meeting PEOPLE

Muriel Rose, 22 Richmond Street returned home from York Central Hospital Oct. 23 after suffering a bout of pneumonia. Muriel was in hospital for a week and is very thankful to all her friends and neighbors who sent flowers and gifts and made phone calls and also to those good people who kept the home fires burning while she was indisposed.

There are several people in the village who have been under the weather with the 'flu that is going the rounds once again. Marilyn Third, 5 Weller Cres. and Shirley Shields, 21, Railway Street and her five-year-old daughter Lesley and my husband Derek were among the victims.

Joan Creighton, Naylon Street, had a nasty fall at her cottage on Kahshe Lake last weekend and as a result is covered with very colorful bruises.

Eleanor James, 59 Lancer

IN THE VILLAGE OF MAPLE

Drive was taken to York Central Hospital October 21 and is now minus her appendix. A speedy recovery is wished her by all her friends and neighbors.

St. Stephen's Anglican Church
Dr. Ramsay Armitage has the honor of attending the 50th anniversary of the armistice in the ceremonies in France and Belgium this year as a member of the "Survivor Contingent". Therefore he will be absent from St. Stephen's for the first two Sundays of November.

Rev. Norman Green, curator of the new McLaughlin planetarium, Toronto, will preach at the morning services November 3 and 10 at 11 am. There will be no celebration of Holy Communion at 8 am on these two Sundays, but on Dr. Armitage's return November 17 Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 11 am service.

Bazaar
The annual Christmas bazaar and bake sale will take place this Saturday commencing at 1:30 pm in the church hall.

Be there at 1:30 if you wish to buy any goodies from the bake table, as they always disappear like magic. The hostess table with home preserves, candies and delicatessen items is also very popular. There will be Christmas decorations, toys and beautiful aprons, also flowers from the gardens of Maple.

Bring the children along to enjoy the fun of the fish pond, the white elephant and under $1 tables.

The organizers of the bazaar will be setting up the tables Friday evening, and any donations to the various tables will be accepted at that time. Items will be picked up if you call Muriel Yates at 832-2428.

Come along on Saturday and bring a friend and stay and have a cup of tea and relax for a few minutes before going home with your purchases.

Maple United Church
The 99th anniversary of Maple United Church took place October 28 with an excellent congregation at both morning and evening services.

Rev. Norman Bogers based his sermon on the words written in the Book of Daniel, Christ sending forth the 12 disciples. We must all have the faith of Daniel to fall back on, but like Christ we must all go forward, he said. The church choir sang two numbers during the service "Like as The Hart" by Novello and "Jesus The Very Thought of Thee" by Thiman.

At the evening service the Rev. Douglas Davis of Stouffville was the guest speaker who took as his text Jeremiah 18 verses 1-8, "The Divine Potter."

The Stouffville AOTS Glee Club sang four numbers during the service among them "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" and "The Old Rugged Cross" and they sang the 23rd Psalm as the anthem. After the service the Glee Club entertained the congregation for a half hour in the church hall with several numbers including "Charmaine", "Hello Dolly", "How Great Thou Art" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic".

This glee club is going to Akron, Ohio, in two weeks time to give a concert and sing at a church service and these numbers are some they will use there.

Cancer Society
The annual meeting of the Maple Branch, cancer society, was held at the home of Mrs. Lorne Wells October 26 at 2 pm with Mrs. G. M. Hamilton in the chair.

The campaign report given by Co-Chairman Mrs. David Anderson in the absence of Chairman Mrs. R. James, revealed that $4,930.32 had been collected during the campaign for funds in April. This was accomplished through the hard work of the captains and the canvassers and the generosity of the people of the district.

The officers for the coming year, 1968-69, are President Mrs. Lorne Wells, Vice-President Mrs. J. Irvine, Secretary Mrs. H. C. Elkins, Campaign Chairman Mrs. R. James, Co-Chairman Mrs. D. V. Anderson, Education Chairman Mrs. M. Clendennan, Co-Chairman Mrs. J. Irvine, Maintenance and Nominating Chairman Mrs. H. C. Elkins, Medical Advisory Chairman Dr. R. A. Bigford, Publicity Chairman Miss Pat MacLachlan, Service to Patients Chairman, Mrs. J. La Riviere.

Dressings Mrs. D. Weese, Transportation Mrs. C. Rose, Co-Chairman Mrs. A. A. Amos, Visiting Mrs. T. J. James. Delegate to district council Mrs. L. Wells.

The president thanked everyone for their help and willingness during the past year.

Mrs. Wells on behalf of the executive thanked Mrs. Hamilton, the retiring president, for her leadership and many hours of helpfulness to all members during her years in office.

The central counties annual district meeting held at Mart Kenney's Ranch October 10 in the form of a dinner meeting was attended by Patsy MacLachlan, Marg Wells, Muriel Rose and Marg Amos.

Joseph Gibson School
Principal Roy Robson reports that the head nurse at York Central Hospital was very impressed by the good behavior of all children involved in the accident between a school bus and a truck last Monday and because of this the hospital staff was able to look after them more efficiently.

