going PLACES meeting PEOPLE

With the holiday season, activity in the village has slowed down, people are relaxing after a wonderful Christmas and have just begun to prepare for the New Year festivities. We would like to take this opportunity to wish all our readers a happy holiday season and a happy, healthy and prosperous 1970.

Several children are celebrating birthdays during the holidays, including Chris Plunkett who is now 10, Larry Cooper, 11 and John Young who is now eight years old. We hope they all had happy birthdays!

We received a call from a chap this week, who has a really warm feeling about our community, and in particular the men of our Lions Club, police force and firemen, and merchants in several stores. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ormerod, who with their five children, have just moved into the old farmhouse opposite the Skyline Marina, were finding that this Christmas was going to be a skimpy one, with no hydro or water. With the expense of moving they had little left for the children. Somehow, the men of the Lions Club and Sergeant Jim Nugent of the Vaughan Police, got word of their circumstances, and gave them a wonderful surprise on Christmas Eve, with gifts and food and a load of wood for heat, and also plowed out their lane while they were there. Mr. Ormerod and the family wish to extend their sincere thanks to each and every person who helped, although they were all strangers. To the men of the Lions, including Frank Robson and Bruce Thurston who spent part of Christmas Day helping out some wood for the family, to Sergeant Nugent and the other officers who assisted, to the township clerk, Ted Jackman, to the firemen and to the several dealers who opened their stores to provide the men with gifts, etc., the family wants to say "Thank You".

We have received word that Mrs. E. Palmer of Teston Sideroad, celebrated her 91st birthday, December 26. We would like to add our congratulations to those of her friends and neighbors.

The deepest sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Eileen Rowarth and Wayne of Netherford Road, on the death of a beloved husband and father, Roy, on Christmas Eve. Rev. Norman Boogers officiated at the service held in Maple United Church, December 27, at 11:00 a.m. Mr. Rowarth had been ill for some time and undergone surgery, from which he did not recover. Our thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Rowarth and Wayne at this time of sorrow.

A private family service was held at the Marshall Funeral Home for little Allan Goddard, seven years old, recently of Maple, December 26, with Rev. Norman Boogers of Maple United Church officiating. Our prayers and sympathy, on behalf of the entire community go out to the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Goddard, who now live on Steeles Avenue.

We were so pleased to hear that Rev. Norman Boogers is back with his congregation of the Maple United Church, after a lengthy stay in hospital. It was wonderful to hear his cheerful voice answering the telephone after so many long weeks away.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Lamont and family of Malaren Road enjoyed the company of Graham's mother, Mrs. Annie Pust of Durham, for the holidays and Graham's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pust of Newmarket for Christmas.

In checking on the new Gray Coach Bus schedule, beginning January 1, we have been told that our schedule will continue as it is, at least until mid-April, when it will again be changed. This means that the bus will run through Maple at 9:44 a.m. north to King City and from there in to Toronto via Nobleton, Kleinburg, etc. If anyone wishes a timetable, your correspondent will have a few on hand for a short time. There will still be no afternoon bus returning from Toronto, until the 5:30 bus leaving the terminal, on Wednesday.

We know that many families enjoyed reunions during the holidays and we would be pleased to hear of them, also we are looking forward to hearing from those who spent their holidays travelling either abroad or on our own continent. Call your correspondent at the above number and your news items will be included in this column.

Guides and Brownies
The girls of the Maple Guide Company and Captain Mrs. Gail Constable, enjoyed a festive evening, December 22, when they played games, exchanged gifts and had pop and Christmas goodies to finish their evening. Guide meetings will resume January 5.

Senior Citizens
The senior citizens enjoyed a film "Yellowstone Cubs" which was shown by Reg Rouse on December 22. Everyone enjoyed a good chuckle at the antics of the two black bear cubs at large in Yellowstone Park.

Following the movie, the sextet who sang the week before did an encore performance, singing "Joy to the World". Rev. B. F. "Biff" Andrew played two numbers on a saw, the second of which was "Jingle Bells". Mrs. Margaret Andrew read "Nothing to Laugh At" or "The Bee Sting" written by Edgar Guest.

Forrest Oliver sang a beautiful solo "How Great Thou Art" which was particularly moving. The whole group sang a Christmas Carol, accompanied by Mrs. Lois Horner on the piano, and your correspondent was presented with a Christmas gift of a beautiful cup and saucer.

While the ladies were serving tea, Santa popped in with six of our Guides and Brownies to help him distribute the bags of candy for the folks.

Happy birthday was sung to Mrs. Miriam Lepper, and President Paul Snider gave a special vote of thanks to the ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Maple United, St. Stephen's Anglican and Zion Lutheran Churches for their help in serving and washing up for each afternoon meeting.

The next meeting will be January 5.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian
The congregation and Sunday school of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church thoroughly enjoyed their get-together December 19 for their annual Christmas pot luck supper.

Due to crowded conditions, the children ate first, and were then entertained by Reg Rouse with a film "Yellowstone Cubs" which they thoroughly enjoyed. While the adults enjoyed their meal, members of the junior Bible class sang a modern carol "Mary, Mary".

Following the film, the children in the nursery and kindergarten, with help from several grade ones, portrayed the nativity scene, while Robbie Hudson, Mary Lou Lamont and Joe Bottrill read Bible passages and the children of the Sunday school sang Christmas carols.

