

Branch 375, Royal Canadian production, The Loves of Cass and Cub Auxiliary held its Mothers' Auxiliary held its about those non-caloric des-Legion, Richmond Hill, hosted McGuire will take place on monthly meeting October 29 at monthly meeting at the home of the Zone E2 shuffleboard tourn- Tuesday next, November 25, at the home of Mrs. A. Hagenauer, President Mrs. Phyllis Thomament Saturday last. Under the direction of Zone The play, a delightful com- President Mrs. W. Chirrey Plans were made for the Sports Officer Betty Young of edy-drama will be directed by thanked members for their help rummage sale to be held in the Hill Pack, along with Cubs Aurora and assisted by Auxili- Tony Miller.

ary Sports Officer Mary Robson, 25 teams entered with The Richmond Hill Civinettes tee, such a great success. Richmond Hill teams winning are endeavoring to help the On November 26 the auxiliasked to bring their rummage ville by Mr. and Mrs. S. Din-1st and 2nd place. Congratu- Canadian Cancer Society by ary is holding an auction sale to the church Friday night or ning. lations to the winning team - delivering pamphlets in their of baked goods and trivia at phone 884-3071 for a pickup. Mary Robson and Ethel Buck own areas regarding "Early De- the home of Mrs. W. Smith, 212 and 2nd place team - Peggy tection of Cancer in Women". Beechy Avenue.

Lewis and Vi Lawrie. Auxiliary members are re- a project of selling of Christ- tend and bring a friend, minded of the nomination and mas wrapping paper for the election meeting November 24. Adult Retarded Centre, all pro- R. H. United Church ceeds from which will go to the The following slate of offic-centre. To see samples of this

Mr. and Mrs. William

Niddrie of Trayborn Drive

and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth

McNabb of Toronto celebrated their wedding anniversaries recently at the

Mrs. Elsa Thompson, Mrs. Edith

ward, Mrs. Evelyn Spragg,

Keith Andrews and Bill Rose

Skyline Hotel,

meeting and banquet of the M. Austin at 884-1506. Horticultural Society held November 11 at the Summit Golf and Country Club.

Honorary president and charter member, Dr. Lillian Langstaff, Life Member R. D. Little. Past President Mrs. J. W. Rumney, President Miss Gladys Mc-Latchy, 1st Vice-President W. A. Risebrough, 2nd Vice-President Mrs. W. E. Le Claire, Secretary Mrs. H. H. MacKay, Treasurer Mrs. Douglas Boyd. The rummage sale held by

Honorary Directors, Mrs. the Richmond Hill Symphony B. L. Anderson, P. E. Angle, Orchestra on Saturday was T. V. Lamb and J. A. Bales. most successful, reports Con-1970 Directors, Mrs. Mayne venor Harry Perry. He and D. McTaggart, Mrs. L. Banks, his committee feel this initial Douglas Boyd, R. H. Keith and fund-raising sale could be more well G. L. Longworth. 1970-71 Di- profitable another year, by putrectors, Miss Stella Mackie, ting into practise the lessons Mrs. R. W. Whelan, Mrs. G. learned from this event. Beatty, Mrs. Edith Walker, and The committee, comprised of For Job Well Done home. Mr. Little. Auditors for 1970, W. S. Dunn, Mrs. Alice Burnett, Mrs.

Urquhart and Miss Mabel Beth Harwood, Mrs. Mary Hay-Mackie. Members of Beta Sigma Phi, worked diligently to ensure Delta Lambda Chapter, met success.

October 28 at the home of Joan The proceeds will be used to Morrow. They welcomed new purchase the music needed for member, Donna McPhail who the benefit concert which will took Pledge Rituals November be held in May. This concert is being held to raise funds for After the business meeting roofing the Centennial Pool of Postian's Rugs Limited, Lon- On Friday, the orchestra will don, who has spent his life perform at G. W. Williams Seclearning about and selling car-ondary School at Aurora and pets. Members especially en- on December 1 a concert will joyed his talk on Persian rugs be held at Richmond Hill High and how they are made. He School, with a Chirstmas conbrought with him many rugs to cert to be announced later. demonstrate the various types available as well as two films The women's auxiliary of on oriental rugs and their mak- York Central Association for ing, which greatly impressed the Mentally Retarded held a highly successful Mini-Bazaar Members met again recently on November 8 at ARC Indusfor their regular meeting at the tries (Adult Retarded Centre). home of Dorrie Huckfield. The This was the first time memprogram on "The History of bers had held their annual sale Dress" was given by Nancy at the workshop, which they Jackson and Mrs. Huckfield, help to support, and in addition Their presentation was accompto having a very profitable anied by slides and was very afternoon, they hope that many people had a chance to see the All chapters in this area met centre for the first time and for annual Rituals at the Rol- appreciate its value to the comling Hills Golf and Country munity.