The grade 4 classes this week are going on the Centennial tour taken by last year's grade 4 classes.

In the near future the grade 5 classes are visiting the Toronto Art Gallery.

October 28 saw a cool spell at the school when the workmen on the new addition broke a pipe connected to the heating system.

Maple Home and School
The November meeting of the home and school association will take place at Joseph Gibson Junior School November 6 at 8 pm (please note the new time) when Malcolm McRoberts of the Burlington Outdoor Research Centre will be the speaker supported by members of the teaching staff of the school, Mr. McRoberts will discuss the concept of outdoor education as it relates to all subjects, not just plant and animal life, and how the school teachers follow up each visit to the centre with work in the classrooms to further the education of our children.

Lions Club
Don't forget to attend the annual Lions auction sale at community centre this Saturday, commencing at 12 noon. There will be many items on sale from appliances to toys, crockery to furniture, maybe something you need. Refreshments will be sold in the hall.

It is not too late to give one of the Lions members a call if you have something to donate, they will pick it up whenever you say. Remember all money received from this auction sale goes to charity for the good of the community, and your help is needed.

Apple Day
Saturday, November 2 the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs of Maple will be out in full force selling apples. This is the main source of funds for the Scout movement so be generous when one of the boys comes to your door.

Once Upon A Time

Some Maple pre-schoolers are seen above, enjoying the regular Thursday morning story hour at Maple Public Library. A group of about 15 youngsters are attending this year, from 10.30 to 11.15 in the morning. Story teller in the picture is Mrs. Marian Lavender, one of nine volunteer mothers who take turns at the job.

The Maple Library is located on Merino Road, just west of Keele Street. It is open every afternoon from 12 to 5 and Tuesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9, Saturdays 10 am to 1 pm. The library also displays art work by local residents and at present has a showing of paintings by Roy Robson, principal of Joseph Gibson Junior School.

Kleinburg Klarion

Junior Public School

Principal John Martin of Kleinburg Junior Public School reports that 30 pupils from grades 3 and 4 will tour to Port Arthur, leaving by train October 28 from Alliston. They will be accompanied by Mr. Martin, John Kerr, Barbara MacKinnon, Joy Greenlaw of the teaching staff and Mrs. O. Malvaer and Mrs. Eunice Swartout, chaperones.

The children raised money by a bake sale, rummage sale, fun fair, and two movies in Mackenzie Senior School. The 96 students in two grade threes and two grade fours divided by their own choice into forestry, rivers, pond, and maps groups. The forestry group chose to visit a lumber camp.

Earlier this fall, all the children visited Burlington Outdoor Resources Centre, a retail lumber business and a gravel business. They will visit the Canadian Car plant in Port Arthur where a conducted tour will enlighten them on the manufacture of woodland machinery and a demonstration will be given on the use of these machines.

The first night will be spent at the Centennial Park Bush Camp which is a reconstructed loggers' camp with cookhouse, bunkhouse, etc. Films will be shown about the lakehead and about the logging industry. The youngsters will tour Northern Wood and Northern Forest Products Mills, the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests tree farm, Boreal Timber Ltd., Camp No. 503 near Nollia, 140 miles east of Port Arthur. They will return home by train to Alliston October 31 in time for Hallowe'en night outings.

Construction will soon be started at Kleinburg Junior School on the addition of four classrooms and a library resource centre.

With The Sick
Charlie McTaggart, Islington Avenue, is a patient in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto.

UNITED WHO??

Yes, "United Breeders" is what the man said, Arabella. The familiar voice at the familiar number didn't say

"Central Ontario Cattle Breeders"

