Thornhill Woman Badly Hurt Near Orangeville
Mrs. Elizabeth Botttrill, 37, of 170 Dudley Avenue, Thornhill, is in fair condition in Dufferin Area Hospital in Orangeville after a head-on two-car collision on Highway 9 Sunday. Two men were killed in the crash. She was in serious condition overnight, a hospital spokesman told "The Liberal".
Mrs. Botttrill suffered facial and head injuries, and has a broken wrist. She was alone in her car.
Dead are Joseph Braun, 59, and son Konrad, 22, both of RR 2, Mount Forest. Mrs. Louise Braun, 45, is also in serious condition in hospital.
Provincial Police said the road was slippery and snow was falling at the time of the accident.

REPORT

OAK RIDGES DETACHMENT Man 28, Girl 8, Die In Highway Fatalities

Two fatalities were recorded by the Oak Ridges Detachment of the Provincial Police during the past week. Ernest Charles Moyle, 28, of 150 Humewood Drive, Toronto, was the victim in a fatal hit and run accident on Highway 400, south of the King Side-road, about 1:30 am March 21. He was driving a 1968 Volkswagen which was northbound and south on the road. The driver was thrown from the car, then was struck by an unknown vehicle while lying in the southbound driving lane. The vehicle being sought is believed to be a late model, equipped with studded tires. It is believed to have twin tail-lights, rectangular in shape, about 10 inches wide and a rounded emblem or crest, silver in color, near the roof line on the driver's side near the rear window. Anyone knowing of such a vehicle or anyone witnessing the accident is asked to contact the OPP Oak Ridges Detachment, by phoning 925-7402 or 773-5281. King Township Coroner Dr. J. A. Saunders attended. Investigation was carried out by Constable Charles Stewart and Corporal Bruce McCallum of Newmarket.

Eight-year-old Victoria Mary Down of RR 2, Pefferlaw, was the other victim. She was killed when struck by a truck as she attempted to cross Highway 48 at Pefferlaw Road at 8:25 am March 19. Driver of the truck was William John Clayton of Concession 9, Thornhill Township, Beaverton. This accident was investigated by Constable Clair Whetham of Aurora.

Four persons were injured in a two-car accident on Highway 7 at Dufferin Street, March 20 at 4:50 pm. One car was driven by Glen Love, 18, of RR 2, Holstein and the other by Gary Hall, 30, of 29 Elliott Street, Brampton. Injured were Irene Hall, 23, face and head injuries, Christopher Hall, 2, head injury, Elaine Hall 5, bruises and cuts and Brent Hall, 5, bruises and cuts. All were taken to York Central Hospital for treatment. Investigating officer was Constable Anthony Vincent of Newmarket.

Legion Midgets Rebound In Finals Blast Leamington By 10-2 Score

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets may be faced with charges of common assault after the way in which they demolished Leamington 10-2 in the third game of their best-of-five OMHA Finals Tuesday night at the local arena. It was strictly no contest as Richmond Hill - still smarting from opening game 4-1 and 4-3 losses in Leamington - came up carrying sticks of dynamite instead of sticks. Centre-man Colin Wood led the foray as he fired home four goals and could have quite easily scored a few more with a little more luck. Larry Kellett scored twice. Dick Weber, Greg Binkley and Tony Bellevance. Brian Plumb and Ken Cobby got the only pucks past Goalie Dave Carnell who spent most of the night doing push-ups while whiling away the time between infrequent Leamington rushes into The Hill end. Richmond Hill, despite the impressive win, still has its back to the wall needing two straight wins if the team hopes to avoid playoff oblivion. The fourth game of the playoffs was scheduled for Wednesday (March 25) at the arena at 6:30 pm with the fifth game (if necessary) in Leamington later on in the week.

Most outstanding player on the Hill team was Shifty Centre-man Wood who led numerous rushes into the Leamington end. He was aided and abetted by the offensive-defensive stand-out play of Tony Bellevance who controlled the puck and play every time he was out on the ice. Another defensive standout was Kellett. All three received "star" notices for their night's play. Despite the lopsided score, Leamington came out with a rush and controlled play for the first nine minutes helped in part by Richmond Hill penalties.

The visitors had a few close chances, failed, and were never really in the game from there on in. Richmond Hill led 3-0 at the end of the first period and 4-1 going into the third. They added six more goals to Leamington's one to win going away.

Best goal of the night was scored by Bellevance to make it 10-1 near the end of the game. Bellevance gathered the puck in behind his own net, cut away from two Leamington players, scooted right down the ice, cut in over the blueline, and fired a high shot into the rigging. No one got near him on his flight to score.

Hardest check of the night honors also went to Bellevance who caught Leamington's Ed Dick with his head down coming over the blueline. Result: Dick went down and out for a few seconds. A clean check all the way. It was a different story in Leamington as an over-confident Richmond Hill squad had their ears pinned back by a hustling Leamington team to the tune of 4-1.

The Legion crew started to come on in the second game but still lost by one goal in overtime action. Richmond Hill is tentatively slated to play in Leamington Saturday at 6:30 pm.

