CGIT Doings
 Richmond Hill United Church
 By SYBIL BEACOCK
 Since Sybil Beacock has become president of the Richmond Hill United Church CGIT, as vice-president I have inherited the job of informing you of our program.
 There are just a couple of things this week. First of all, we didn't have a regular meeting but instead put on a short demonstration for the UCW of how CGIT is run.
 Secondly, on October 12, the juniors and intermediates of our group will be decorating the sanctuary of the church for Thanksgiving.
 That's all for this week, but I'll be back!

CGIT Demonstrate
Meeting For UCW

A demonstration of a CGIT meeting proved of much interest October 7 at the general meeting of Richmond Hill United Church UCW.
 Each lady was paired with a girl for "It's a good time to get acquainted" and then a most amusing action song, "Silly Willy". After the CGIT purpose, prayer and hymn, the regular business was discussed and then groups of girls told of their study — Bible, missions and "Christians in the World." The girls presenting the mission study gave a dramatization of two CGIT girls meeting two African girls who visited Canada. They compared life at school, at church and other organizations in Canada and Africa. One most interesting fact was that in the African village the science teacher came about once a month and taught a lesson for the whole village, parents and pupils.
 Another girl told of how she and a friend had visited the children's ward of York Central Hospital, read stories, served snacks and helped prepare the children for their rests. This was a part of "The Christian in the World." The ladies were most interested in the vivacious manner in which the girls told of their fun, their studies and their many projects.
 A fine worship service was led by the girls and was followed by the entire group singing "Taps".
 Prior to the program, a UCW business meeting was held at which it was reported that a few tables for the afternoon bridge on October 16 were still available, and that the Christmas tea, bake sale and boutique would be held December 7.
 Mrs. Margaret Phipps was presented with a UCW life membership and pin for her services through the past years.

Christian Executive
Speaker FM Church
 On September 27, 120 people gathered at the Summit View Gardens Restaurant, Jefferson, for a delicious banquet and an outstanding evening of fellowship. The guest speaker of the evening was Ted DeMoss, a Christian insurance executive from Chattanooga, Tenn.
 The banquet and fellowship was sponsored by the men's fellowship of the Richmond Hill Free Methodist Church, but people attended also from Toronto, Markham and Stouffville.
 Frank Barkey was the master of ceremonies, introducing the different guests and speakers.
 Following the banquet, an accomplished baritone, Gordon Hamilton, from Toronto sang several special numbers. Mr.
 Barkey introduced Pastor David Dyer, from the local church who spoke briefly on the church's plans for enlargement. Vaughn Constable Jack Hamilton told of the meaning of Christ to him in his work. Mr. DeMoss was introduced and spoke to everyone there in a very personal way on the subject, "What Is A Christian?" It was an unforgettable evening for the men and their wives who were privileged to attend.

Starr A Candidate For York Education Board
 Arthur E. Starr of Vandorf has announced his intention to run for the Whitchurch-Stouffville seat on the York County Board of Education.
 He did so at the Whitchurch Township Council meeting Tuesday night when he appeared to thank the council for appointing him to the township representative on the Aurora and District High School Board for the past eight years.
 Mr. Starr is currently chairman of the high school board.
 Previously he was vice-chairman for two years.
 He has five children of his own, four of whom have completed secondary school. One is in public school in Vandorf.
 The elections for the 18-mar-county board take place December 2, and the board's duties begin January 1, 1969. A nomination meeting of election candidates will be held November 18.

Boys from the Richmond Hill area, who camped out over the past weekend with 1,800 Canadian and American Boy Scouts, were so enthusiastic about the international venture, that they are already talking about another meeting next year.

The Richmond Hill boys were involved with SCOPE — the Scout Centennial Ontario-Pennsylvania Expedition — an experiment in international camping that was originally intended as a single effort to mark Canada's Centennial year in 1967.
 On that occasion some 500 Canadians joined an equal number of Americans from the outskirts of Philadelphia in a camp on U.S. soil. The occasion was so successful that a return visit was planned — with more boys involved.

The Americans poured into Vaughan Township on Thursday evening, October 3, some 860 strong aboard 19 giant buses.
 Each boy was matched by computer with a host of similar age and interests. After a night in their host's home and a day at their host's school, the Americans joined the Canadians at Boyd Conservation area for a two day camp.

The camp was officially opened Saturday morning by James Auld, Ontario Minister of Tourism, on behalf of the province and by the Deputy Chief Scout, Air Vice Marshall James Harvey. Scout officials from Ottawa and Toronto were on hand throughout the weekend.
 A full program of sports events and scouting games took place on Saturday followed by a campfire night with comedians Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster in attendance. Two thousand members of the general public crowded into the park the following afternoon to witness a one hour pageant depicting the history of Scouting — a joint effort of the Americans and Canadians.

But the biggest attraction for most boys was the opportunity to trade Scout badges, neckerchiefs, hats, belts, coats and even short pants with their foreign counterparts. Americans by the dozen were seen boarding buses on Monday morning dressed in Canadian uniforms.

 Canadians went home dressed as Americans. Canadian berets especially were at a premium and one American troop has adapted the headgear as its own in defiance of U.S. Scouting regulations.

A camp newspaper "The Scope Scoop", was published during the weekend. It reported, among other items, that the computers had goofed and sent a Thornhill boy into billets at Brampton, and that one American Scout had been suspended from class in Canada in the belief that he was a Canadian.
 The boys slept under canvas, experiencing the first frost of the season. They cooked their own food in the open and looked after themselves so well that the base hospital on the site reported no serious injuries or illnesses. The Scouts set up their own communication system — both telephones and walkie talkies — at the camp and were in touch with their Philadelphia base throughout the weekend by ham radio.
 The camp took more than a year to plan but was so successful that it is expected to become a regular event.

The annual Boy Scout Apple Day in York Summit District will be held October 19.

Delay Decision Case Arising Officer's Death

A decision will be given in Newmarket Magistrate's Court October 15 on a charge of careless driving laid against a Newmarket man following the death of Constable Gerry Mills of Whitchurch Township Police in an accident on Don Mills Road, May 29.

Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake heard three hours of testimony and legal argument October 8 in the case against Armin Garner, 44, of 161 Prospect Street, Newmarket. He then adjourned the case indicating he wanted time to consider more closely the respective arguments of the prosecution and defence. Earlier he termed the case "a very difficult" one.

An original charge of dangerous driving against Garner was withdrawn by Crown Attorney Arleigh
 Armstrong.
 Garner is being defended by Douglas Carruthers of Du Vernet, Carruthers, Beard and Eastman, Toronto.
 Constable Mills was hit and killed by a northbound car while investigating a minor accident on Don Mills Road, just south of Vandorf, on a foggy afternoon.
 The Crown called six witnesses, five police officers and a lady, Miss Elizabeth Jackson, who was involved in the accident being investigated by Constable Mills at the time of his death.
 Defence counsel called no witnesses, but subjected several of the Crown witnesses to vigorous cross-examination.