Mrs. Joanne Bullen introduced and is planned for the town the guest speaker, Mr. Postian arena.

Club. After dinner members Director Miss Dolly- Ketola had the pleasure of hearing drew for the prizewinners of Mrs. Olive Garrett, Canadian the oil painting, quilt and editor of "The Torch" the sor- hooked rug. Lucky winners ority magazine. New member were Ralph Carter, Markham, Mrs. McPhail received her Mrs. Marlene Webb, Goodwood Pledge Ritual along with other and Mrs. M. Wagg, Stouffville. new members from other chap- Winner of the doll was Miss ters. Mrs. Huckfield of Delta Maria Ridder of Richmond Hill. Lambda Chapter, who has Members would like to extransferred from Sudbury, re- press their thanks to all the ceived the Welcome Ritual. friends of the retarded of York Central who helped to make this event a success.

Mrs. N. Turgeon introduced the guest speaker Mrs. John Le Claire, who spoke on the advantages of belonging to a credit union, also the possibility of primary school children members who had brought gifts

reported that Dynes Jewellers accept unwrapped gifts for this for the mentally retarded and becoming members to learn at

What's Cooking?

ARC Industries located at Enford and Industrial Roads Almost everyone has a special welcomes interested visitors to dish which family or friends come and see these young enjoy - why not share the people learning to help themrecipe with our readers, be it selves. Their handcrafted main course, dessert or snack? Christmas eards made on the Each week one will be publish- premises, are still available plus ed in this column - how about beautiful wrapping paper and many other handmade articles.

STEAK AND KIDNEY

For information call 884-5861, PUDDING At this time of year when The CWL of Our Lady Queen finely chopped beef suet can of the World Parish held its be bought so easily, it makes it monthly meeting November 12, much easier to make "steak chaired by Mrs. Harry Bryan.

and kidney pudding."

To make the suet pastry:

12 lb. flour

14 lb. suet 12 tsp. salt 1 tsp. baking powder

Cold water Mix suet, flour etc., add suf- an early age the habit of savficient cold water to make a ing no matter how small the soft dough, roll out as required, amount 1 lb.to 11/2 lbs. chuck steak | A short business meeting fol-14 lb. beef kidney, or 2 sheep lowed and Mrs. Bryan thanked kidneys Seasoned flour

12 pint of stock.

1 small whole onion (option- and Allencourt Pharmacy would Cut beef into pieces, also association. She also spoke on kidney, roll in seasoned flour. the help the league could give Grease a pudding basin, line patients in the Villa Hospital. with suet pastry, keeping back Mrs. Pat Killean reminded enough for lid. Fill with meat, members that the Red Cross kidney and stock and small Blood Donor Clinic would be onion on top. Wet edge of held in the Lions Hall Novemlining, cover with lid of pastry, ber 27. then piece of buttered paper Mrs. John Featherstone retightly. Place in saucepan of teaching cathecatics to 62 sep-and pudding cloth, tied on ported that seven mothers are boiling water and keep water arate schoolchildren in their an inch or two from the top, homes. keeping totted up with boiling Attention was drawn to the water from time to itme. Steam recent announcement by Robert for about 4 hours.

Nixon, leader of the Ontario 6313 Yonge St., Willowdale This pudding can be reheated Liberal Party, of Liberal supthe following day if necessary, port for full tax grants to Jack White. Roman Catholic schools up to Trench Street. grade 13.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Casting for the February The 2nd Richmond Hill Scout, The 1st Richmond Hill Scout the Curtain Club Theatre. 50 Rockwell Avenue, Thornhill, son. tober 25 by the group commit- 22, starting at 10 am.

