Something To Brighten Your Home

More than 200 paintings by 20 artists will be on display at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church, at the corner of Bayview and Crosby Avenues, Richmond Hill East, Saturday from 3 to 8 pm. The framed original paintings come from the gallery of William Gamon, and all will be for sale. Above Mrs. Russell Seltzer and Al Thomas admire one of the colorful and charming paintings which will be shown. Wine and cheese will be available. Admission to the show is 50c, which also entitles the ticketholder (whether present or not) to participate in a lucky draw.

Youth Charged—Poaching, Malicious Damage, Burglary Marijuana Seized

A $2,000 Richmond Hill clothing store burglary, several thousand dollars worth of malicious damage in Richmond Hill schools, a $2,000 burglary at Pine Grove, break-ins at Thornhill, poaching in Whitechurch Township and terrorizing of a Thornhill apartment building by an armed youth.

All these were under investigation last week by local police departments.

Five juveniles have been charged after an 8 pm Sunday police pursuit at Crosby Heights Senior School in Richmond Hill.

During the week five town schools were entered by some-one running amok. Police said accurate estimation of the damage was difficult since much painting and repairing would be involved. But damage of at least $3,000 is indicated.

It started April 21 at the Thornhill School for Retarded Children at 317 Centre Street East. Between 5 pm and 7:40 pm the school was entered by forcing a door. A paint spray bomb was used to spray along walls and murals. Stolen were machines, tools, pictures and tape recorder reels. Malicious damage was widespread. One mural liberally splattered with red paint won a prize last year at the Canadian National Exhibition. It was about the community of Richmond Hill, and all the work was done by Thornhill students. It has been hanging in the hall.

Then over the weekend schools were hit four times.

Beverly Acres Junior School at 283 Neal Drive was entered by smashing a window. Malicious damage included the ransacking of ink and glue bottles, smashing of glass, throwing around coffee and oranges, and crayoning on walls. Damage was thought to be close to $500.

An almost exact repetition of the Beverly Acres situation was discovered Sunday morning at Crosby Junior School, 305 Crosby Avenue. Here the amount of damage was similar. Then at the Crosby Senior School, in the same building, more malicious damage was found.

Entry was gained through a window and the rooms were ransacked. The extent of damage was getting worse, possibly about $800 this time.

Then about 8 pm Sunday came the fifth incident and the police pursuit. Some bystanders at the nearby ball park helped police collar one youth who scaled a seven-foot fence after getting out of the school ahead of police.

Town police, at last report, were still investigating the April 16 $2,000 burglary at Kent Clothes, 16 Levedale Road, Richmond Heights Centre.

Burglars entered the store through a rear door and stole a number of suits, including some made-to-measure for local residents. Other items of apparel were also taken.

Sunday, April 26, at 11 pm, Markham Township Police were called to an apartment building at 235 Baythorn Drive, Thornhill. An armed youth was reported marching up and down in front of the building, shouting and hollering.

Daniel Tinkler, 17, of 8133 Yonge Street, was charged Monday in Richmond Hill Provincial Court with possession of dangerous weapons, a .22 calibre air gun and a butcher knife.

In Whitechurch Township April 27 at 12:23 pm Jack Beard of 7 Freeman Street, Scarborough, was charged with trespassing on the Boylston railway property, at Concession 5 and the Vivian Sideroad. Whitechurch Police also summoned Beard to Newmarket Provincial Court to face a charge of theft of speckled trout valued at less than $50.

In another Whitechurch Township poaching case, two men were arrested at the Hazleton property, Concession 5 and Gormley Sideroad, April 26 at 6 am. They were Jack Hagerman of 960 Markham Road, Apartment 707, Scarborough, and Edward Duerton of 45 Greenoble Drive, Don Mills.

Police laid trespassing charges and the game warden laid charges involving poaching with crabs in baskets.

Whitechurch Township Police are still looking for a 14-foot plywood boat and trailer worth $800 and reported stolen April 25 from the home of Charles Tupper, 8 Park Crescent, Lake Wilcox. The white boat has green trim and a mahogany deck. The home-made trailer is red with black fenders. The boat is equipped with a 40 horsepower electric-start motor.

Of three Thornhill break-ins last week, only one hasn't been cleared by laying charges.

The unsolved break-in was at Thornhill Fish and Chips, 120 Clark Avenue, April 21. Someone slipped the back door lock, but nothing was taken.

There were two break-ins at Thornhill Restaurant, 7723 Yonge Street, Thornhill.

In the first one $90 was taken between 8 and 11:55 pm. The second time, April 22 at 9:50 pm, nothing was taken and the Markham Township Police laid a charge.

In Vaughan Township there was a break-in April 24 at a Hayhoe Avenue home in Pine Grove. Two television sets, a camera and a cash box were missing. The loss was estimated at $1,980.

Also April 24 there was an estimated $200 loss and damage in a break-in at a home on Concession 7, south of Maple Road. A gold watch was taken.

