Socially Speaking In Thornhill

Congratulations to Sally McLean, Thornbank Road, for her second place win in piano sight reading at the 26th annual Kiwanis Music Festival held in Toronto last week.

If you have been missed by your heart fund canvasser, please send your donation to Chairman Mrs. William White, 8 Roosevelt Drive, Thornhill. The need for heart research funds is of the utmost importance and your contribution would be greatly appreciated.

Library Books
Planning a trip to Mexico? Why not bone up by reading five excellent books on the Mexican scene now on the shelves of Thornhill Public Library, Colborne Street. One of the world's most beautiful museums is in Mexico City.

The story of its inception, planning, building and equipping is told in "The Museum of Anthropology". This is a most exciting book for the text and illustrations and is worthy of the great subject it portrays.

The "Life of Diego Rivera" is another addition to the library. His controversial murals and his equally controversial personal life make fascinating reading. Kate Simon's "Mexico, Places and Pleasures", her famous travel book, is also available. One of the best of its kind by an author who writes of the people and their country with candor. Miss Simon has delved into the lesser known fascinating things to do and to follow her advice is rewarding.

A small Mexican World" by William Sprattling is a reprint of an early classic by the American who taught the Mexican silver artists how to create more marketable designs.

"Life in Mexico" by Frances Calderon de la Barca. Among the most interesting letters ever written, the journal of this intrepid Scotswoman's journey in 1838, from Vera Cruz to Mexico City, is fine reading.

Congratulations to Joe Ringhofer, 16th Avenue, who recently won the Markham Township Public Speaking Contest. Joe is 13 years old and a grade 8 student at Woodland Senior Public School. Joe will compete in the county-wide finals being held in the near future.

"Jungle Book"

Children in the area are invited to attend the showing of "Jungle Book", Walt Disney's outstanding film, February 22 at Bay Thorn Public School, Thornhill Green. There will be two showings of the film at 1 pm and 3 pm. Admission is 30 cents. The movie afternoon is being sponsored by Bay Thorn Home and School Association.

The Rifkin Group entertained at the dance and were well received by the enthusiastic crowd.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, made over for the evening into a coffee house with individual tables covered in red and white check cloths and decorated with centrepieces of wine bottle candle holders.

Thornhill Athletic Committee sponsored the dance under the direction of Jo Ann Ritchie and Ron Nordin, co-chairman of TAC.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, Uplands Avenue, have returned home following an enjoyable week spent at the Quebec Winter Carnival. While there they saw Princess Grace of Monaco.

Canadian Woodenware

Mrs. Jean Smith, John Street, is giving a talk on early Canadian woodware and will display items from her collection of 250 wooden utensils, hand-made by early settlers, tonight (Thursday) at 8:30 pm in the North York Public Library, Willowdale.

This is the last of a series of four talks on collecting Canadiana held at the library.

"Pajama Game"
A theatre event to look forward to is the production of "Pajama Game" being presented April 10-12 at Earl Haig Secondary School, Willowdale, by the theatre group of North Thornhill Recreation Association.

The production is under the direction of song writer Mary Eustace Nobrega.

The music director is Ed McDonald, well known for his musical talent and choir master of St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church. Bill Whitehead is business manager and the production will feature a cast of 60.

Sweetheart Queen

Helga Pieroznski was crowned queen of the Sweetheart Swirl held at Thornhill Secondary February 14. Helga's princesses were Mary Ann Wilson, Barbara Bush, Barbara Massey and June Biscard. All the queen candidates were grade 9 and 10 students.

The gymnasium was gayly and artistically decorated in a Valentine theme for the occasion. A pyramid of basketball nets, filled with balloons, were decorated in red and white and a large red heart hung from the centre of the gym.

The Rifkin Group entertained at the dance and were well received by the enthusiastic crowd.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, made over for the evening into a coffee house with individual tables covered in red and white check cloths and decorated with centrepieces of wine bottle candle holders.

Rough, Tough And Nasty Mourners

"Who gets his territory?" is the question being asked by this group of hard-boiled gangsters gathered around the bier of one of their pals(?) in "Chidlow's Alley", a skit presented at the annual pot luck supper and entertainment sponsored by St. Luke's Catholic Women's League.

This year's event, held on St. Valentine's Day, had as its theme the "Roaring 20's" and featured Joe Bananas and His Bunch, a musical group and the Flapper Floosies dancing the Charleston. Mrs. Ugo Rossini, who was in charge of the entertainment, sang, accompanied on the guitar by her son Gordon, who also sang and played and joined his mother in a duet.

About 100 parishioners enjoyed the good things to eat and the evening of excellent entertainment.