Police Chase Results Arrest Richvale Youth

An Ontario Provincial Police pursuit of a traffic violator at 11:30 pm on March 21 ended up on Observatory Lane with a minor accident, recovery of a stolen Thornhill car and car theft charges against one person. The car, a 1965 Oldsmobile, belonged to Orlando Sauro of 22 Maryvale Crescent, Richvale. It suffered an estimated $150 damage and a sign post and guide wire were smashed. The driver tried to elude police by dodging in and out of a parking area at a driveway. After the accident he ran from the car. James Hudema, 17, of 51 Oak Avenue, Richvale, faces a charge of theft over $50. Otherwise, the local area was just about free of accidents.

New Street Lights For Yonge

Another major development in the reconstruction of Yonge Street began this week as Richmond Hill Hydro took the first steps towards the erection of a new modern street lighting system along the town's main street at an estimated cost of $140,000. The old wooden poles will be removed and brand new spun concrete ones will be staggered on both sides of the street with a distance of 150 to 180 feet between each pole. The poles will be 37 feet high and each will display modern mercury vapour lamps. There will be 20 fewer poles along Yonge and the whole area extending from Markham Road to Elgin Mills is scheduled to have the new lights. Once the hydro and sewer work is completed the actual task of rebuilding and widening the street will begin.

Suspicious Fires Remain Mystery To Area Chiefs

There have been no arrests yet in the recent series of vacant home and barn fires in Markham and Vaughan Townships, report Richmond Hill Fire Chief Alfred Stong and Vaughan Township Fire Chief James Davidson.

Fire Chief Stong said this week the Ontario Fire Marshal's office reported that persons unknown may have set fires in a vacant home on Don Mills Road north of Victoria Square.

Also one person was being sought for questioning in connection with a fire threat believed to have been made. This involves a barn full of riding horses that burned east of Bayview Avenue, adjacent to Richmond Hill.

The cause of two other grass fires in North Thornhill last week is still unknown. Both were on the CN right-of-way and could have been caused by sparks or hot metal from the brakes of passing trains. One was March 18 at 1:07 pm at the rear of 45 Romfield Circuit and the other was at 2 pm March 20 at the rear of 33 Romfield Circuit.

Hot ashes dumped in with the garbage in an attached garage at 138 Clarke Avenue, South Thornhill, resulted in a smoke filled house and a fire department call March 17 at 12:18 pm.

Fire Chief Davidson said this incident should serve as a warning to everyone that ashes should not be put anywhere but in a special metal container. There was little damage to the home of Adrian Tucciarone.

A plugged air filter on a clothes dryer caused a small fire but no damage at 1:09 pm March 19 at the home of Fred Tocherl of 10 Vanwood Crescent, Thornhill.

The bomb threat was at Crown Cork and Seal Co. Ltd., 7900 Keele Street at 2:59 pm March 20. Five fire bombs were supposed to have been planted, according to a telephone call, but firemen searched and found nothing.

An overheated fluorescent light transformer at 10:32 pm March 20 brought firemen to Sidney Jacobs' Thornhill Smoke Shop at 7721 Yonge Street.

Vaughan Township Fire Chief Davidson was to be guest speaker for the Peele-Dufferin Mutual Aid Association meeting today (March 25) at 8 pm at the Streetsville Fire Hall. His topic is "Transportation of Hazardous Chemicals", which has become a problem in Vaughan.

It has been found there is no information available and suitable for firefighters in regard to a substantial number of chemicals being transported by trucks and trains, and being used by local industry.

Markham Twp. Police Jail Youths Following $1,000 Gas Bar Theft

Close to $1,000 was seized by Markham Township Police Sunday and two teenagers were charged in Richmond Hill Provincial Court Monday after a theft from a cash box at the Ringwood Gas Bar on Highway 48 at the Whitehurst - Markham Townline Saturday.

Peter Cox of RR 1, Stouffville, and William Traynonoff of 64 Main Street, Unionville, were remanded until March 31 on a charge of stealing more than $50. They had bail set at $500.

Police said the theft took place between 3:30 pm and 6:30 pm Saturday.

In Richmond Hill there were two break-ins at schools last week. At Beverley Acres Public School, Neal Drive, March 22 there was $75 malicious damage to a plastic dome on the roof. At Walter Scott School on Markham Road someone slipped the lock on a portable classroom, tipped over the teacher's desk and scattered its contents. A $50 overhead projector was smashed.

In Richvale March 21 at Yonge Street and Carrville Road, Vaughan Township Police caught a couple breaking windows.

On March 22 at Westwood Lane in Richvale there was damage to two automobiles when rear view mirrors were removed and stolen.

On March 20 at Vicerooy Construction Company Limited, 7320 Yonge Street, Thornhill, there was a break-in and theft. A portable television and two electric razors were stolen. They were valued at $289. This was at a cottage showroom which was ransacked, Vaughan Township Police said.

Peter Cox of RR 1, Stouffville, and William Traynonoff of 64 Main Street, Unionville, were remanded until March 31 on a charge of stealing more than $50. They had bail set at $500.

Police said the theft took place between 3:30 pm and 6:30 pm Saturday.