A summer cottage was entered April 26 on Repperton 7, but nothing was reported missing.

Vaughan Township Police were investigating their share of vandalism last week.

A Volkswagen car windshield was smashed by someone April 24 on Roosevelt Drive.

The next day a brick thrown from the roadway on Oak Avenue, Thornhill, hit a car in a driveway and caused an estimated $75 damage.

Also April 25 someone drove a car into the driveway and across the lawn of a Garden Avenue home. The lawn and water pipes were damaged.

An automobile owned by Jens Jacobson of Gormley Sideroad was stolen April 24 from the parking lot of the Langstaff Secondary School. The car was later found on Royal Orchard Blvd., Thornhill.

Detective Green is Detective Hay's police partner and took the witness stand next. His evidence was similar to that of Detective Hay. He added that four gelatin capsules with unknown contents were found in Neal's apartment.

Then Constable Benjamin Jenkins of the RCMP Toronto Drug Squad took the stand to give expert evidence. He spent six months as an undercover agent in Toronto's Yorkville, working on the drug traffic problem, he said.

Constable Jenkins said drug traffickers usually have their own scales, while drug users don't. An ounce of marijuana would sell for $25 to $30, or more if there was a scarcity.

He said the marijuana-like material turned over to him by the Richmond Hill Police on January 13 was analyzed and was found to be cannabis marijuana.

Witnesses were excluded from the court when they were not actually giving evidence. This was at the request of Defence Attorney Mintz.

Deadline Studded Tires

Thousands of motorists are calling local police stations to find out when they must remove studded snow tires from their vehicles, says Constable Frank Clark of the OPP Oak Ridge Detachment.

Constable Clark says the provincial deadline for removing studded tires is today (Thursday). After that date motorists using studded tires are subject to a penalty.

Witnesses were excluded from the court when they were not actually giving evidence. This was at the request of Defence Attorney Mintz.

121st Spring Fair May 22 - 23 Will Feature The Women's Work

The 121st Spring Fair and Horse Show which will be held May 22 and 23 has something for everybody. The town park will be the centre of attraction for all age groups on those two days.

Of special interest to the lady of the house are the competitions in domestic science and needlecraft which offer generous cash prizes.

Mrs. Arnold Morton, RR2 Gormley (884-3065), is chairman of the committee in charge of the domestic science classes which will be on display in the new arena. The entries will be judged by Mrs. William Caugherty, Streetsville. Entries will be received between 2 and 9 pm May 21 at the arena. All exhibitors must be members of the society and the membership fee is $1.

There are five classes in bread and buns, nine in cookies and cakes and four in pies. Prizes offered are $1.50, $1 and 75c in each class.

There are also several special prizes offered — for chocolate layer cake, apple pie, butter tart, arrangements of fresh fruit for dining room table, four ways of serving cheese and a decorated cake, as well as for top point winners in this section.

If the good cooks in this area are interested in pitting their baking skills against others, Mrs. Morton will be happy to supply full details of all competitions and rules.

There are 80 classes for competition in the needlecraft division which will also be displayed in the arena and which is chaired by Carol Waller, whose phone number is 884-2500. Mrs. Waller will also be happy to supply complete details to those interested in competing. Cash prizes of $1.50, $1.25 and $1 are offered in each class, with two special prizes.

Bennett's Home Textiles offer a skirt length for the best made skirt and the Spinning Wheel Wool Centre is donating a prize for the best knitted tam and scarf set.

There are 18 classes under household linens, 10 under children's wear, 17 under women's wear, five under men's wear and nine for homecraft.

Crafts included in the competitions are sewing, knitting, crocheting, embroidery, quilting, rug hooking and braiding, leathercraft, petpoint and roll-on embroidery.

For the under 16-year-olds there are six competitive classes and for the seniors 15 classes in roll-on embroidery.

March For Millions Saturday

Hundreds of thousands of Canadians of all ages will be out in force Saturday to participate in the third annual "March For Millions" which provides funds to several organizations which assist underprivileged people in underprivileged countries.

Richmond Hill Councillor David Schiller announced he will be participating for the third time, under the sponsorship of several local businessmen. Richmond Hill will also be represented by many young people who have also been diligently seeking sponsors to indicate their concern for the less fortunate.

EDWARD JURZCAK, DDS
New Dentist in Hill

Edward Jurczak, DDS, of Toronto is opening a general practice of dentistry at 122 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill, this week.

A native of Toronto and a 1970 graduate of the University of Toronto Faculty of Dentistry, Dr. Jurczak intends to take up residence in Richmond Hill as soon as possible. For the present he will continue to reside in Toronto.

A brother, Dr. Walter Jurczak, has been practicing dentistry in Maple for several years and is an active member of Maple Lions, so the Hill's new dentist is quite familiar with this district and intends to become involved in community life.

He is particularly interested in sports and participates in both summer and winter recreational pursuits.
