An exhibit of fine art by Arnold Hodgkins of the Deer Foot Gallery will be shown at the annual "Old English Tea" being held this Saturday from 2 - 5 pm at Victoria Square Community Centre by Gormley, Headford and Victoria Square Branches of the YCHA.

Mr. Hodgkins is a well known member of the community and former teacher at Stouffville High School.

Tickets at 50 cents include refreshments and door prizes and are available at the door.

Receives $1,500 Scholarship

David Pattenden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pattenden of Benson Avenue, has recently been awarded a $1,500 entrance scholarship to the Faculty of Law at Queen's University, Kingston.

David, a graduate of Richmond Hill High School and former school teacher, graduated from Queen's with his BA degree in 1967 and MA in 1968.

The November meeting of the 8th Richmond Hill Scouts and Cubs Ladies' Auxiliary was held November 6 at the local library.

A new member, Mrs. Kim Barker, was welcomed by the auxiliary.

Following the business meeting, members enjoyed an interesting tour of the library when acting Librarian Mrs. Maureen Stephenson and staff members Mrs. Josie Fleming and Mrs. Nada Berry explained the inner workings of the library.

The tour included aspects of library service which involves processing, reference work and behind the scenes clerical duties.

Refreshments followed.

For their next meeting the auxiliary are having a theatre night at the Curtain Club Theatre.

The Women's Committee of the NDP, York Centre Association, met at the home of Mrs. Eva Philip, 50 Sussex Avenue, to complete plans for their mammoth fall fair and auction sale to be held from 1 - 4 pm on November 23 in the Lions Hall.

There will be many departments such as handmade articles, toys, homebaking and books, as well as secondhand clothing and white elephants.

The auction sale will start promptly at 2 pm and tea and a piece of lemon pie will be available for 25 cents.

Everyone welcome.

Dr. Egerton Young, secretary of the missionary and maintenance department, will be at Richmond Hill United Church on Sunday next and will take part in the worship service.

The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered November 24 and parents wishing to have their children baptized are requested to make arrangements with the church office.

New regulations for the junior congregation are now in effect, and only children aged 6-inclusive will be eligible to attend. Younger children will be provided for as usual in the nursery and kindergarten during church.

The CBC television program, Eight Day Year, a documentary of the Royal Winter Fair on Saturday last, showed a delightful study of Virginia Redelmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier of Don Head Farms.

She was seen on the farm with her Jersey calf, Don Head Limelight Tony — reserve junior champion at the 1967 CNE — and also at the fair, which she has attended regularly since childhood, and obviously from her comments, has thoroughly enjoyed.

Unfortunately she will not be attending the Royal Winter Fair this year, as she left in September to commence her studies at Atlantic College in Wales.

Boys and girls of Richmond Nursery School, located at 168 Ruggles Avenue, were guests on Friday last of Manfred Hundert, operator of Valhalla Riding School on 18th Avenue, whose daughter Inga is enrolled at the school.

There was a guided tour of the tack room and stables, which house 40 horses, followed by refreshments served in the lounge.

It was a very exciting afternoon for the school, highlighted by Mr. Hundert saddling his training horse, Apollo, to give the older children rides in the indoor arena, and giving the tiny tots a ride on a small pony, Nicky.

Joan Plume will appear this Friday evening, November 15, at the North York Public Library in a recital sponsored by the Ontario Registered Music Teachers Association.

She will be heard in two songs, "When Daisies Pied" by Thomas Arne and "Voi che Sapete" from the Marriage of Figaro by Mozart.

She will sing for the North York Scholarship recital being held in May and also for the semi-final auditions for the 1969 Toronto-wide scholarships next November.

Joan is a member of St. Matthew's United Church and has also appeared as soloist at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

She is a pupil of the vocal studio of Joan Hall RCAD RMT.

Morning Metro
Appearing this Thursday, November 14, at 8.30 am on the CFTO Channel 9 program, Morning Metro, will be Rev. James O'Neill, who is playing the role of Archbishop Thomas Becket in the T. S. Eliot drama, Murder in The Cathedral, being presented this Thursday, Friday and Saturday in St. Mary's Anglican Church.

He will be discussing the role and the play with Rene McKenzie, program producer.

Programs for reserved seats for this production may be obtained by calling Dorothy Plaxton 884-2913 or Marni Twidale 889-1401.