Girls of the Explorer group, under the direction of Mrs. Lee Hynd, put on a puppet show, and just as the children were ready to leave Santa popped in to leave bags of candy and fruit for them.

The Christmas Candlelight Service was held December 21 with members of the junior Bible class and Sunday school participating.

Maple United
Rev. Norman Boogers was back with the congregation of Maple United for the special family service, December 21 at 11:00 a.m. when the children were in church with their parents, rather than in Sunday school, and the service was geared for the entire family.

That evening the seven lessons in carols was observed, while continuous Communion was held on Christmas Eve.

Neighborhood Notes

Belated birthday greetings to Michael Tainsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Tainsh of Vaughan Boulevard, who celebrated his second birthday December 30 with several of his little friends.

A belated happy birthday also to Ivan Currie, Vaughan Boulevard on December 31.

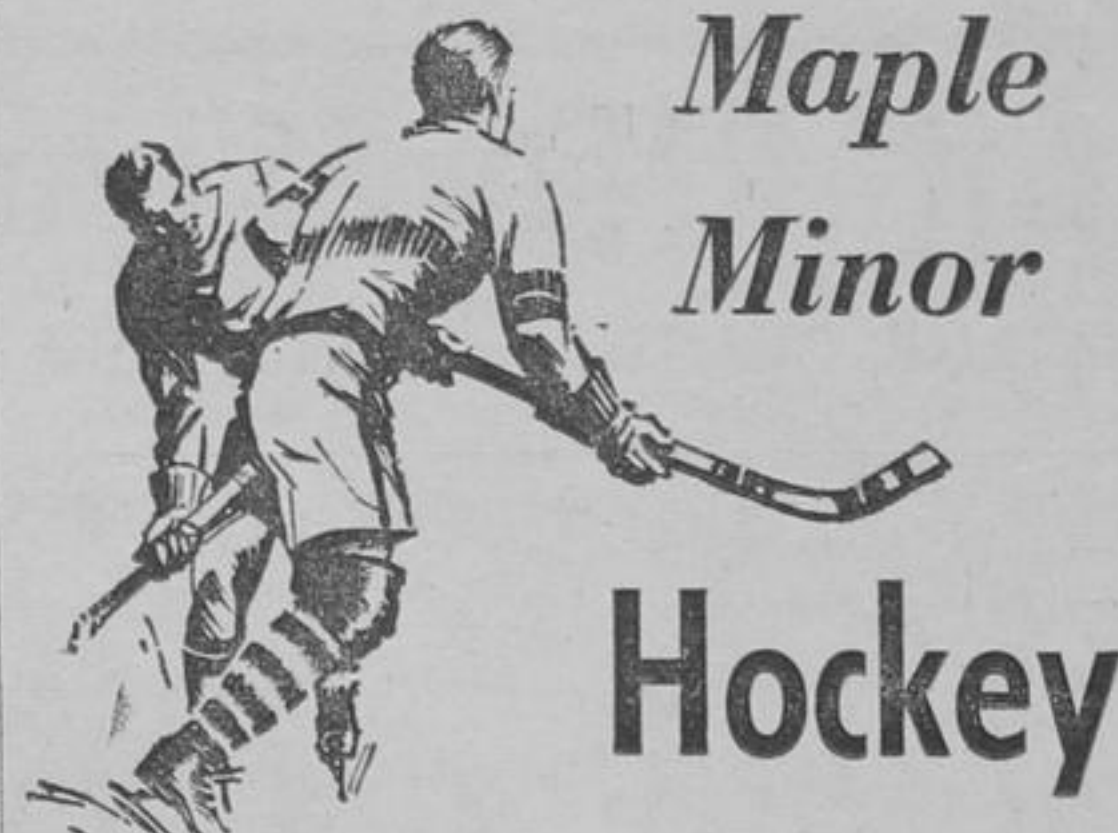

Happy Birthday wishes are extended to your correspondent's mother, Mrs. Philomena Lacey of Lawrie Road, January 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanny McNeill, King High Drive, and sons Christopher, Mark and Alan spent Christmas with Mr. McNeill's family in Port Dover. Prior to Christmas, Mrs. McNeill's sister, Mrs. D. Rossborough and children, Steven and Susan, visited from Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Camp, Lawrie Road, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alf Egginton from Montreal.

The John Cole family was pretty well grounded with young son, Andrew, the latest victim of the chicken pox. However, they were able to get out to visit the Ontario Science Centre with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cameron of Richmond Hill.

Your correspondent wishes all her readers a very Happy New Year and hopes they will keep their New Year resolutions.

It is to be hoped that all the hockey scores will be available for next week, since the holidays have made it impossible to have them ready for publication.

OMHA
Bolton 1, Maple 2

A defensive game right from the start with the home club coming out on top. Pete Fraser netted two goals. The first, assisted by Kier Todd, on a pretty passing play and the second from Geoff Shaw. This was another fine game by Goalie Martie Schenk.

Sutton 3, Maple 2
Maple built up a two goal lead early, but fell apart as Sutton came back strong in the third period.

It was Pete Fraser from Kier Todd and Fraser again from Jones and Fox.

Maple 3, Schomberg 2
Two quick goals by Schomberg in the final period made this game a close one after Maple led 3-0.

Steve Van Luyk opened the scoring with a pass from Norm Stapley. It was Stapley's turn next with the aid of Van Luyk and Geoff Shaw.

The eventual winner came from Pete Fraser, from a pass by Shaw.