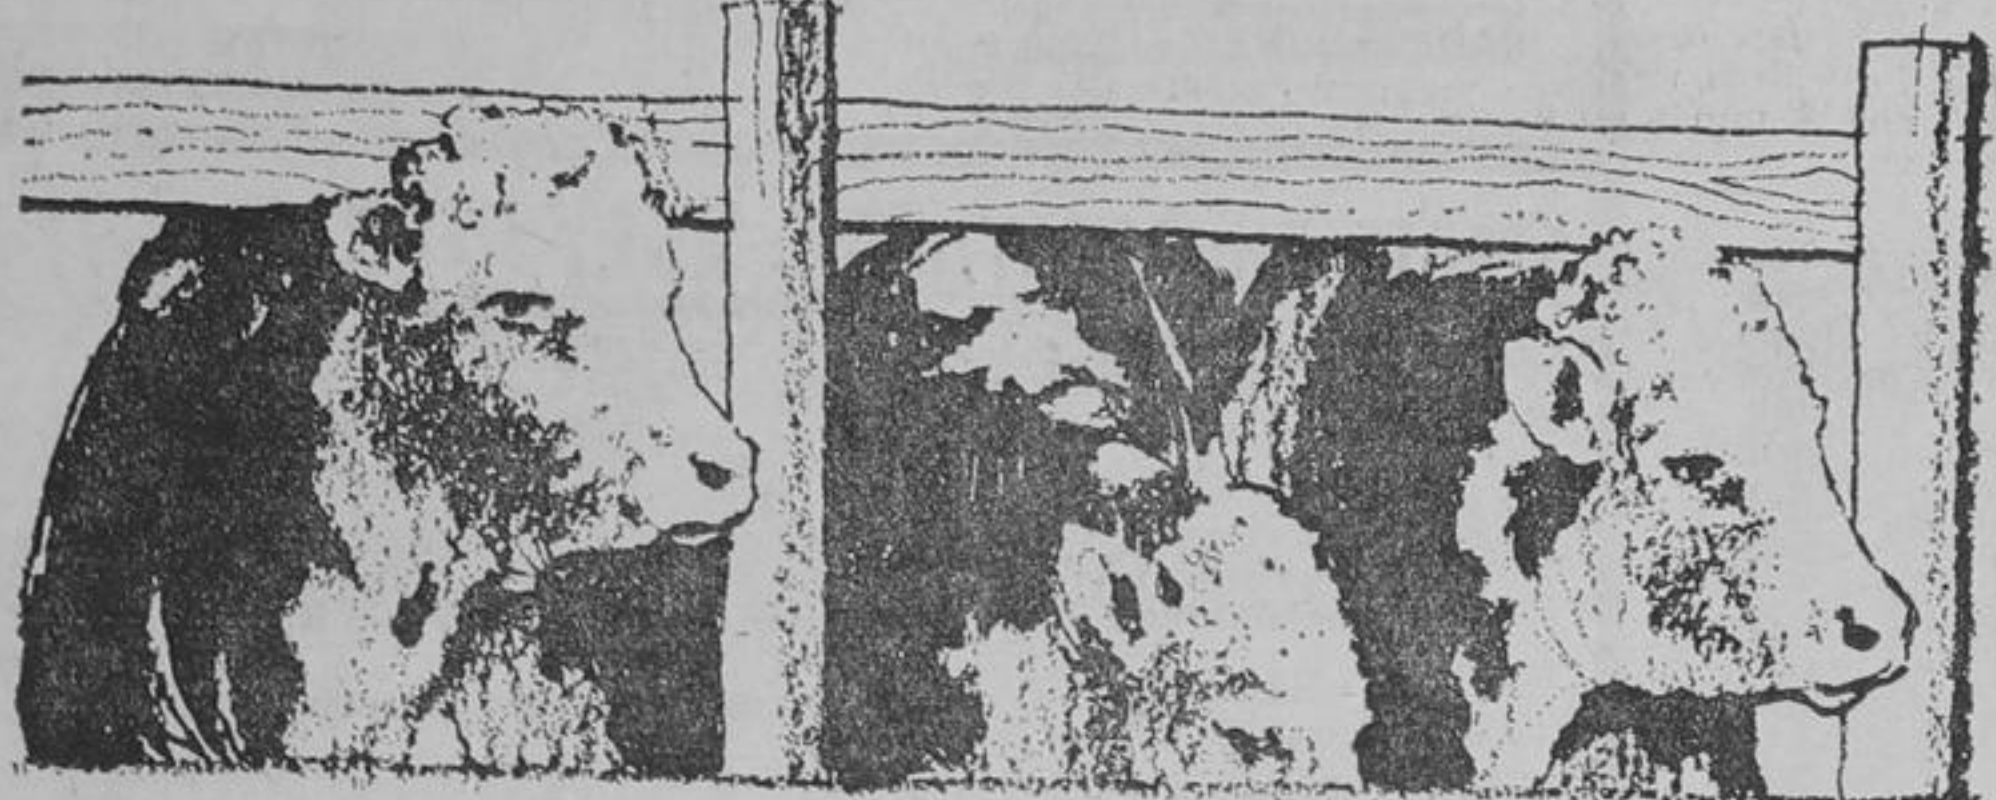

or "Waterloo Cattle Breeders"

or "Lambton Cattle Breeders"

You see we're all one now. We've united to provide an artificial insemination service that will give you not only a better calf next year, but even better ones in the years to come.

So don't worry about being a two-timer Arabella. You will get the same sires as always, by calling the offices listed in your new phone book under —

$1000 grows to $2500

with Canada Savings Bonds

Buy yours today!

$250 for each $100. That's what you can get with this year's Canada Savings Bonds. Here's how.

The new Bonds have fourteen regular annual interest coupons which can be cashed each year as they come due. The first pays 5.75%; the second, 6.50%; the next three, 6.75%; each, and the last nine a big 7.00% each. Total regular annual interest amounts to $95.50 on each $100 Bond.

If you choose you may hold all these regular annual interest coupons uncashed until your Bond matures. If you do, you will then get interest on your interest totalling an additional $54.50 on each $100 Bond.

At maturity, therefore, you can get back total interest of $150 plus your original $100 investment. This way each $100 Canada Savings Bond becomes worth $250. Other denominations can grow at the same exciting rate.

Adults, children, businesses and institutions—all may buy Canada Savings Bonds. They are available in convenient amounts of $50 up to $50,000 for cash or on instalments, wherever you work, bank or invest. And, as always, Canada Savings Bonds are cashable any time at full face value plus earned interest.

Few investments are so profitable. None builds more surely for the future. Buy Canada Savings Bonds and make your savings really grow.
