Evening Candlelight Ceremony For Chapman-Klinck Wedding

Oakwood Baptist Church was beautifully decorated with candleabra for the double ring wedding ceremony of Bonnie Lynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lorne Klinck and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy Keffer, to Geoffrey Mosely Somerville Chapman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Chapman, Uxbridge, November 22 at 7.30 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. G. McAlpine, pastor of the church, officiated.

The unique wedding music was played on the accordion by Dixie Dean.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked lovely wearing a gown of candlelight satin, fashioned with a soft silhouette skirt with removable chapel train flowing from the waist. The neckline was high and round with a deep band of Venetian lace. The floor-length veil was caught by a camelot headpiece. She wore matching kid gloves given to her by the groom's mother, who wore them at her wedding, and carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations and roses caught with lace ribbons.

Her attendants were Patricia McQueen as maid of honor, Christine Bruder and Jill Davidson, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Tracy Price as bridesmaids. All were gowned alike in gold velvet, trimmed with gold peau de soie. They carried cascades of chrysanthemums and roses in contrasting colors of gold and yellow with fern.

Roy Turk, friend of the groom, was best man and Jim Grey, the groom's cousin and Barry and Garry Klinck, the bride's twin brothers, were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at "The Inn on the Park" in the Park Ballroom. Mrs. Klinck received in a pale green brocade gown with gold accessories. Mrs. Chapman wore turquoise satin-back shantung with silver accessories.

For travelling the bride donned an elegant purple wool suit with white fox trim, a tan leather beret with matching leather accessories.

The young couple spent their honeymoon, via Air Canada, at Montego Bay in Jamaica. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

Out-of-town guests came from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, North Bay and Kitchener.

Oldsters Frolic In Maple

Over 40 people thronged to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple, November 25, for the first meeting of the Maple Senior Citizens Club. Here former Maple Village Trustee Roland Keffer, chairman of the club, gives a name tag to Mrs. B. F. Andrew, wife of the minister of St. Andrew's. The club was started under the joint sponsorship of Maple's four churches, St. Andrew's Presbyterian, St. Stephen's Anglican, Maple United, and Zion Lutheran.

Mary and Jim Davis, 21 Gosling Road were overjoyed last week when they received a phone call last week telling them that their application to adopt a baby girl had been filled. They applied less than a month ago thinking that they might get a daughter in May or early spring at the earliest. However, they now have their baby girl, Elizabeth Jeanne, just three weeks old.

Mary and Jim have three other children, Christine nine, David who was five in May and 21-month-old John. All three are delighted with their new sister.

Congratulations to the Davis family.

Abel Lee, 6 Clemson Crescent was happy that so many people were able to visit the studio exhibition at his home on the weekend of November 23.

Due to the response by area people Abel Lee has given me the details of an exhibition of his work to be held at the W and W Art Galleries, Gallery Yonge, 830 Yonge Street, Toronto to enable you to see more of his work.

The exhibition of printing ink butterflies and retrospective works 1958-68 commences December 9 at 7.30 pm through till December 28. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday 11 am to 5 pm and Thursday 7 pm to 9 pm.

Local people will be especially welcome at the gallery any time during the three-week exhibition.

Laurie's Hardware is missing a familiar face again, our popular Ernie Hemphill, 21 Keele Street North has been a patient in York Central Hospital since November 24 but hoped to be home again very soon.

John Neufeld of King City, but formerly of Keele Street North is holding the fort at the store and will be for a week or two while Ernie convalesces at home.

My eight-year-old son David is sporting a cast on his right arm after a slight accident in the park November 8. As is usual with a cast, it is a collection of signatures for posterity and this cast, if the doctor lets him keep it, will be put in the souvenir box alongside the cast he had on his left arm when he was 16 months old.

The Christmas meeting of the WI will be held at the home of Mrs. Duke Jarrett, Richmond Street, December 11.

The committee will be Mrs. A. Snider, Mrs. N. Payne, Mrs. E. Wade and Mrs. T. Jackson and the roll call will be "A Gift for the Christmas Boxes".

Everyone welcome.

A most encouraging response has been received to the invitations extended to the senior citizens of the area to join together one afternoon a week for social activities.

It is gratifying to see the interest shown in this group and it is felt that everyone enjoyed their afternoon together.

Roland Keffer most ably led the fellowship by welcoming the ladies and gentlemen to the first meeting, after which a cup of tea was served by the ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, assisted by ladies from St. Stephen's Anglican, Zion Lutheran and Maple United Churches.

A singing of Christmas carols was led by Rev. B. F. Andrew accompanied by Mrs. Mil-

Children of St. Stephen's Sunday school enjoyed a movie Sunday morning called "Christmas in Hong Kong". It was a story about a little Chinese refugee boy living in Hong Kong who didn't know what Christmas was all about. As Christmas drew nearer he kept asking people to tell him about Christmas but they were all too busy with preparations to explain the meaning of Christmas to him.

