They drove through the Bayview and Thornhill areas where the decorations are just lovely.

candles made by the Explorers which were afterwards presented to the girls mothers.

Entertainment was provided by Mr. Lowe, a magician from Toronto who held his audience enthralled and mystified by his tricks.

Members of the CGIT and the Explorers enacted two Christmas plays and Santa Claus was in attendance to the delight of the youngsters.

On December 19 the COC, 15 in all and two leaders enjoyed a Christmas party after school and had great fun playing shuffleboard.

In the evening it was the turn of the Explorers and CGIT who also made jolly in the schoolroom.
