It has become the Canadian boating industry's shop window. Inboards, outboards, utilities, cruisers, canoes, inflatables, folding, sailing, wood, aluminum and fibre market, all under one roof.

If you're a sportsman, if you're just you. You've got something to see. Show hours are from 12 noon to 10.30 pm on weekdays and 10:30 am to 10:30 pm on Saturdays and 1 to 7 pm on Sundays.

Now you'll have to excuse me. I'll just bow out at this point. That's my canoe over there. I'll just heft it on my shoulders . . . uh . . . like this. I'll be on my way. I've kept my friend Pierre Radisson waiting long enough. A very impatient man. Coming, Pierre, coming . . .

TO GO ON

Wow. Judging from the above trip, I think all those crazy phospates are starting to get to me. Cutting off my oxygen. Will just have to stop using them on my cereal, at least cut down.

However, to push on.

There's not much sense pursuing the Richmond Hill Rams Junior "B" hockey demise for 1969-70. At least not any more. The Rams closed out the season Tuesday night of last week bowing 7-3 to Markham and that's all for now, ain't any more.

Still in a life-and-death struggle are the Rich- Gormley. mond Hill Inn-Crowd boys who (at the time of writing) are two points ahead of Willowdale Rangers in a bid to retain the eighth and last playoff spot in the Senior "B" loop.

The Inn-Crowd has one game left, Willowdale Assists went to Richard Reid, two. So you can figure it out for yourself. This higher mathematics stuff always throws me. So will leave it at that and give you the good grim news Duane Robertson and Kenneth Rick Hopson and Bruce Daven- Dunford and Ken Harmon add- Real Estate 4. next week. Richmond Hill, by the way, closes out Woods who was helped by port with Hopson and Art ed single goals and Brendon the regular schedule against Elmvale in Elmvale Chris Bedford this Sunday. A win will assure Richmond Hill of at least a tie for eighth even if The Rangers win both their remaining games.

FINALE

Onto some more hockey. Don't forget that big exhibition hockey game coming up between The Flying Fathers and The NHL Old-Timers this Tuesday night at the new arena. Game time is 8 pm. The contest is being sponsored by the El Shamaly Shrine Club and the Knights of Columbus. Proceeds will go towards charity.

For tickets call Jim Stanley at 221-0517 or Jim Doran at 884-7615. Tickets also available at the box office.

CALLING BALL PARENTS

Finally, an important softball note. The Rich- Doug Boyce one each. mond Hill Minor Ball Association will hold its annual executive meeting this Sunday (that's this Sunday, February 15) at the Legion Hall at 2 pm.

I can't stress it too much. If the parents want their kids to play minor ball this season, the least they can do is find time to turn out for an hour or so. Don't let Jack do it, do it yourself.