They are also undertaking as All members are urged to at-

The Sacrament of Baptism ers was elected at the annual attractive paper please call Mrs. will be administered next Sunwishing to have their children the Christmas party being held Falls. Club.

welcome and may obtain information about the club by phon- daughter Janice from Niagara ing Mr. or Mrs. G. R. Quance Falls.

An Ode To One

Each year along about November,

The O.H.A. presents a member

With printed words that doth extol. That member's virtues, as a whole, The board decides, in private vote. Who of their troop does work of note, Announcing at the annual dinner, The talented deserving winner. Tonight, it is my pleasure then.

To take in hand, my feeble pen. And thus a tribute, pay

Who has long years of service done. This person of the fair-

Is one who often signs our cheques She banks our dough, accepts the challenge.

To see that everything's in balance.

She's thoughtful, kindly, slim, petite, And never one to show defeat: She's furthered horticultural ends. And reaps the gratitude of friends. We think our group has chosen well, And you will too, now, when I tell

A name that all will here agree Has earned it to the last degree; And now - before you get annoyed.

the above sonnet, which he read on presenting the Ontario Horticultural Association's Award of Merit to the most outstanding member of the year - Mrs. Evie Boyd — at the annual

The gal I mean, is Evie R. D. Little composed meeting and banquet of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society held November 11 at the Summit Golf and Country Club.

HEAVY

NYLON

By Kraus

in making the dance, held Oc- Presbyterian Church November from the 3rd Richmond Hill

For a review of The Miracle Worker which concluded its highly successful run at Bayview Secondary School on Saturday see Mary Monk's column "In The Spotlight" on the editorial page of this issue.

baptized are requested to con- A bridal shower was held The Resale Shop Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Brown, thing for all age groups from Department of Lands and For- son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wil- sery furniture.

New couples are especially mond Hill and guests included to 12.30. Mrs. Ivo Gambadotto and her

The room was attractively decorated with a white lace the York County Branch, and white ribbon roses.

Miss Gambarotto received about 40 gifts for her future

R. Hill Tyro and Sigma C Richmond Hill Tyro held a special local rally at St. John's Baptist Church with all three units participating. The program included games, skits, worship and presentation of awards. Four boys earned flashes -Steven Veale (orange), Paul

Keith (red), Joey Thomson

and Michael Young New members received were an extra gift for the less Doug Barton, Stephen Holicky, John Horton, Drew Ryland (Crosby Heights Unit); Danny Brewer, Ian Bynoe, Glenn Sparrow, Brian Casey (Beverly Acres Unit); Bill MacLean, Peter Bradstock, Ricky Keith, Michael Turner and David Wickens (MacKillop Unit). meet at 9.30 am at St. John's Daniel and Laura from Ottawa.

Senior Citizens

men have been added rendered native of Nova Scotia. two numbers and the members all stood to sing "O God, Our Help in Ages Past". Mrs. Wood then gave a humorous reading President J. Lerette of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario was special speaker and presented the past president's pin to Bert Pattenden. Mr. Lerette spoke of the convention and the 26 point resolution presented to parliament at Ottawa where delegates were cordially

Mr. Lerette also explained the need for more star members as the organization was growing and proper headquarters were needed. Travel costs also had risen. It was gratifying, he said, to know that guaranteen ware to we will be to know that guaranteen the transfer of the said. many more names were being added to the roll of star mem-

Wall To Wall Experts

(Free estimates in your home without obligation)

INDOOR -

OUTDOOR

Sq. Yd.

• HUGE SELECTION OF ROOM SIZE RUGS

(Across from Sayvette's)

Open Mon. to Fri. 9 a.m. - 9 p.m. - Sat. til 6 p.m.

• FAMOUS BRAND NAMES . . .

Harding * Celanese * Kraus

B.M.K. * Burlington * Peerless

Armstrong * Caravelle

And All Kodel Carpets

HEAVY

KODEL

SHAG

Sq. Yd.

226-0941

Crescent, is spending the win- to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sheppard ter with her daughter and son- who have recently moved from in-law. Betty and Yvon Tasse, Weston and taken up residence at their home in Honolulu. on May Avenue, Richvale.

