Wingers Exchange Wedding Vows At Heise Hill Brethren Church

Ardys Marion Winger and Gary Lamar Winger exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony at Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church June 22, with Rev. E. C. Flewelling officiating.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Winger and the groom is the younger son of Mrs. Ethel Winger and the late Arthur Winger of Stevensville.

Baskets of pink peonies and orange blossoms decorated the sanctuary. The organist, Miss Carol Riegle of Ridgeway, played traditional wedding music at the processional and Don Mc-Niven of Fenwick sang "Bless This Hour", "A Wedding Prayer" and "A Wedding Song".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a floor-length gown of white crystal peau de soie, featuring short sleeves and a train falling from the shoulder. A beaded headpiece held her shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Luella Gilmore of Wainfleet was her sister's matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Wideman of Gormley and Miss Marjorie Hall of Hagersville. They wore floor-length gowns of capri blue silk chiffon with empire waists and matching sashes of peau de soie and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Flower girls, Susan Gilmore, niece of the bride and Gwen Winger, niece of the groom, were gowned alike in floor-length dresses identical to those worn by the bridesmaids and carried nosegays of pink carnations and mums.

Groomsman was Francis Winger, brother of the groom and ushers were Ivan Winger and Phil Osburn.

At the reception following, at the Parkside Youth Centre, the mother of the bride received in a turquoise silk dress and jacket, with a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. She was assisted by the mother of the groom who wore a pink crepe dress with a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

Gormley News Notes

Neighborhood Notes
The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. George Cober and family in the sudden passing of a beloved husband and father, George Cober. The funeral service was held Saturday at Heise Hill Church with interment in Heise Hill Cemetery.

Several area families are attending Stayner Camp this week.

Mrs. Ellis Klinck of Listowel is visiting friends in the community for a few days.

A wedding of local interest took place at Aurora United Church on Saturday when Betty Hutchinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hutchinson of Aurora became the bride of Robert Baycroft, son of Mrs. Richard Baycroft of Gormley.

Showers
Miss Miriam Sider was the recipient of many lovely gifts at several showers held in her honor, prior to her forthcoming marriage to Raymond Scott of Waterloo.

Mrs. John Moran was the hostess for a shower held by the ladies at Parkway Bible Church, Scarborough. The gifts included a complete set of cookware. Relatives of the groom-elect from British Columbia and Brazil, South America were present at a party honoring the couple, given by Mrs. Ronald Fraser, an aunt of Mr. Scott, at her home in Agincourt.

The United Missionary Youth Fellowship held a miscellaneous shower at the parsonage for Miss Sider and her fiancé.

The congregation of the United Missionary Church feted the couple at a large shower in Fellowship Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yake were hosts.

When that rear end goes, it takes cash to bail you out.

Cash is a great invention: everyone accepts it. That's why at the Commerce we recommend you use our complete banking service. For the expenses you know you're going to have — the rent, the phone, the electricity — cover yourself with a Chequing Account. But also, keep a cushion in a Savings Account. As long as you don't need it, it's growing; but when you do, it's there.

And it gives you a feeling of independence nothing else can match. Problems happen. Opportunities happen too. That's when it's great to have cash on hand.

Keep cash on hand at the Commerce.
