Teenage Girl Dies In Accident At Don Mills And 17th Avenue

An accident at the intersection of 17th Avenue and Don Mills Road on Saturday evening claimed the life of 18-year-old Carolyn Wright, of RR 2 Gormley, whose father Harold Wright is a regional administrator of training for CBC in the Toronto area.

The tragedy occurred only a few minutes after Miss Wright left her home on Don Mills Road, between 18th and 19th Avenues, a passenger in a Corvair being driven south on Don Mills by Diana Derry, 17, of North Taylor Mills Drive, Richmond Hill.

Miss Derry was admitted to York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, with a broken nose, face injuries and possible internal injuries.

Her car collided with a Volkswagen being driven by Hans Bueschle, 24, of VanHorne Avenue, Willowdale, as the latter car was turning left from Don Mills Road onto 17th Avenue.

The Corvair travelled over 100 feet before crashing through several guard posts and into a tree on the edge of a pond in a private yard.

Bueschle, who was not injured, was charged by Markham Township Police with failing to yield the right of way.

The accident was investigated by Constable Glen Forrester.

SERIOUS CONDITION

A Scarborough woman is in very serious condition in Scarborough General Hospital after being involved in an accident on Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Birchmount and Steeles Avenues, Markham Township Police report.

Edelgard Hucke, 42, of 24 Bow Valley Drive, lost control of her car as she was driving west on Steeles Avenue and smashed into the side of a car being driven by 80-year-old Herbert Kennedy of Glenwaford Drive, Agincourt.

Kennedy was driving at about 30 mph when the Hucke car fish-tailed and went out of control.

Edelgard Hucke suffered a broken pelvis and broken ribs, lacerations to her head and legs and severe shock. On arriving at hospital an emergency operation was performed on her.

Damage to her car, a Chevrolet was about $2,000. The Kennedy car sustained $500 damages. Constable Terry Hill able in use and the staff room also serves as a library with consequent conflict of use. The health room is used by the health nurse, the psychologist, speech therapist, remedial teacher, French teacher and for storing audio-visual equipment, science equipment and duplicating supplies and work. Sometimes the scheduling tends to be a little tight, especially if someone is ill and using the couch in the room.

Superintendent of Schools Gordon McIntyre pointed out that when grades 7 and 8 are removed to a senior school, which was the next step planned by the space board, most of the space problems would be solved. "This would do away with the portable and give us a room for the library," Mr. Hincis agreed.

Reporting that she had taken a class to the Royal Museum in Toronto another teacher asked about the possibility of more trips of this kind. "The children learned so much from seeing and experiencing and using all their senses. It was also surprising that although these children came from the affluent area of Richmond Hill, most of them had never been to the museum, Massey Hall, city hall or had seen the Toronto-Dominion Centre, except on Richmond Hill's skyline," she reported.

Asked what they would be prepared to give up to have more excursions, a senior grade teacher said, "Half my kids would give their right arms to go to Cedar Glen." (Last spring a grade 8 class from Pleasantville spent three days at Cedar Glen on a science excursion.) Other teachers from the primary division replied, "Blackboards, textbooks, desks."

When another senior grade teacher wondered what would happen to the teaching staff suggestions in the future, Mrs. Simpson assured him that all suggestions from the teaching staff will be incorporated in a report requested by ISOC. "All we have learned from you will be passed on in a precise form as coming from our people. When a change is being considered the new board will know what has been planned and what has been suggested by the teachers who have worked in our schools. "I would hope that one of the first things that will happen is that grades 7 and 8 will disappear from this school. This would solve a lot of your problems," interjected Superintendent McIntyre. "If we were going to carry on as a board our next move would have been to get all grades 7 and 8 into a senior school system."

IGNORES BAN

A man who was convicted of impaired driving in Richmond Hill Magistrate's Court on Monday, was charged the same night with driving while his licence was under suspension.

Louis C. Pineau, 49, of RR 3 Mount Albert, was fined $100 plus costs on an impaired driving charge and had his licence automatically suspended for three months.

Then at 12 o'clock Monday night he drove into a gas pump at Han's BA on Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill, and was subsequently charged.

A charge of failing to yield the right of way was laid against Leslie Moreby, 63, of Bayview Avenue, Richmond Hill, following an accident October 23 at the intersection of Newkirk Road and Centre Street.

Moreby was westbound on Centre Street crossing the intersection when in collision with a car driven by Patrick Killeen, 47, of Beechy Drive, Richmond Hill.

A Richmond Hill man was charged with failing to remain at the scene of an accident and with failing to signal a left turn after a collision on Bayview Avenue at Bayview Secondary School October 25.

Alvin Pegelo, 32, of 387 Alper Street, Richmond Hill, passed a northbound vehicle driven by Lawrence Kehoe, 20, of Oshawa, pulled sharply in front and clipped the Kehoe vehicle, causing minor damage. He then failed to stop, police report.

VAUGHAN ACCIDENTS

A car driven by Pamela Burton of Kleinburg was in collision with a car driven by James Jackson of Maple on the Kleinburg Road on Sunday. Total damage to the cars was $1,000.

John MacKay of Weston was crossing Keele Street on the Maple Sideroad on Saturday when he lost control of his car which smashed into a light standard causing $1,200 damage to the car.

Maple Sideroad was the scene of a rear-end collision Friday October 25 when a truck driven by Robert Amos of Richmond Hill banged into the back of a car driven by Paul Jensen of Richmond Hill. Damage to the car was $300.

All three accidents were investigated by Vaughan Township Police.

Susan Jane Green Is Bride of Edward Russell

Wed In Lindsay

Standards of yellow and white gladiol formed the setting in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Lindsay August 10, when Susan Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Green of Lindsay, became the bride of Edward William, son of Mrs. Vera Russell and the late Henry Russell of Richmond Hill.

Reverend O. G. Locke officiated and the soloist Patricia Gill of Lindsay sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Robert Tompkins of Lindsay.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a skimmer-type full length gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta. Daisy appliques accentuated the hemline, the full detachable train, sleeves and bodice. She wore wrist-length gloves trimmed with seed pearls and a strand of cultured pearls, gift of the groom. Holding her veil of double illusion was a cluster of daisy appliques dotted with tiny crystals and she carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and yellow and white carnations.

Sandra Green, sister of the bride from Hamilton, was the maid-of-honor and bridesmaids were Darlene Green (sister-in-law of the bride) of Pembroke, Joan Beaton (sister of the groom) of Willowdale and Dyan Armstrong of Richmond Hill.

They were gownned in floor-length turquoise spray silk chiffon featuring round necklines. The bell sleeves and detachable trains were constructed from Swiss lace and their accessories consisted of white wrist-length gloves and bouquets of yellow and white carnations. Complementing their outfits, they wore headresses of chiffon petals and veiling.

The flower girl, little Claudette Woods from Weston, was charming in a white silk and chiffon dress styled with flowers at the waistband and real flowers in her hair.

Assisting the groom was Doug Armstrong of Richmond Hill as best man and Richard Green, (brother of the bride) of Pembroke; Alex Russell, (brother of the groom) of Richmond Hill and Reg Pemberton, (friend of the groom) of Willowdale as the ushers.
