Church News
The Sunday morning service at St. John's Anglican was conducted by Gordon Achilles of Oak Ridges, who asked four searching questions in his sermon.

Rev. Earl Gerber, Mrs. Gerber and family returned from a holiday near Minden on Labor Day, having attended the Gerber family reunion Sunday at Orillia.

This Sunday morning the service will be a celebration of Holy Communion at 10 o'clock. The choir meets for practice Wednesday evening (early readers please note) and two extra practices are planned to prepare for the service of dedication to be held September 15 at 7:30 pm, when Bishop Wilkinson will officiate dedicating the new organ, lectern, Bible, font and new choir robes.

Last Monday the parking lot was extended westward by heavy earthmoving equipment and some gravel has been spread. It is hoped to pack it during the fall and then add more gravel. A culvert is to be placed in the drainage trench and then the new addition can be approached from the circular driveway.

The young people's group, having spent the previous Saturday evening at the CNE went to Pinecrest Speedway races this past week, after which a surprise party was held as a farewell to Ann Tanquary and to Arnold McPhee who are both moving away from this area.

Neighborhood Notes
Birthday greetings are extended to Joanne Laidman, Sandra Buckley and to Cory Knipe September 5, Carol Hallgren on the 10th and to Lynn McDowell on the 11th.

Mrs. Ivy Cox of Chessington, Surrey, England, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Mary Hazlehurst, of Bathurst Street since August 18, returns home September 9. They have visited relatives of John's at Milliken, Weston and Toronto, viewed Niagara Falls, Toronto's city hall and numerous other places of interest throughout the province.

Jefferson School
With two portable classrooms and a new tile bed system installed, the school opened Tuesday morning with many new faces, both teachers and pupils.

The children of Markham Township between Yonge and Bayview and from the Orange Home are now attending along with the Vaughan pupils in grades 1 to 6. The grades 7 and 8 are now attending Roselawn Senior Public School.

Neighborhood Notes

Your correspondent returned home July 12 after spending four weeks with friends at Middleton, Nova Scotia. We visited the Port Royal "Habitation", Fort Anne, which has just recently been completed and the Bay of Fundy. The boat ride home was not very pleasant as there was a storm brewing. The water was rough and I was relieved when I stood on shore once more. However, apart from this experience, it was a very enjoyable vacation.

Connie and Larry Burton, Mary Terry, Christine and Paul Mikucki, Becky and Lisa Staton, Brenda and Paul Wellman, Gordon and Gloria Lee are all local students who will be attending the recently completed Thornlea High School.

While having breakfast this morning, I glanced out the window to see two tiny rabbits a short distance away. They were hopping here and there searching for an early morning snack. Sometimes they would pause to nibble delicately on a blade of grass. Then, as they caught sight of me, the rabbits pressed close to the earth in the hope that nothing and nobody would find them. In a flash they sprang up and bounded down the hill, their little white tails bobbing behind them like shining lights in a fog.