Finally he wandered into a mission that was preparing a Nativity play for the next day and they invited him along to see it. He went home and told his parents but they said he couldn't go, however, he went and the meaning of Christmas was made clear to him and he told his parents about Jesus and finally the family became a Christian family.

Pupils of Joseph Gibson School enjoyed "Pinocchio" presented by the Studio Children's Theatre in Toronto which was formed over two years ago by the Studio Lab Theatre Foundation and is a non-profit organization.

The people involved in the productions are professional actors and they present plays directed at the children, simple but very interesting. They invite audience participation and really make children feel a part of every performance.

The children thoroughly enjoyed the performance and the group promised to come and visit again in the future.

The annual turkey shoot organized by the Lions Club takes place at Shur-Gain Farm this Saturday commencing at 1 pm. Shells will be provided for those who would like to try their luck on any of the cards distributed around the town there is still a couple of days for you to pick the lucky number and maybe win your Christmas dinner.

The "Christmas Fayre" organized by the 1st Maple Guides saw a good number of people turn out despite the Grey Cup. The bake table sold out very quickly and the handicrafts and white elephants did a roaring trade. The fish pond was very popular with the small fry. Brownie Sixers and Seconds served in the tea room and not one single accident occurred in this busy spot.

The lucky winners of the various guessing games were Anne Hoffland, Church Street, who had two flags at an equal distance to the star picked for the treasure which was a Compendium of 66 games. Mrs. Ina Yake, Keele Street North, came closest to the weight of the cake with her guess of 4 lbs, 13 1/2 ozs. and is now in her possession. Tracey Myers, Naylon Street won the doll with her guess of Margaret Ann, the doll was named Belinda Marguerite and Tracey anywhere near it who guessed anywhere near it and Lorraine White, Welton Street who is a Guide came close to the number of candies in the jar with her guess of 393. There were actually 374 in it.

Dr. Ramsay Armistage opened the envelopes at 4.30 pm surrounded by the Guides and was very happy to present the winners with their prizes.

The girls' hockey team is in action again and they played Richmond Hill at Richmond Hill November 27. They lost the game 5-3, but Janet Scott playing a good game getting two of the goals and Brenda Cergie getting 1.

November 30 they won the game 1-0 against Richmond Hill at Doublinck with Maureen Thurston getting the only goal scored.

First series winners November 28 were Prickly Pears with 43 points. Close behind in second place were Lemons with 42. The Kumquat Ltd. team was third with 39. Only one behind in total pin fall were the Figs but with 34 points. Trailing were Sour Grapes, 27 and Hot Tamales with 25.

High scores were: Vera Veres, high average 232, Audrey Rowntree high triple flat 831, high triple handicap 855; Lucille Shaw, high single flat 309 and Lois Lauder high single handicap 338.

Birthdays greetings are extended to 12-year-old Laurel Hill, November 25. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill, Napier Street.

Bert McArthur, daughter Lisa and son Gregory lost their lives in a fire in their farm home, White Schoolhouse Side-road, December 1. Mrs. McArthur, his wife, and two other daughters were away at the time.

Mrs. Earl Shaw, Islington Avenue is a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Victor Ryder whose father Lorne Weldrick, King City, passed away November 28.

Mrs. William Kerr entertained at a birthday party for Mrs. William Donneral the afternoon of November 29. Guests were Mrs. Pearson Neal, Mrs. Harry Maskell, Miss Merle Hamby and Mrs. Charles Mc-

Maple Lions 3, Unionville 5
Robbie Fox led the way in this November 29 contest in Unionville in a losing cause scoring two goals. Charlie Shaw's goal was unassisted. He shot from the point lost his balance and dislocated his shoulder. Assists went to Digby Bourke and Robbie Purves.

Bradford 7, Maple Lions 5
This was a November 30 heartbreaker because at one time the Maple team was leading three goals to zip. The Banks with three goals and one assist, and "Slippery" Billy Kenney with a goal and two assists. Robbie Fox scored the other goal unassisted.

Maple Cleaners 3, Unionville 0
A well-deserved shutout for Dale Bone who had to come up with some terrific saves to keep a determined Unionville team from scoring. Goals went to Cal Yake, Jim Maddin and Tommy Edmondson. Assists to Jim Maddin, Mark LeMoine and Jamie Young.

Maple Clements 7, Grandview 0
(Exhibition Game)
Shades of Glenn Hall, this Dale Bone came up with his second shutout in two days. His teammates were busy too, combining the scoring market.

Jim Maddin and Tommy Edmondson potted two goals apiece with singles going to Jamie Young, Ronnie Crocks and Mark Lemoyne.

Assists went to Mark Lemoyne with two and singles by Jamie Young and Tommy Edmondson.

