

Authorize Sewers
In Thornhill

Working drawings are now being prepared for the construction of 3,670 feet of sanitary sewers on Johnson Street, Clarke Avenue, John Street and Ida Street in Thornhill.

Markham Township Council at a recent meeting gave three readings to a bylaw authorizing the work, which will be carried out on a local improvement basis.

When the plans have been approved by the Ontario Water Resources Commission, tenders will be called for the work.

Markham Okays
Apartment Suites

Markham Township Council has reached an agreement with a developer which will permit him to construct four seven storey apartment buildings at Yonge Street and Clarke Avenue in Thornhill.

But there's one catch. The developer, Angelo Del Zotto, won't be able to build on the land area for 15 months.

The township reached the agreement to allow the project to go ahead conditionally July 5 just prior to an Ontario Municipal Board hearing.

Mr. Del Zotto had decided to plea his case before the OMB. He was attempting to appeal the existence of a holding clause on the area concerned which prohibits any apartment building under Bylaw 2237.

The hearing, presided over by Commissioner David Jamieson, had barely got underway when it was adjourned.

Township Solicitor Paul Mingay informed Mr. Jamieson that the two parties had come to an agreement and he was requesting an indefinite adjournment. It was agreed that the 15-month waiting period be written into the site plan agreement.

The four apartment buildings will produce a total of 156 one-bedroom suites and 224 two-bedroom suites.

Markham Township Council had been opposed to the scheme due to the extra burden on the school population.

John Burkart

A prominent member of the community John Francis Burkart, died suddenly of a heart attack July 5. Mr. Burkart, who lived at 7 Delair Crescent in Thornhill, had been bothered with heart trouble for the last few years. He was the son of the late Babe Burkart, of football fame, and Mrs. Edna Burkart of Willowdale.

Mr. Burkart was born in Toronto April 19, 1920. He attended St. Michael's School and Scollard Hall of North Bay. He belonged to St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church in Thornhill.

He was marketing sales manager for Kruger Pulp and Paper in Weston and a member of the Board of Trade Country Club in Woodbridge. Mr. Burkart and his family lived in Oakville before they moved to Thornhill seven years ago.

Surviving Mr. Burkart are his mother, Mrs. Edna Burkart of Willowdale; his wife, the former Carol Howardene Michael; and six children, Mrs. Paul Vyskupaitis (Denise), Deborah, Kelly, Michael, Nancy and Scott. He also leaves four brothers, Bill Burkart and Bruce Burkart, both of California, Philip Burkart of Whitby and Brian Burkart of Brampton, as well as one sister, Mrs. Mary Armstrong of Toronto.

Father Thomas Chidlow officiated at the funeral mass at St. Luke's Church, Interment was in Brooklyn Groveside Cemetery. The pallbearers were Logan Forsythe, Ivor Hughes, Ray Bentley, Reg Parr, George Armstrong and Paul Vyskupaitis.