Rehearsals are well underway for All Things Bright And Beautiful, which opens November 29 at the Curtain Club Theatre, rear of 25 Yonge Street North.

Superficially the play is a riotous north-country comedy about a family of rogues whose home in a condemned slum terrace house resembles a thieves' kitchen. But behind the robust language, the earthy humor and the slovenly characters beats the heart of a moving play.

The local production is in the very capable hands of Ron Scott and the talented cast includes Kingsley Owen, Trevor Stanley, Graham Bailey, Iris Stringer, George Jones (all well known to local audiences) and Kay Griffin, Yvette Steel, Dave Twigg and John Illingsworth, making their first appearance on the Curtain Club stage.

As in a previous production, The Egg Kingsley Owen has undertaken two roles, that of one of the leading actors and set designer. In both regards his professional approach assures audiences of an excellent performance and an artistic, authentic set.

Tickets for the play may be obtained by calling Peggy Hiscoke at 884-8073 — don't be disappointed, reserve them today.

Receiving an excellent review for his role as Judge Pepperleigh in Sunshine Town currently running at the Royal Alexandra Theatre is Dennis Thatcher, a former resident of Richmond Hill.

5th Richmond Hill Scout Ladies' Auxiliary will meet November 20 at 8 pm at Richmond Hill United Church. Scoutmaster Earl Cook and his well-qualified B Troop will give a demonstration of first aid. This will be followed by a penny auction, with Vice-President Yvonne Sale as the lively auctioneer. All mothers are invited to come with their buried treasures.

Congratulations are extended to the Scouts, Cubs, Venturers and their leaders for a job well done on Apple Day. The results compared quite favorably with last year.

Gregory E. Benton of 67 Walmer Road, Richvale, has a leading role in the Bishop's University production of The Horse by Julius Hay, to be presented at the university theatre November 21, 22 and 23. Bishop's students will make up the cast of 30, provide the music and have designed the sets. Professor David Rittenhouse is the producer.

Prior to going to the university, Gregory, a graduate of Richmond Hill High School, was very active in St. Mary's Anglican Church and received early training under the tutelage of Rev. James O'Neill, assisting with the service whenever possible and as chairman of the Altar Servers Guild.

Bishop's University has a long tradition of interesting and progressive dramatic activity. Last year their production of The Sport Of My Mad Mother won the Canadian Universities Drama League Festival.

A meeting was held last month at the Villa Hospital to discuss plans for forming an auxiliary.

Program Director Mrs. M. Barentin chaired the meeting and using the hospital auxiliary booklet outlined the many ways in which the forming of an auxiliary could benefit the Villa — working in every facet of the hospital, fund raising etc.

A further meeting is being held November 21 at 8 pm, when it is hoped to elect an executive and start a membership campaign.

All young girls interested in working in a hospital are invited to attend a meeting of the Volunteers being held the following day November 22 at 7.30 pm. This group is an essential part of an auxiliary and to those who are considering a nursing career provides an invaluable training.

If you feel you can help in any capacity a warm welcome will await you at either of these meetings — November 21 and 22 — in the lounge at the Villa. Further information may be obtained by calling Jean Burn at 884-5526.

R. H. Senior Citizens
There was an excellent attendance at the annual bazaar held on Saturday last by the local Senior Citizens Club and the event was a great financial success.

Winners of the two quilts in the draw were Mrs. M. Deaman, Dufferin Court and S. West-Gaul, Benson Avenue, Afghan, Mrs. Elsie Astin, Laverock Avenue, cake, Mrs. Alice Bennett, Centre Street West, and flowers, Mrs. Rose Capwell of Ruggles Avenue.

The executive would like to take this opportunity of thanking the bazaar convenors and assistants, and the public for their wholehearted support, and hope to see them all again at the next project.

Dates to Remember:
November 15, members will be entertained at Legion Court by the ladies' auxiliary of Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion, with their current presentation "375 Showboat".

November 16, members have challenged the ladies' auxiliary of the legion to a dart match to be held at the day centre.

November 21, the Richvale Senior Citizens are hosting an evening of entertainment, starting at 8 pm in the Lions Hall, Spruce Avenue.

December 10, Christmas dinner, limited to members only. Tickets must be reserved without delay, please call 1st Vice-President Grace Savers at 884-1316 or President Bert Pattenden, 884-1388.