The Villa Hospital is holding have a studio at their home and its annual Christmas bazaar No- are actively engaged in comvember 22 from 1 - 4 pm. mercial art.

Among the many attractive gift articles for sale will be The ACW of St. Gabriel's knitted goods, leathercraft, Anglican Church held a sucstuffed animals, floral arrange- cessful pot luck supper Novemments, children's games and a ber 12 in the parish hall with sale of patients' handicrafts. a delightful variety of foods Patrons may relax at the tea prepared and enjoyed by memcourt and will be most welcome bers. to visit the hospital.

co-convenors of the fall card the meal. party to be held at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church Hall on November 26 report that dessert and coffee will be served, followed by euchre and bridge with the exception of a few

Plan to attend and forget ance this Friday night, Noserts for once - these will be good, rich and calorie-laden.

Cubs from the 4th Richmond Pack, were escorted on a tour Members and friends are of Leggat Aircraft at Button-

> The Cubs climbed aboard the planes, sat in the pilot's seat and thoroughly investigated the ground operation. Two pilots from Toronto Airways then took the boys in groups of three for a short flight over Richmond Hill and surrounding area.

YWCA tact the church office for furth- November 7 at the home of Yonge Street North has some- 884-7065.

All couples are invited to vale on December 7 at Niagara day afternoons from 1.30 to vember 25. 3.30, Tuesday and Thursday Mr. Harper will explain the The bride, a research assist- law of the bride.

> gift program for patients under special care held by mental health association, is now underway and boxes for unwrapped gifts have been placed in Dynes Jewellers, Richmond Heights Centre and Allencourt Pharmacy, Allencourt

> Plaza. Mrs. Roy Jones of 19th Avenue also extends an open invitation to attend a take-a-gift coffee party she is holding at 11 am on December 4 at her home on > 19th Avenue. Gifts from the boxes will be collected on December 9, so while family Christmas shopping why not buy fortunates and drop it in one of the boxes? Your donation will brighten Christmas for these patients, many of whom are forgotten during this festive sea-

Members of all units plan to of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Zinck was the last senior sapper of visit the Ontario Science Cen- were Captain and Mrs. Paul the 38th Unit Engineers (Retre on November 22. Boys will Tomelin and children Kathy, serve). Baptist or St. Matthew's United During the past week the Church. A lunch is necessary, Zincks visited Mr. and Mrs.

since return is planned for 4.30 Roy Matheson in Scarboro, Mr. and Mrs. W. Horodyski, Rex-Further information is avail- dale and Mr. and Mrs. W. Chubable from any group leader. by, New Toronto. enjoyed a day's trip to Meaford

Both fishing enthusiasts, they The regular monthly meeting where Mr. Zinck caught one of the local Senior Citizens' Rainbow trout, then continued Club was held November 12, to Collingwood where he was Bazaar Convenor Mrs. A. Wood delighted with his catch — a reported on this most success- 41/2 lb. white fish. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Chester The choir, to which more Zinck, no relation, but also a

RICHMOND HILL Richmond Heights Centre

250 Yonge St. N. 884-6881

RICHMOND HILL

richmond hill

RICHMOND HEIGHTS CENTRE - Where the Record Action is -

法是在原在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在在

Mrs. Laura Wilson, Arnold! A warm welcome is extended

Both talented artists, they

Auctioneer was Mrs. Victoria Cox who conducted the amusing Danny Boyle and Al Snaith, penny auction which followed > Tickets for the Albee play, A Delicate Balance, are practically sold out for the opening performvember 21.

In the play, directed by Ron Solloway, are Mary Monks, Marylo Graham, Joan Harold, Kim Colyer, Neville Cross and Gerry Crack.

A Pulitzer Prize play of 1967, A Delicate Balance has been described as "a beautiful play, easily Albee's best and most mature. . Probing, tantalizing comedy. Filled with humor and compassion and touched with poetry." It will mean as many different things as there are different people in each audi-

Don't miss this play obtain your tickets today by calling Yvette Steel at show.

August 15.