Richvale Lions 1, Bradford 1
This was a cliff hanger but Maple still managed to hold off in this November 30 home game against a well-disciplined Bradford team. Steve McInnes was in goal and deserved a shutout. The goal was scored by Robbie Yotoff assisted by Paul Hogenboom and Peter Fraser.

Maple Honey Pot Bees 1
David Sutherland scored the lone goal for Maple in this game played in Unionville on November 29. It was unassisted.

This was a hard fought game for the Maple team November 30 at Doublinck Arenas but they managed a tie which proves they are moving in the right direction. Billy Wright got their first goal assisted by Pat Hudena. David Sutherland tied the game unassisted.

Couple Go 'Round World - Via Armchair

By FRED SIMPSON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles March of RR 2 Maple are currently taking a trip around the World — by way of a comfortable armchair, that is.

They're doing it via their 21-year-old son, Tim, who has been beating his way across the world's map for the past two years.

"The last we heard from him he was here," said Mr. March peering intently at a colorful map of the world spread out on the small table before him. He was pointing in the direction of Iran.

In heavily pencilled out in meandering fashion almost across the length of the map was an arrow beginning from Maple, Ontario, and continuing cross Canada, across the Pacific, India, and finally coming to a stop at Tehran, Iran.

"From Tehran," said Mr.

March, "he intends to go to Turkey, then Greece, Yugoslavia, Switzerland, Germany and from there to London, England for Christmas.

"If he can get work in Germany he might stay over there for a while. If not, he plans on coming home."

Mr. and Mrs. March searched their way through a stack of letters as they pieced together Tim's meandering travels which began April of 1966.

"He just wanted to see more of the world," said Mr. March in explaining Tim's reason for embarking on the journey with a fellow travelling companion.

Some of the highlights of the trip to date as revealed by Tim in his regular letters to his parents include:

Christmas spent on the high seas between Hawaii and the Fiji Islands; New Years day in Sydney, Australia, where Tim traipsed around the country for four months laboring at pick-and-shovel jobs, stringing hydro wires, drilling for oil off Perth, and gaining employment on a sheep ranch or sheep station as it's referred to down there.

An indication of the vast spaces involved can be realized that a daily trip from the bunkhouse to the field involved a distance of 12 miles.

In Thailand, Tim and some travelling companions he joined forces with, lived for a time in a native village hardly a rubber plantation where he described the weather as like being "in a constant steam bath."

Their reception there? "The village chief thought we were the greatest thing since rice," writes Tim.

Enroute from Calcutta to Darjeeling in India just this October the boys just missed disaster by a few hours when the road they had travelled on was wiped out by a landslide killing 160 people.

"Somebody up there must have liked us," was Tim's written comment on this near brush with oblivion.

There were also some moments of possible peril in Afghanistan as the boys stayed to a main road, were warned not to stray from it, because of armed bandits who "would shoot you for your shirt." But they saw no bandits.

"We expect another letter from him anytime," said Mrs. March. "He writes whenever he gets the opportunity."

The two parents were still studying the map when the reporter left, ready to continue their armchair world journey . . . as soon as the next letter arrives.

Church News
The congregation was pleased to see Rev. William Reid back in the United Church pulpit, December 1 following a recent minor eye operation which was successful.

His sermon "In Lonely Exile" explained why churches and religious people are being left out of everyday things.

The choir sang "Lead me, Lord" accompanied by Mrs. Jean Whetstone at the organ.

On December 8 at 9:45 am the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed.

During the week of December 2 to 9, Christmas gifts for mental health patients may be left at Bragg's Drug Store or Williamson's Meat Market in Nobleton.

On White Gift Sunday, December 15, congregation members are asked to bring wrapped gifts, for the needy.

The Christmas Sunday Service will be held December 22. At 7:30 pm December 24 a Christmas Eve Candlelight Service will be held. There will be carols for everyone to sing and special music by the choir. Male and female choir members are needed.

WI
Mrs. Herb Wardlaw and Mrs. Arthur Irwin of Kleinburg-Nashville WI, who took the leader training course in baking with yeast, taught the art of bread and bun making to 19 ladies at Mrs. Irwin's home, November 26 from 10 am to 3 pm.

Garnet Williams, deputy-revee of Vaughan Township dropped in to say hello. He was a luncheon guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Neal whose home is next door to the Irwins' on Main Street.

Taggart, all friends from the village.
Brownies
Mrs. Lorna Stairs reports five newly enrolled Brownies in the 3rd Brownie Pack. They are Maureen Higgins, Sandra Minton, Margot Howard, Jennifer Hawksworth and Maureen Stairs.

Third Brownie Pack was formed last September with Brown Owl Mrs. Stairs and Tanny Owl Mrs. Irene Gathercole as leaders.

The pack has 19 girls, nine enrolled Brownies and ten Tweenies.