Almost everyone has a special dish which family or friends enjoy — why not share the recipe with our readers, be it main course, dessert or snack? Each week one will be published in this column — how about yours?

TROPICAL TRIFLE
3 cups cubed angel cake
Sherry
Small can apricots
Small package silvered almonds
1/2 pint whipping cream
Spread angel cake in bottom of dish. Drizzle with sherry. Drain can of apricots and place over cake. Spread with oven toasted almonds. Save some to garnish. Whip cream and spread over top. Decorate with apricots and almonds.
Chill 6 hours.
Mrs. Jean Pitt.

School Bd. Candidate
A resident of the community for 23 years, Mr. Ross has announced that he will be a candidate for the York County Board of Education from the Town of Richmond Hill.

Mr. Ross has served the community as a public school trustee for five years, as councillor for one year, and as a member of the York Central District High School Board for nine years.

During that time he has been a major contributor to what is recognized as the most progressive school board in the province.

He states that he will continue to work for outstanding educational standards in the county as a member of the new York County Board of Education, and will bring to the task re-organization a working knowledge of both levels of the educational system.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett of Montreal were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. March on Rumble Avenue.

The 8th Richmond Hill Scouts and Cubs held a "going up ceremony" for six Cubs on November 7 and the following boys are now members of the Scout troop: Walter Gimino, Robert Downie, Scott Forsyth, Hugh Hoffland, Geoff Peck and Allen Wylie.

The auxiliary wishes to thank the mothers who sent cookies, which were served along with Freshie and coffee, to the parents, boys and younger members of their families, who were also present on this occasion.

The annual meeting of the group committee followed.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion, assisted their branch during Remembrance week by selling poppies, catering to the dinner honoring the Boer and World War I veterans, and concluding the week by joining in the parade and service on Sunday.

During the past week, Zone Commander Gloria Sanford opened the annual Remembrance Day tea and bazaar at Stouffville, attended the Newmarket tea and bazaar and Senior Citizens tea and bazaar accompanied by President Joan Dickson.

The current show "Showboat 375" will be presented to the Senior Citizens this coming Friday and the auxiliary will be assisted, once again, by the Richmond Hill Chapter of the IOOE, who will be serving the refreshments.

Sing A Song Of Sunshine Town

All residents of Richmond Hill and district are urged to support the York Central Hospital Auxiliary with their current project — a theatre night for the November 21 performance of Sunshine Town at the Royal Alexandra Theatre.

"There was something so gay, so refreshing, so so-called Canadian about Sunshine Town that opening night in the Royal Alex, it just might have been an early spark in the identity we're all fired up with now" . . . "Mavor Moore has proved himself ready for Leicester Square and Broadway. Never before have we seen such high standards of musical comedy created entirely by Canadians!" These reviews sum up Sunshine Town and all the auxiliary ask is that you buy a ticket at regular prices and assure them of a full house, thereby enabling them to purchase much needed equipment for the hospital.

For those without transportation, arrangements have been made for a theatre bus which will leave Thursday evening from Firestone Stores in the Richmond Heights Centre — for $1 return trip.

Sound easy? Sound fun? It is! All you have to do is call Mrs. R. Standfield at 884-1222 to reserve your tickets.

Grandma's Footstools For Christmas Shoppers

Hassocks or footstools — whatever the name, these attractive footrests have been crafted by members of Richmond Hill Presbyterian WA for sale at the annual bazaar and luncheon scheduled for Friday from 11 am to 2 pm.

The day's activities are being sponsored jointly by the WA and the Mary & Martha Guild. The luncheon will feature a variety of casseroles and although tickets have been sold in advance, they will be available at the door.

The bazaar will feature many beautiful articles for gifts or your home and a bake table laden with mouth-watering goodies.

Above Mrs. H. H. MacKay displays the wide variety of upholstered footstools, just like grandma's, that will be available for bazaar shoppers.

Mrs. M. Appleton left on Saturday for her home in Chelsea, London, England, following an extended visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Bridget and Danny Douglas-Crampton at their home on Dufferin Street.

Mrs. W. S. Cook, Mrs. H. D. L. Hill and Mrs. Bruce Lloyd, accompanied by their husbands, attended a reception in Lindsay on Sunday afternoon in honor of the 60th wedding anniversary of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ferguson.

