victoria Square. Mrs. C. Lee offered the prayer of dedication.

Youth, Two Juveniles Charged With Thefts
Whitechurch Police arrested William Donkers, 18, of RR2 Aurora and a juvenile, March 2, and charged them with the break-entry and theft of the residence of David Laskie, Concession 3, Whitechurch. Investigating Constable Carl Hawthorne said that the pair had gained entry by smashing a basement window but the stolen goods had been recovered.

Markham Township Police arrested a juvenile March 3, and charged him with the theft of a small amount of cash from the Fry Basket fish and chip store at 7057 Yonge Street, Highland Park. The boy was apprehended early in the morning and police report that little damage was done to the building.

'68 Objective $4,200 For Local Red Cross
Young people from Bayview and Langstaff Secondary Schools, Richmond Hill High School and several church organizations have volunteered their services to the Richmond Hill and District branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society. These young people will conduct a door-to-door canvassing campaign throughout the community, with a concentrated effort during their winter holiday, March 18-23.

Every canvassing student will be easily identified by a Red Cross button. Objective for this year's campaign is $4,200.

March has been proclaimed Red Cross month by Mayor Thomas Broadhurst and the Red Cross standard will fly from the flagstaff in front of the municipal building throughout the month.

Help has also been promised the Red Cross by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion and by various church organizations, but the stress this year is on youth. This is another example of the creative citizenship being displayed by the vast majority of our young people. Recognize their contribution by making yours as large as possible.

Hill Junior Jaycees On Membership Drive
The Richmond Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce is in the midst of a recruiting campaign for young men between the ages of 18 and 39 years of age.

An introductory night for new members will be held March 11 at 8 pm in the town council chambers.

Any persons interested in joining or obtaining further information on the organization may do so by phoning 884-5537 or by writing to Membership Chairman Doug Cutler, P.O. Box 365, Richmond Hill.

The Jaycees stress leadership training or self development of the individual and service to the community. They also participate in training programs and community service projects.

They are not a branch of the Chamber of Commerce movement.

The local unit is an independent group and receives its charter from the national organization.

The Jaycees is an organization specifically designed to meet young men's needs whereas most other organizations deal with people of all ages and have no specific program for training individual members.