Midge Wooldridge at 884-6850, gineering at the same univer- and nylon. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Dynes of Frank Southwell, 237 Church for 75 guests at the home of of Vancouver. on Saturday evening at an end Street South. Both are graduof season party for members of ates of Richmond Hill High the Richmond Hill Dynes Jew- School.

ellers Ball Team. Also attending was Manager against a background of red Casey Cripps, but unfortunately and white gladioli. Wedding Team Advisor Angus Philip music was played by Mrs. was unable to be present as he Ralph Markham, and vocalist is currently a patient at York Cathy Maxwell sang Ave Maria Central Hospital.

during the signing of the register. John Edgar Robertson, son of Given in marriage by her Mrs. Mona Robertson, Centre father, the bride wore a floor Street West, and H. G. Robert- length gown of white silk with son, Toronto, was entertained lace yoke and coat of nylon and at a family coffee party in the lace and chapel train. She York Pioneer Restaurant, Union wore a floral headdress of Station, last Saturday, before stephanotis and carried a bouentraining for Trenton, from quet of white carnations around where he was flown by jet to a purple orchid, Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, to commence basic training with Maid of honor was Susan the Canadian Army, (Engin- Dewsbury. Bridesmaids were Katherine Bourjeaurd and eers), Monday. Prior to joining the regular Charlotte Karu, sisters of the army, John served three years

Recent visitors at the home in the Mobile Command and

For Appointment 884-6741

Stuart's Studio PHOTOGRAPHY

Opposite Loblaws

NEWLY WEDS MR. AND MRS. DAVID SOUTHWELL

Now Residing In Kingston

The AOTS Men's Club met Crestwood Road, for Miss Jo- infants to senior citizens - W. Harper of District Head- The bride's grandmother bride, and Barbara Southwell, the bride's parents. November 19 and the guest Anne Gambarotto prior to her dresses, suits, coats, men's quarters will be the guest came from England to attend sister of the groom. speaker was Al Wainio of the marriage to Roger Williams, sports jackets, toys, skates, nur- speaker at the next meeting of the wedding of Joanna Bour- Tony Thompson was best to Cape Cod the newlyweds the 5th Richmond Hill Scout jeaurd and David Southwell in man. Ushers were Ronald returned to Kingston where liams, Roosevelt Drive, Rich- It is open Monday and Fri- Ladies Auxiliary being held No- St. Mary's Anglican Church on Coles, a cousin of the groom, Mr. Southwell is continuing his and Raymond Karu, brother-in-education. Out of town guests included December 13 by the Couples' Hostesses were Mrs. Brown mornings from 9.30 to 11.30 and procedures that take place ant in social psychology at The attendants were dressed Mrs. Sylvia Clarke of Hertfordand Mrs. T. Hackwood of Rich- on Saturday morning from 9.30 prior to and during the hobby Queen's University, Kingston, alike in lilac taffeta with dotted shire, England, grandmother of is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. nylon overdress fashioned with the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Wil-Parents wishing to either Peter Bourjeaurd, 230 Rich- empire waistline, full floor- liam King of Brampton; Mr.

The annual Christmas purchase or sell Scout or Cub mond Street. The groom, a length skirts and long full and Mrs. Sam Jarman of Clearuniforms may do so through fourth year student in civil en. sleeves with cuffs of taffeta water, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. William Partridge of Vancovsity, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. There was a garden supper er, and Quentin Van Zonneveld > Rev. David McGuire officiated Richmond Hill Police Association is sorry if you are . . .

> > BUT Due to unforeseen difficulties

The ANNUAL FALL DANCE HAS HAD TO BE POSTPONED

BUT Coming This Spring Watch for: Notices of a Mammoth Spring Dance and a

Richmond Police Hockey Spectacular

Signed K. G. PATON

Present this ad at

ZZAVILLE 107 Yonge St. N. - in the A & P Plaza - Richmond Hill

WE MAKE AND RECEIVE A

10% DISCOUNT ON ANY ORDER PICK-UP

MONDAY - TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY ONLY Pick-Up or Use our Free Delivery Service with Orders Over $2.00 - Under: 25c Charge

PHONE 884-8129

Reynolds' Shoe House

Regular Stock

THIS OFFER IS GOOD THURSDAY - FRIDAY - SATURDAY, NOV. 20, 21, 22 ONLY

FREE HOME FITTINGS BY APPOINTMENT

Phone 884-4114 - Richmond Heights Centre - Richmond Hill