We were surprised to hear that Roly Keffer, Maple Side-road, has been in York Central Hospital since early last week, with an undetermined illness. We do hope that you will be reading this week's "Liberal" at home, Roly!

Sympathy of the community goes to the family of Howard B. Miller who passed away last week in Toronto. Mr. Miller was formerly of the B. W. Miller Florists of Toronto and Maple. He leaves, as well as his wife, Una, two sons, Frank and Bill, grandchildren Duncan, Bryce, Kevin and Kim, and sisters Mrs. Eva Lewis, Mrs. Rose Brown and Mrs. Dora Crooks, all of Toronto, Alice and Lillian Miller of Maple, as well as brothers Cal of Maple and Michael of Richmond Hill. A third brother, George, predeceased him.

Funeral services were held November 13 from St. Hilda's Anglican Church, Eglington and Dufferin Streets, with interment in Prospect Cemetery. The thoughts and prayers of their friends and neighbors are with the family in its time of bereavement.

Both Billy Carter of Railway Street, and his mother Madge have been under the weather since Billy has been confined at home to recover from an infection and Madge has been hobbling around on a sprained ankle.

We do hope that Mom will be well on the way to recovery by the time they read their "Liberal" this week, although we know that Billy will have to be home for at least three weeks. Good luck, Billy.

Our community was shocked early this week to learn that Fred Jackman of Netherford Road had been taken to York Central Hospital during the night on Sunday, with an apparent heart attack, although this had not been confirmed at time of writing.

The thoughts and prayers of his many friends and neighbors will be with Mr. Jackman and his family during this time of crisis.

Senior Citizens

A beautiful Remembrance Day Service was observed by Maple Senior Citizens with Rev. Dr. Ramsay Armitage, Rev. John Arbuckle and Rev. B. F. Andrew participating. Rev. Norman Boogers was not able to attend, being in hospital.

The call to worship was given by Mr. Arbuckle followed by a prayer, then the Bible passage was read by Mr. Andrew.

A hymn was sung, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Annie Wade. Dr. Armitage gave a moving address, followed by the lament "Flowers of the Forest", played by Mr. Andrew on the bagpipes. The two minutes' silence was observed, followed by reveille again on the pipes. Mrs. Ella Keffer read a poem called "Flying Through" which had been sent to Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Myers in 1941 following the death in action of their son, Hilliard.

The benediction was given by Mr. Arbuckle.

The colors were held by veteran Elmer Garrow and President Paul Snider of the Senior Citizens.

This service was made particularly impressive by the smooth co-operation of the ministers of three denominations, reminding us of our need for continued co-operation in every community.

The list for the bus trip to the Royal Winter Fair was not nearly filled, so that the trip had to be cancelled. However, names are still being taken for the trip this coming Monday afternoon, November 24, from the United Church hall at 1 pm. Please be sure to call Mr. Percy Puterbaugh 832-1114 to have your name added. The bus will take the Seniors to the Linder Apple Products factory near Norval for a tour, and will return to the church around 3:30 or 4 pm.

MARC

We have been asked to note that the Monday night euchre will still be held November 24, rather than Tuesday, as discussed, as facilities are not available that night. Since the turnout has been disappointing, ideas were discussed to change the night to suit more folk, but it couldn't be arranged.

Economics And Health

Topic Of Vellore WI

The topic for the November meeting of Vellore WI was "Home Economics and Health." Mrs. Roy Bowen read a paper on the motto, "One-Third Of The Food You Eat Keeps You Alive, The Other Two-Thirds Keep Your Doctor Alive" — dealing with how one can help to avoid the often prevalent indigestion.

Mrs. Lorne Welldrick described the effects of arthritis and rheumatic fever, leaving the suggestion that one's doctor's advice should be followed as the required treatment for one is not necessarily the same for someone else.

Miss Hazel Ellis introduced Mrs. Paul Chafeero from Kleinburg who gave a demonstration on making "Dipit" flowers. She had on display beautiful samples of the finished product.

Mrs. Jack Williams conducted a contest, "Know Your Neighbor" — in this case one's neighbor was the one sitting right beside her. After the closing of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed.

Teston United Church

The upcoming Holy and Mistletoe Fair to be held in the church, November 28, beginning 7:30 sounds most intriguing and should bring folks from all around to enjoy the fun.

The proceeds from this event are for the aid of three adopted overseas children, one from Korea, one from Greece and one from Hong Kong.

Baking, sewing, flowers and gifts will be a feature, along with a table of "Trash and Treasures", one of produce and home preserves, a post office, where parcels that have been mailed to the church can be bought for 25 cents, a kiddies' corner, candy booth and Santa Claus.

The tea room will be open as well for refreshments.

Bowling

Men's league — for the evening of November 12, Bruce Murray's team took 6 points leaving Bruce Palmer's with 1, and Jack Kucherawy's team took all 7 from Tom Mummy's team. Roy Clegg and Steve Stoklosa tied for the high single with 254 and Roy Clegg walked away with high triple with 641.

Pioneer league — for November 13 Pete Craibe's team took 5 points from Jack Gooderham's leaving them with 2, and Ed Borrett's team took 5 also, leaving Orne Downey with 2.

This leaves the teams in the following standing: Downey's 20, Gooderham's 19, Craibe's 16 and Borrett's 15.

The high triple for the night was taken by Jack Gooderham with 585 and Alex Bishop scored a 243 for the high single.

Senior Citizens Remember Dead Of Two Wars

A solemn service of remembrance was held by Maple Senior Citizens November 10 in the United Church Christian Education Wing.

Government Bureaucracy?

Frank and Charles Sant who operate greenhouses and a market garden on part of Lot 33, Concession 10, Vaughan Township, have a problem for which to date they have found no solution. Their solicitor has no solution, township planning board has no solution and at its November 4 meeting Vaughan Township Council was unable to find a solution.

Frank Sant's land (about 30 acres) supports a large greenhouse and market garden operation as well as a residence. Charles Sant received a severance of .096 acres in 1958 on which he erected a single family house. The property also contains a number of greenhouses and a boiler room, stretching past the rear lot line onto his brother's property.

To legalize the situation under the zoning bylaw (the land is zoned rural area for agricultural pursuits) the brothers appeared before the committee of adjustment which suggested that Frank transfer enough land to his brother to bring the property up to the minimum of 10 acres required for farming. But Frank is unwilling to donate any more than one acre to his brother, since the more than nine acres suggested would reduce his own holdings to the point where his market garden operation would no longer be economical, it was reported to council.

Reeve Garnet Williams commented, "I have known the Sant brothers for years. They have worked on their knees all their lives and Charles has only 30 acres left after the conservation authority took over the flood plain. He has offered to give his brother an acre. It is now council's turn to try to rectify this situation."

At its meeting October 16 planning board reviewed the application, it was reported. Planning board's recommendation to council was that the application be refused and council concurred.

The Sant brothers were not present at the council meeting, nor was their solicitor. Councillor David Fraser, who is also a member of planning board, told council it had been pointed out to the brothers and to their solicitor that if they were legalizing a gift which had been made before the passing of the zoning bylaw in 1959 then they could register the transfer to the one acre without council's consent.

When the Gulf Service Station at Kleinburg was broken into Saturday the thief or thieves were not just content to take a small amount of cash they found.

They went whole hog and stole the cash register too. Vaughan Township Police station the stolen till is of rare vintage and the antique should be easily recognized.

In another township theft over the weekend a 1968 motorcycle was stolen from a shed behind a Yonge Street residence.