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Sil Steffan expressed their regret at losing the popular couple and their family by numerous farewell parties and gifts recently. Mr. Steffan, a native of Richmond Hill, has been promoted to a position in Sudbury with Retail Credit Co., and assumed his new duties in October. Two weeks ago he was joined by Val, who is already settled in his new school and playing hockey.

Mrs. Steffan and the other two children left for their new home in New Sudbury (on the road to North Bay) last weekend.

The warmth of the farewells expressed prior to their departure was greatly appreciated by the Steffans, who hope that they will be able to return to our community in the future.

OMNI OBLI
Arise and awake you slumbering teens of Richmond Hill, and join OMNI OBLI in a giant winter walkathon from Toronto to the Hill.

Anyone can walk in warm weather, but it takes real determination and fortitude to walk in the wintry winds of December for the benefit of the poor, the oppressed and the unfortunate. It is planned that a number of worthwhile organizations will benefit from the efforts of the young during this walkathon and further information will be circulated when final details are completed.

Foremost on the OBLI agenda is their variety show "Something Catchy" consisting of the talents of the Serfs of OBLI, with music, skits and dancing that will tickle your fancy and titillate your funnybone. Proceeds will be used to further the work of OMNI OBLI among the young people of Richmond Hill.

Other proposed activities include a visitation program for the older citizens of town and a Saturday baby sitting service for mothers wishing to shop in peace.

Regent Chris Campbell introduced a draft of a constitution for the members to accept and a committee was formed to investigate the merits of the constitution and report back to the Serfs for their ultimate approval.

Next week the old OBLI hall will swing with activity as the Serfs prepare for their variety show, with stage scenery being built, skits rehearsed and music practiced. OBLI Hall will be open Tuesday and Thursday after school, and of course, the regular meeting held next Sunday at 7 pm.

Shake off apathy, open TV glazed eyes and go down to OBLI Hall (behind Richmond Hill United Church) and swing with the Serfs of OBLI.

Recently returned from attending the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas-Crampton of Dufferin Street.

Mr. Crampton, who rides and instructs at the Maple Valley School of Horsemanship, was their official photographer for the equestrian events.

The Richmond Hill Knights of Columbus are having their annual collection of good used clothing, ice skates and toys, for the Indians on Christian Island.

Please contact James Doran at 884-7615 for pick-up.

Happiness is roller skating! The Young People of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church have arranged a trip to The Terrace in Toronto this Saturday — roller and ice skating — your choice.

They will meet at the church at 7.30 pm and a welcome is extended to anyone 14 years and over.

Call 884-1265 for further details.

Mr. and Mrs. Annie Haworth and Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Stanley attended the Saturday evening performance of the Scarborough Players' production of The Mousetrap at their Theatre In The Pines.

The play was directed by Ron Scott, who is currently directing All Things Bright And Beautiful, which opens November 29 at the Curtain Club Theatre.

ABOUT SHINGLES (HERPES ZOSTER)
Shingles is a virus infection attacking the nerves. Usually it is a "one sided" disease, since nerves branching out of the spinal cord spread out on each side. It is characterized by a vesicular eruption and severe neuralgic pains arising in the affected nerve root ganglia.
Shingles are more frequent in males and while it may happen to anyone, it is more common after 50. After about the fifth day the eruptions usually dry up and scab. A painful neuralgia may last for years. Diagnosis is difficult in the pre-eruptive stage. A physician is needed.

Two members of Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra — Eleanor Braun, flute, and Ann Sellen, clarinet, visited the kindergarten at Charles Howitt Public School in Richvale recently to play to the children and demonstrate their instruments.
The orchestra is busy rehearsing for two concerts, one in Aurora on November 28, the second at Richmond Hill High School December 5. One of the features of this concert will be Brahms' Symphony No. 1 in C Minor. The composer had this work in mind for nearly 18 years and when he finally finished it at the age of 43, it aroused more controversy than enthusiasm when first performed.
Currently it stands close to the top as a concert favorite, as it is truly an epic work in structure and emotional intensity.
Both junior and adult confirmation classes at St. Mary's Anglican Church will attend the 10.30 service next Sunday morning for an instructed "Eucharist".
In the afternoon they will visit a synagogue.
The Rt. Rev. George B. Snell, Bishop of Toronto, will be present for the annual confirmation being held at 7 pm on Nov. 24.
