August is on the wane again and so is the 1969 softball season in Richmond Hill. My how it speeds by the seasons. It almost seems like this is where by, the seasons. It almost seems like this is where I came in last season. Except there's another agering in my trunk.

Was particularly interested to note that the teams enjoying the most success these days are the ones peopled by, heavens, women. Yes, it's true. Is there no end to it?

The teams I'm referring to at the moment include the Ron McAndrews-guided Richmond Hill Legion Juvenile Mic Macs, the Wimbridge Cleaners Intermediate team, and the Richmond Hill Minor

Ball Police Association All-Stars. They've all been winners to date in one fashion

YEA, MIC MACS

The Mic Macs have a 13 win, no loss record to date and the way they're going it looks like the second PWSU Juvenile championships staring them in the eyes for the second straight year.

They've just disposed of Scarboro in rather handy fashion in two-straight games and are awaiting the completion of the Cobourg-Oshawa series.

"That'll be a tough series no matter who we play," opines Mr. McAndrews. "They're both tough teams. In fact I think they'll be the toughest we face. If we get by them we should be good for all the way. We have the team to beat them if we come up with top calibre ball."

It's apparently much the same story for the mediates. They've been cruising along in winning fashion and they look capable of coming up with an All-Ontario title.

And, finally, got the word that the Police Association girls' team came up with a fine effort to win the "B" consolation trophy in Oshawa. All you can say is congrats, keep up the good work.

NOW THE MEN

As for the teams peopled by men? Too early to the shortstop made a fine grab say yet but indications are that the going will be to step on second and force tough for such teams as Dynes Jewellers, Kent Clothes, and Reid's Auto Body, in their respective bids for OASA laurels. But time will tell. In the meantime the ladies are out in front, and running.

Football For The Fun Of It

The motto for Civitan Football during 1969 is "Football For The Fun of It." In the above picture, five young stalwarts trying out for the Bantam Leaders have this motto well in hand.
