Here We Go Again

I'm not worried about 1970. Not worried a bit. I always tremble this way. An old family affliction. party, you've got to put your best friend forward.

Most people look forward to a new year with 1970. Nothing can stop you now. This year it's not one mountain, it's two. Not half the loaf, all of it.

I feel much the same way. Except that my hopes, my drives, my expectations won't be quite as flamboyant as yours. I'll settle for one mountain. Even for just getting half-way up it. Not so far to

Town Police Present $500 YCAMR

The recent contest between the NHL Old Timers and the Richmond Hill Police Hockey Club provided an evening of top entertainment value.

It also was a financial success and raised $500 which was presented to York Central Association for the Mentally Retarded, which operates the sheltered workshop for young adults known as ARC Industries, Industrial Road at Enford.

The association will also soon embark on a program of building residences for retardates who do not require institutional care.

Among the hockey fans in the arena were 50 children from the Loyal True Blue & Orange Home, Jefferson, whose admission was paid by Emerald Isle Real Estate.

The puck was dropped for the first face off by an employee of ARC Industries, and another presented to Danny Lewicki of the NHL Old Timers with a trophy created in the workshop for the most valuable player on his team.

Rams Booted Out of '69 Beat By Markham 14-3

Bombed was the only word to describe what happened to Richmond Hill Rams Friday night.

They got bombed 14-3 by the high-flying Markham Seal-AWax team in the Town of Markham.

The Rams could offer some excuses — fairly legitimate ones too — as they lost Defenceman Stan Egerton, Daryl Rice and Al Paivio, in the first 10 minutes of the game with injuries. They also lost Joe Crosby on a match misconduct penalty early in the second period.

"There's no doubt those injuries hurt us." said Coach Scotty Watson. "It's tough against Markham at the best of time.
