DEFEAT BRADFORD

With every boy working hard and showing good teamwork Richmond Hill won 5-3. Congratulations to the team and to Coach Clubine and thanks to the parents who provided transportation and supplied moral support.

Surf Marine Minor Bantams Capture Two Shutouts Over The Weekend

NOVICES
CFGM 5, Oshawa 2
 Wednesday night last week Richmond Hill CFGM Country Gentlemen journeyed to Oshawa for an exhibition game which ended with a score of CFGM 5 - Oshawa 2.

The line of Danny Jones, Bobby Putnam and Malcolm Johnston accounted for four of the team's five goals, with Danny getting two, and Bobby and Malcolm one each. David Forbes picked up the other goal and assists were awarded to Gordon Forbes with two and Putnam, Johnston, Glen Tatum, Gordon Bedwell and Jones with one each.

CFGM 8, South Shore 0
 Friday the Hill lads took on South Shore and gave them an 8-0 shellacking. Again Doug Hughes and Ben Bourget, sharing netminding duties, shared the shutout.

Goalgetters were Danny Jones with a hat trick (three goals plus an assist), Defence-man Mike Ham with a pair and Kyle Chaffield, Malcolm Johnston and Bobby Monaco each with a singleton. Assists went to Bobby Putnam with two, Ross Simpson, Gordon Sinfield and Monaco each with one.

The local boys realize that the South Shore boys haven't had much ice time so far this season and the next meeting may tell a different story.

Don Valley 13 - CFGM 1
 Seeking top-rate competition for the local team, the coaching staff invited Don Valley Minor Atoms, a hot aggregation who are well up in IHL standing, to visit the Hill Sunday night. The visitors showed CFGM how to play hockey as they completely outlasted their hosts and ran up a 13-1 score.

Kyle Chaffield, unassisted, gave CFGM its only scoreboard entry, in a fast and clean game.

CFGM will go to Barrie Wednesday, host Alliston Friday night and Sunday play an as yet undetermined opponent.

ATOMS
Lost Two
 Richmond Hill's Atoms lost two games last weekend, when they bowed 14-0 to Bradford Peeewees Saturday night and 4-0 in Brampton on Sunday. Coach Joe Ranieri reports his boys never quit and gave it a good try in both games with peeewe opponents. He had special words of praise for Craig Richardson and Gerry Tipold who shared goaltending duties.

PEEWEES
Lions 3, Gold Star 3
 November 5 the Lions tied the Gold Star combination from Toronto 3-3.

Gold Star opened the scoring but Jimmy Graham, assisted by Dave Berseht, countered with a goal to even it up. Gold Star scored again and again the Lions got the equalizer, Kevin McKeage being the marksman, assisted by Mike Cronkwright and Eric Kivimaki. Jimmy Clement put the Lions ahead, helped by Jeff Switzer, but Gold Star managed to score the tying counter.

Neither team was skating and the contest degenerated into a real game of shilly.

Lions 4, South Shore 0
 In the third league game Friday night, the Lions whitewashed the boys from Lake Simcoe's South Shore, defeating them 4-0. Bob Belanger got the first tally in the first minute of play. He was assisted by Donny McPhee. McPhee scored the second goal on a pass from Belanger, as the game developed into a hard-going see-saw battle for a time.

The Lions' third goal was netted by Tom Lamb from Clement and Ricky Sackfield in the third period, and Sackfield added the fourth, aided by Lamb and Billy Stephenson.

It was a good game, with South Shore putting up a better fight than the score would indicate.

Sunday the Lions met Don Valley Harveys, one of the top Toronto teams and suffered a 5-2 defeat. Harveys scored one goal in the first period and one goal in the second. Then Donny McPhee scored for the Lions, assisted by Bob Belanger in the third period and Harveys added three to make it 5-1. McKeage scored on a pass from Switzer and Clement in the last two minutes of play to make the final count 5-2.

Although the Lions skated with Harveys, the Toronto team outshot them by a good margin. It is hoped that when the teams meet again in about two weeks time, the Hillers will be able to give a better accounting of themselves.

MINOR BANTAMS
Two Shutouts
 A goal by Dave Dunkley midway through the first period gave the Richmond Hill Minor Bantam Surf Marines a 1-0 win Sunday over North Etobicoke in the local arena.

The victory before a large crowd came after a rugged, hard-hitting encounter against Etobicoke's which held previous wins over the Marlie and Faustina Minor Bantam squads.

The Marlies were walloped York Mills Minor Bantams 6-0 Saturday in a game played at York University Arena.

Sunday's game against Etobicoke saw Dunkley break the scoreless tie in the opening period as he took passes from Terry Rice and Greg Woloski to drive home the puck.

Stout defensive work at both ends of the rink was the order of the day as neither team could break through during the down there but we won't go into that.

So, in conclusion, if the Rams can come up with some more hockey like that — win or lose — they should be drawing even more spectators. Smith's coaching experience seems to be getting through.

The object of all this, in case you're wondering, is simple: Drop around Sunday night and watch the youngsters. The game starts at 7:30, is over by 9:30 or so. This week it's Newmarket.

MYSTERY SOLVED
 I've always wondered what these dentists do with their spare time. Anytime I see them it's always at the wrong end of some ferocious looking weapon.

Well, at last the secrets out.

I learned this past week that dentists — at least one of them, anyway, which is a good start — play handball in their sparetime. Yass.

His name is Dr. Joe Dryer of 59 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill (he pulled a tooth for me last summer and it wasn't my last one either) and he's just won the Toronto Handball Association City "B" championship.

To quote the notice I received via Harold McLean, Secretary, Toronto Handball Association: "Dr. Joe Dryer completely outclassed his opponent B. Krill from the West End Y.

"Joe, who plays handball at least three times a week at the YMHA in Toronto plays a real heady type game. Not being an aggressive type player he is content to keep the ball in play and wears his opponent down. Of course this type of game demands top condition so Joe does a little running on the side."

HOCKEY TOURNEY
 And another little note. Ken Ham, who is busy putting together this year's Legion program for the Second Annual Midget Tournament come March 16 to 22, informs of the following.

That a letter was received by the committee from the president of the Kapuskasing Minor Hockey Association to wit:

The Kapuskasing prexy attended the first tourney last season, as a spectator was so impressed by it, that the association is sending a team down. Here's the rub: The association can only afford one tourney a year and they liked the one here last season so much they're going to make that "major" tournament the one in Richmond Hill. Nice news to hear.

The tournament executive has also sent out letters of application to some 70 teams and the replies are coming in steadily. This year's tournament will feature 32 teams. Much more on this later.

POLICE WIN
 And these Richmond Hill Policemen (sponsored by the way by Perry-Hill Wood Products of Richmond Hill) continue to roll merrily along.

The policemen edzed a Metro "House League" All-Star team 8-7 last Sunday night. Larry Wall led the way with three goals followed by Brian Thurston with two, John Moorhead with 2 and Jim Stunden with one.

They play the Toronto Stock Exchange this Sunday night at 9:30 in the old arena. The locals have won all of their five games this season.

YEA, ARGOS
 Item: The Toronto Argos will be in the Grey Cup — sometime in November of 1969 or 70. Sorry, you gotta have head, not heart this year.
